ITALY - REVIEWS OF NATIONAL SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY POLICY. Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 1992      Research and Innovation Policies in the New Global Economy Philippe Larédo, Philippe

Mustar, 2001-11-28 The book is quite valuable with its broad international coverage of state activities in the area of research and innovation support It should also foster serious debates on the balance between public and private efforts in research and innovation Mats Benner Journal of Economic Literature this book provides the reader with a valuable summary of national public policy approaches to research and innovation at the end of the twentieth century and is a useful addition to the shelves of industrial policy experts David Gray Entrepreneurship and Innovation The book analyses the evolution of research and innovation policies in the world's leading countries The last decade has witnessed a radical transformation of the landscape shaped after World War II as described in the seminal collection edited by Richard Nelson in the early 1990s Even though national systems have inherited different institutional arrangements and trajectories analyses show three major converging trends in their public policies There has been a retraction from support to large firms and programmes and a shift toward small to medium enterprises and the innovation infrastructure the focus on public research and training capabilities is growing and there has been a redesign of public intervention with the growing role of regions and states on one hand and multinational authorities on the other particularly in the European Union      OECD Reviews of Regional Innovation: Piedmont, Italy 2009 OECD, 2009-06-08 The Piedmont area of Italy is one of the top ten manufacturing regions in Europe and enjoys the highest levels of business investment in R D in Italy This report reviews how Piedmont's new regional strategy supports innovation and how its efforts can be improved      ISNAR Agricultural Research Indicator Series Philip G.

Economic Co-operation and Development, 1993      National Innovation Systems Richard R. Nelson, 1993-06-03 The slowdown of growth in Western industrialized nations in the last twenty years along with the rise of Japan as a major economic and technological power and enhanced technical sophistication of Taiwan Korea and other NICs has led to what the authors believe to be a techno nationalism This combines a strong belief that technological capabilities of a nation's firms are a key source of their competitive process with a belief that these capabilities are in a sense national and can be built by national action This book is about these national systems of technical innovation The heart of the work contains studies of seventeen countries from large market oriented industrialized ones to several smaller high income ones including a number of newly industrialized states as well Clearly written this work highlights institutions and mechanisms which support technical innovation showing similarities differences and their sources across nations making this work accessible to students as well as the scholars of innovation
