Sexual Interactions And Hiv Risk New Conceptual Perspectives In European Research:

Sexual Interactions and HIV Risk Mitchell Cohen, Gustavo Guizzardi, Dominique Hausser, Luc Van Campenhoudt, 2003-12-16 This work examines the theories and perspectives involved in the study of sexual risk behaviour and HIV It provides a framework for analysis based on sexual interactions and their social context Sexual Interactions and HIV Risk Mitchell Cohen, Gustavo Guizzardi, Dominique Hausser, Luc Van Campenhoudt, 2003-12-16 How sexual risk is negotiated between partners is an area of considerable theoretical interest with the dominant models of analysis focusing on individual decisions to engage in sexual behaviour and relying on rational decision making This work based on the findings from work coordinated by the Centre d Etudes Sociologiques in Brussels offers a social critique of the theories and perspectives which have currently been brought to bear in the study of sexual risk behaviour and HIV Leading European researchers offer a conceptual framework for analysis based on sexual interactions and their social context The practical relevance of new perspectives on sexual behaviour in the context of HIV AIDS prevention is also discussed Sexual Interactions and HIV Risk Mitchell Cohen, Gustavo Guizzardi, Luc Van Campenhoudt, Dominique Hausser, 1997-01-24 This work examines the theories and perspectives involved in the study of sexual risk behaviour and HIV It provides a framework for analysis based on sexual interactions and their social context AIDS Sexuality and Gender in Africa Carolyn Baylies, Janet Bujra, 2002-09-11 This book draws on first hand research and in depth investigations carried out by a team of researchers They study the severity of the AIDS epidemic and the threat it poses to the population and society in Tanzania and Zambia Cognitive Informatics in Health and Biomedicine Vimla L. Patel, Jose F. Arocha, Jessica S. Ancker, 2017-05-31 As health care is moving toward a team effort with patients as partners this book provides guidance on the optimized use of health information and supporting technologies and how people think and make decisions that affect their health and wellbeing It focuses on investigations of how general public understand health information assess risky behaviors make healthcare decisions and how they use health information technologies e health technologies have opened up new horizons for promoting increased self reliance in patients Although information technologies are now in widespread use there is often a disparity between the scientific and technological knowledge underlying health care practices and the cultural beliefs mental models and cognitive representations of illness and disease Misconceptions based on inaccurate perceptions and mental models and flawed prior beliefs could lead to miscommunication as well as to erroneous decisions about individuals own health or the health of their family members Cognitive Informatics in Health and Biomedicine Understanding and Modeling Health Behaviors presents state of the art research in cognitive informatics for assessing the impact of patient behaviour It is designed to assist all involved at the intersection of the health care institution and the patient and covers contributions from recognized researchers and leaders in the field The Health Psychology Reader David F Marks, 2002-06-06 The Health Psychology Reader is designed to complement and support the recent textbook Health

Psychology Theory Research and Practice by David F Marks Michael Murray Brian Evans and Carla Willig SAGE 2000 It can also be used as a stand alone resource given its didactic nature The Reader explores key topics within the health psychology field with incisive introductions to each section by the Editor and includes a selection of the most important theoretical and empirical published work Promoting Young People's Sexual Health Roger Ingham, Peter Aggleton, 2006-09-27

Valuable contributions on different aspects of sexual and reproductive health among young people are presented in this book with a focus on developing country contexts Key discussions on issues relating to young people and their sexual activities are brought together in one volume exploring how these issues are affected by the wider contexts in which they live The interdisciplinary team of contributors examine the practical and ideological barriers that inhibit progress in the development of educational and service level improvement of young people s sexual health as well as presenting examples of efforts made to overcome such difficulties Promoting Young People s Sexual Health looks to the future proposing ways forward in terms of policy and legislative changes necessary for long term improvements in young people s sexual health AIDS in Europe

