Sextette Translations From The French:

English Responses to French Poetry 1880-1940 Jennifer Higgins, 2017-12-02 Between 1880 and 1940 English responses to French poetry evolved from marginalised expressions of admiration associated with rebellion against the establishment to mainstream mutual exchange and appreciation The translation of poetry underwent a simultaneous evolution from attempts to produce definitive renderings to definitions of translation as an ongoing generative process at the centre of literary debate This study traces the impact of French poetry in England via a wide range of translations by major poets of the time as well as renderings by now forgotten writers It explores poetry and translations beyond the limits of the usual canon and identifies key moments of influence from late 19th century English homages to Victor Hugo as a liberal icon to Ezra Pound reinterpreting Charles Baudelaire for the 20th century

Challenges of Translation in French Literature Richard Bales, 2005 In celebrating the academic career and practice of a distinguished scholar of French literature this volume concentrates on one of Peter Broome's major preoccupations and attainments translation Eschewing a dogmatic theoretical approach the contributors former colleagues and students tackle four rich areas of study modern anglophone poets reactions to and translations of authors with whom they have closely identified Racine the Symbolists Saint John Perse Valéry problematics of translating specific poets of recent centuries Rimbaud Mallarmé Valéry C. Saire some contemporary poets reception and interaction in two foreign countries Australia Spain and a more fluid interpretation of translation moving the notion across into wider realms of literary expression Mallarmé Proust Assia Djebar A focalising feature punctuating the volume are Peter Broome's own translations of hitherto unpublished poems by five major contemporary French writers Jean Paul Auxémery Marie Claire Bancquart Louise Herlin-Venus Khoury Ghata and Jean Charles Vegliante The book thus intertwines theory and practice in a non prescriptive manner which invites further elaboration and analysis

Baudelaire's World Rosemary H. Lloyd, 2018-09-05 Charles Baudelaire is often regarded as the founder of modernist poetry Written with clarity and verve Baudelaire's World provides English language readers with the biographical historical and cultural contexts that will lead to a fuller understanding and enjoyment of the great French poet's work Rosemary Lloyd considers all of Baudelaire's writing including his criticism theory and letters as well as poetry In doing so she sets the poems themselves in a richer context in a landscape of real places populated with actual people She shows how Baudelaire's poetry was marked by the influence of the writers and artists who preceded him or were his contemporaries Lloyd builds an image of Baudelaire's world around major themes of his writing childhood women reading the city dreams art nature death Throughout she finds that his words and themes echo the historical and physical realities of life in mid nineteenth century Paris Lloyd also explores the possibilities and limitations of translation As an integral part of her treatment of the life poetry and letters of her subject she also reflects on published translations of Baudelaire's work and offers some of her own translations
