RONALD F. THIEMANN

Revelation And Theology The Gospel As Narrated Promise

Daniel L. Migliore

Revelation And Theology The Gospel As Narrated Promise:

Revelation and Theology Ronald F. Thiemann, 2005-11-01 Arguing that the Christian doctrine of revelation is necessary for understanding the prevenience of God's grace Ronald Thiemann defends the doctrine of revelation by focusing on the identity and reality of the promising God depicted in the biblical narrative According to Thiemann The crisis of revelation has occurred within a cultural context decisively marked by radical pluralism The modern defender of God's reality must seek to show how God is both in relation and prior to those human concepts by which we seek to grasp his reality He or she must do so by an argument which resists the reduction of theology to anthropology In analysis of such diverse thinkers as John Locke Friedrich Schleiermacher and Thomas Torrance Thiemann criticizes the epistemological foundationalism adopted by theologians to provide theoretical justification for the divine origins of Christian beliefs He argues that the doctrine of revelation must be seen as an account supporting the intelligibility and truth of a set of Christian convictions His notion of the narrated promise reveals God's prevenience as promiser and humanity as recipient of the promise In an examination of the Gospel of Matthew Thiemann shows how the biblical narrative identifies God as the God of promise and invites the reader to participate in God's prevenient reality

Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 2004-06-14 Daniel Migliore's Faith Seeking Understanding has been a standard introduction to Christian theology for more than a decade The book's presentation of traditional doctrine in freshly contemporary ways its concern to hear and critically engage new voices in theology and its creative and accessible style have kept it one of the most stimulating balanced and readable guides to theology available This second edition of Faith Seeking Understanding features improvements from cover to cover Besides updating and expanding the entire text of the book Migliore has added two completely new chapters The first Confessing Jesus Christ in Context explores the unique contributions to Christian theology made by recent theologians working in the African American Asian American Latin American Hispanic feminist womanist and mujerista traditions The second new chapter The Finality of Jesus Christ and Religious Pluralism addresses the growing interest in the relationship of Christianity to other religions and their adherents Migliore's three delightful theological dialogues are followed by a new appendix an extensive glossary of theological terms making the book even more useful to students seeking to understand the history themes and challenges of Christian belief

Review Symposium on Revelation and Theology, 1987 Why Narrative? Stanley Hauerwas, L. Gregory Jones, 1997-10-28 Narrative Theology is still with us to the delight of some and to the chagrin of others Why Narrative is in reprint because it represents what is still a very important question This diverse collection of essays on narrative theology has proven very useful in university and seminary theology classes It is also of great use as a primer for the educated layperson or church study group Jones and Hauerwas have done an excellent job of selecting representative essays that deal with appeals to narrative in areas such as personal identity and human action biblical hermeneutics epistemology and theological and ethical method

Biblical Narrative in the Philosophy of Paul Ricoeur

Kevin J. Vanhoozer,1990-04-27 A critical account of Ricoeur s theory of narrative interpretation and its contribution to theology Revelation and the Word of God Paul Avis,2024-05-02 A unique work of Fundamental Theology Revelation and the Word of God explores key issues of divine revelation as open questions They include Why is revelation so elusive Existential and philosophical problems of revelation in the context of apologetics The self revelation of God in mystery What does it mean to say as the Bible does that God speaks and acts How does revelation relate to the Bible history religious experience and the church The relational and personalist dimensions of revelation What the biblical Wisdom tradition contributes to our understanding of revelation The threefold form of the Word of God Jesus Christ the incarnate Word Logos and Wisdom Sophia of God the Scriptures that witness to him and the church s proclamation kerygma in preaching sacraments and other ways The role of hermeneutics cultural constraints and imagination in the reception of revelation Critique including Feminist Theology of claimed revelation Is there revelation today How do developments in doctrine and practice relate to divine revelation The liturgy as a vehicle of the Word of God The Word in pastoral practice Jesus Christ as the crown and criterion of divine revelation according to the Fourth Gospel Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 Yeo,2021-09-06 Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 is a formal analysis of Paul s rhetorical interaction with the Corinthians over the issues of participation in the cultic meal 1 Cor 10 1 22 and the eating of idol food 1 Cor 8 1 13 10 23 11 1 The thesis is that Paul s theology and rhetoric are predicated on knowledge and love Major portions of the book employ rhetorical sociological archaeological and historical critical approaches to examine the triangular interaction between Paul the Corinthians and the biblical texts paying particular attention to the complex configuration of the Corinthian congregation including the influence of proto Gnosticism as well as the ways Paul responded to the shifting situation and different issues The two chapters on rhetorical hermeneutical theory and criticism are especially creative as the author suggests a Chinese hermeneutic for cross cultural dialogues the issue of ancestor worship being a specific example Realism and Christian Faith Andrew Moore,2003-03-27 The question of realism that is whether God exists independently of human beings is central to much contemporary theology and church life It is also an important topic in the philosophy of religion This book discusses the relationship between realism and Christian faith in a thorough and systematic way and uses the resources of both philosophy and theology to argue for a Christocentric narrative realism Many previous defences of realism have attempted to model Christian belief on scientific theory but Moore argues that this comparison is misleading and inadequate on both theological and philosophical grounds In dialogue with speech act theory and critiques of realism by both non realists and Wittgensteinians a new account of the meaningfulness of Christian language is proposed Moore uses this to develop a regulative conception of realism according to which God s independent reality is shown principally in Christ and then through Christian practices and the lives of Christians The Nature of Doctrine in T.F. Torrance's Theology Elmer M. Colyer,2001-11-09 Thomas F Torrance is considered by many to be the most important English speaking theologian of the last fifty years Torrance has written extensively over six hundred items on nearly every theme in theology especially theological method and the nature of theology Yet little secondary literature about his theology has been published to date The significance of this book by Elmer M Colyer is that it discusses a theme the nature of doctrine that takes readers into the heart of Torrance s critical realist epistemology theological method and understanding of the nature and purpose of theology Colyer also contributes significantly to the ongoing conversation concerning the nature of doctrine since Torrance s understanding of doctrine moves considerably beyond the work of George Lindbeck The Nature of Doctrine and Alister McGrath The Genesis of Doctrine in this area Christian Dogmatics van der Kooi & van den Brink, 2017 A fresh inviting text on the content of Christian faith in our contemporary context This one volume systematic theology presents an accessible orthodox overview of the Christian faith for students teachers pastors and serious lay readers Cornelis van der Kooi and Gijsbert van den Brink not only cover all the traditional themes creation sin Jesus Christ Scripture and so on but also relate those classical themes to contemporary developments like Pentecostalism postfoundationalism and evolutionary theory Consisting of sixteen chapters the book is ideal for classroom use Each chapter begins with engaging questions and a statement of learning goals and concludes with a list of recommended further reading Written in a student friendly tone and style and expertly translated and edited van der Kooi and van den Brink s Christian Dogmatics splendidly displays the real practical relevance of theology to the complexities of our world today