Peter Aggleton, Jean Paul Moatti, Annick Prieur, Theo Sandfort, Yves Souteyrand, 2002-09-09 Major changes in the nature and dynamics of the AIDS epidemic over the last few years are reflected in changing epidemiological trends as well as in the progress made in biomedical research and treatment AIDS in Europe brings together papers from leading social science researchers to look at the opportunities and challenges these changes bring and the different ways in which they are being responded to in both western and eastern Europe Papers are organised under three headings new challenges for HIV prevention care of people living with HIV AIDS in a new therapeutic context AIDS public policies from specialisation to normalisation AIDS in Europe provides a comprehensive overview of current social and behavioural research on HIV and AIDS for all health professionals Sex, Mind, and Emotion Winifred Bolton, Janice Hiller, Heather Wood, 2018-04-24 Sex

Mind and Emotion is a collection of predominantly clinical papers exploring innovative work in the field The central tenet of the book is that sexual behaviour cannot be divorced from the emotional context in which it occurs or the meaning of that behaviour to the individual and therefore no chapter is about sex without also addressing mind and emotion The book uses a fusion of psychoanalytic systemic and cognitive theories in conjunction with public service practice It deals with important and relevant topics such as the treatment of sex offenders the compulsive use of internet pornography the psychosexual development of adolescents growing up with HIV the psychodynamics of unsafe sex refugees and sexuality services for people with gender dysphoria psychological treatment for survivors of rape and sexual assault and loss of sexual interest

The Politics of Pleasure in Sexuality Education Louisa Allen, Mary Lou Rasmussen, Kathleen Quinlivan, 2013-12-17 Pleasure and desire have been important components of the vision for sexuality education for over 20 years This book argues that there has been a lack of scrutiny over the political motivations that underpin research supportive of pleasure and desire within comprehensive sexuality education In this volume key researchers in the field consider how discourses related to pleasure and desire have been taken up internationally They argue that sexuality education is clearly shaped by specific cultural and political contexts and examine how these contexts have shaped the development of pleasure s inclusion in such programs Via such discussions this volume incites a re configuration of thought regarding sexuality education s approach to pleasure and desire At the Dawn of the Sexual Revolution Ira L. Reiss,Albert Ellis,2002 History of the American sexual revolution as depicted through the correspondence between Ira Reiss and Albert Ellis two leading social scientists and pioneers of the revolution Structural Approaches in Public Health Marni Sommer,Richard Parker,2013-04-26 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2014 That health has many social determinants is well established and a myriad range of structural factors social cultural political economic and environmental are now known to impact on population well being Public health practice has started exploring and responding to a range of health related challenges from a structural paradigm including individual and population vulnerability to infection with HIV and AIDS injury prevention obesity and smoking cessation Recognising the inadequacy of public health responses that focus solely on individual behaviour change to improve population health outcomes this text promotes a more holistic approach Discussing the structural factors related to health and well being that are both within and outside of an individual s control it explores what form structural approaches can take the underlying theory of structure as a risk factor and the local realities environments and priorities that public health practitioners need to take into consideration Anchored in empirical evidence the book provides case studies of innovative and influential interventions from the 100% condom program to urban planning injury prevention and the provision of adequate clean drinking water and sanitation systems and concludes with a section on implementing and evaluating structural public health programs This comprehensive text brings together a selection of internationally recognised authors to provide an overview for students and practitioners working in or concerned with public health around the globe Pioneering Paths in the Study of Families Gary W Peterson,Suzanne Steinmetz,2014-03-18 Meet the men and women whose groundbreaking work elevated the field of family studies In Pioneering Paths in the Study of Families The Lives and Careers of Family Scholars you ll find 40 autobiographies written by leading scholars in sociology family studies psychology and child development Their fascinating stories demonstrate how their family experiences educational opportunities and occupational endeavors not only shaped the disciplines they chose but also shaped the theoretical perspectives they utilized and the topics they researched From the editors These autobiographies document the experiences of scholars from the early twentieth century to the present The descriptions of early influences on their education of their graduate school experiences and of their academic career paths provides a wealth of valuable material Since four of these scholars have died and a number are in their eighties or older these histories provide rich case studies on factors that influence the decision to go to college get married pursue an advanced degree make specific occupational choices and investigate certain topics These autobiographies also detail the barriers that early women scholars in the social sciences

