Revisiting Sakuntalam A Commentary On Go:

History of Ancient India Revisited, A Vedic-Puranic View. Omesh K. Chopra, 2020-03-02 The Vedic Puranic literature as well as archaeological geological historical linguistic and literary accounts have been reviewed to establish the various cultures that evolved in ancient India from about 3500 BCE to the Mahabharata War 1450 BCE The book describes various misconceptions e g the myth about an Aryan invasion The following markers are used to establish the dates and geographical locations of various cultures i The rise in sea levels due to melting of land based snow after the last Ice Age ii Migration of the Dravidian people from the lost continent of Kumari Kandam that submerged under the Indian Ocean iii The dates for the start of farming use of kiln baked bricks domestication of horses and metal working in the Indian subcontinent iv The dates when Sarasvati River dried up and the Mahabharata War occurred The book notes that asva containing or rath containing names could not have existed before horses were domesticated or chariots were in use The book also notes that Mathura Krsna is different from Dwarka Krsna the two are separated by more than 1000 years During Mathura Krsna s time conflicts were settled by hand to hand combat or with the use of a mace In contrast during Dwarka Krsna s time metal arms were used A Dream Revisited , 2003 On Delhi Metro Rail Corporation Ltd urban subway and local transit project of Delhi and the press coverage of its inception operational plan and execution a study Modern South Asian Thinkers Dev Nath Pathak, Sanjeev Kumar H.M, 2025-10-30 This exceptional anthology brings together a collection of insightful expositions on modern South Asian thinkers and thoughts Employing an encyclopedic approach this volume delves deep into the intellectual history of South Asia transcending traditional academic perspectives and exploring a rich tapestry of ideas from various sources across time The book departs from the imported ideas of South Asia by delving into the diverse intellectual heritage of the region pertaining to political thinkers social and cultural thinkers and activists Historically the book aids in approaching the enduring social and political challenges in South Asia Drawing from an extensive array of works including polemics commentaries literary accounts politics and poetics modern thoughts in South Asia provide systematic solutions to the perennial issues that shape the region The curatorial consequence of the modern thoughts from the region put together in this compendium is a collective consciousness of South Asia as an offspring of the epistemological interface between region and universe The readers of this book shall arrive at a profound insight into the social political and cultural intricacies the transformative power of ideas and their enduring influence on the development of the region This book would be useful to students researchers and teachers working in the field of political science philosophy history and sociology in varied course curricula such as Indian political thought Eastern philosophy South Asian thought political thinkers and modern political thought Social Media and Hate Shakuntala Banaji, Ramnath Bhat, 2021-12-30 Using expert interviews and focus groups this book investigates the theoretical and practical intersection of misinformation and social media hate in contemporary societies Social Media and Hate argues that these phenomena and the extreme violence and discrimination they initiate against targeted groups are connected to the socio political contexts values and behaviours of users of social media platforms such as Facebook TikTok ShareChat Instagram and WhatsApp The argument moves from a theoretical discussion of the practices and consequences of sectarian hatred through a methodological evaluation of quantitative and qualitative studies on this topic to four qualitative case studies of social media hate and its effects on groups individuals and wider politics in India Brazil Myanmar and the UK The technical ideological and networked similarities and connections between social media hate against people of African and Asian descent indigenous communities Muslims Dalits dissenters feminists LGBTQIA communities Rohingya and immigrants across the four contexts is highlighted stressing the need for an equally systematic political response This is an insightful text for scholars and academics in the fields of Cultural Studies Community Psychology Education Journalism Media and Communication Studies Political Science Social Anthropology Social Psychology and Sociology
