Atwood,Roger Atwood,2019-09-01 Nonfiction storytelling is at its best in this anthology of excerpts from memoirs by thirty authors some eminent some less well known who grew up tough and talented in working class America Their stories selected from literary memoirs published between 1982 and 2014 cover episodes from childhood to young adulthood within a spectrum of life changing experiences Although diverse ethnically racially geographically and in sexual orientation these writers share a youthful precocity and determination to find opportunity where little appeared to exist All of these perspectives are explored within the larger context of economic insecurity a needed perspective in this time of growing inequality These memoirists grew up in families that led hardscrabble lives in which struggle and strenuous effort were the norm Their stories offer insight on the realities of class in America as well as inspiration and hope Breakfast with

Buddha Roland Merullo,2008-08-26 Enlightenment meets On the Road in this witty insightful novel The Boston Sunday Globe When his sister tricks him into taking her guru on a trip to their childhood home Otto Ringling a confirmed skeptic is not amused Six days on the road with an enigmatic holy man who answers every question with a riddle is not what he d planned But in an effort to westernize his passenger and amuse himself he decides to show the monk some American fun along the way From a chocolate factory in Hershey to a bowling alley in South Bend from a Cubs game at Wrigley field to his family farm near Bismarck Otto is given the remarkable opportunity to see his world and more important his life through someone else s eyes Gradually skepticism yields to amazement as he realizes that his companion might just be the real thing In Roland Merullo s masterful hands Otto tells his story with all the wonder bemusement and wry humor of a man who unwittingly finds what he s missing in the most unexpected place Assyrians in Yonkers John Pierre Ameer,2008 This book is Dr Ameer s reflection on growing up within the small community of Assyrian Christians in Yonkers New York He uses the year 1946 as an orientation for his discussion of that ethnic community city and time in history The book enables readers to reflect on those aspects of community critical to civic support and on the process of successful assimilation in mid twentieth century America The author describes the experience of living in an ethnically religiously and racially diverse society This will be of particular interest to people concerned with sustaining the idea of community in American life Contemporary