faced The scholars whose lives you will learn about in Pioneering Paths in the Study of Families include Joan Aldous Katherine R Allen Pauline Boss Carlfred B Broderick Wesley R Burr Catherine Street Chilman Harold T Christensen Marilyn Coleman Rand D Conger Randal D Day William J Doherty Evelyn Millis Duvall Glen H Elder Jr Bernard Farber Margaret Feldman Mark A Fine Greer Litton Fox Frank F Furstenberg Viktor Gecas Harold D Grotevant Gerald Handel Michael E Lamb Ralph LaRossa Gary R Lee Helena Znaniecka Lopata Harriette P McAdoo Hamilton McCubbin Brent C Miller Phyllis Moen Gerhard Neubeck Gary W Peterson Ira L Reiss John Scanzoni Walter R Schumm Barbara H Settles Laurence Steinberg Suzanne K Steinmetz Sheldon Stryker Marvin B Sussman Irv Tallman

Sex, Work and Professionalism Katie Deverell, 2013-01-11 Sex Work and Professionalism examines what happens when professional concern is defined in terms of sex Based on original fieldwork with outreach workers in HIV prevention it addresses issues of professionalism emotion work and boundaries integrating empirical insights with sociological theory In most professional relationships sex is not defined as part of the relationship in fact it is explicitly excluded in guidelines and codes of ethics HIV prevention outreach workers work in sexual environments with a sexually defined target group and are often employed on the basis of their sexuality They have to learn how to balance their work and professional lives overcoming conflicts such as professional role V community role sexual skills V sexual boundaries personal experiences V professional understanding professional identity V worldviews Many of the questions being raised in this book about the meaning of professionalism the pain and pleasure in emotion work and the management of boundaries between home sex and work are being asked more generally by workers in a range of organisations Sex Work and Professionalism argues for a new understanding of professionalism more appropriate to the human services

The Dutch Response To HIV Theo Sandfort, 2002-09-11 The Netherlands response to AIDS is widely regarded as well organized and effective This is largely due to the timely response to the threat of the disease with a prevention programme starting in 1982 This Dutch example provides an instructive case study for other countries with relevance for policy makers now and in the future The book documents and discusses Dutch prevention policy most specifically the prevention policies and activities for various target groups the focus on prevention research and studies on sexuality and health behaviour and the emphasis on individual responsibility

Mental Health and HIV Infection Jose Catalan, 2002-09-11 Accessible overview assuming no specialist psychological psychiatric or medical knowledge Covers psychological interventions and psychopharmacology as well as the psychological consequences of HIV infection

Men Who Sell Sex Peter Aggleton, 2006-12-05 Men Who Sell Sex is the first comprehensive international account of male prostitution and AIDS While much is known about female prostitution and sex work relatively little is known about men who sell sex either to women or other men This book brings together an authoritative collection of essays from different countries and examines sexual behaviour the reasons men sell sex the meanings involved and implications for HIV prevention The authors are all experts in their fields and individual chapters offer a compelling description of the reasons men sell sex and the pleasures and risks involved The Sexual Organization of the City Edward O. Laumann, Stephen Ellingson, Jenna Mahay, Anthony Paik, 2005-11-21 We think of the city as a place where anything goes Take the sensational fantasies and lurid antics of single women on Sex in the City or young men on Queer as Folk and you might imagine the city as some kind of sexual playground a place where you can have any kind of sex you want with whomever you like anytime or anywhere you choose But in The Sexual Organization of the City Edward Laumann and company argue that this idea is a myth Drawing on extensive surveys and interviews with Chicago adults they show that the city is to the contrary a place where sexual choices and options are constrained From Wicker Park and Boys Town to the South Side and Pilsen they observe that sexual behavior and partnering are significantly limited by such factors as which neighborhood you live in your ethnicity what your sexual preference might be or the circle of friends to which you belong In other words the social and institutional networks that city dwellers occupy potentially limit their sexual options by making different types of sexual activities relationships or meeting places less accessible To explain this idea of sex in the city the editors of this work develop a theory of sexual marketplaces the places where people look for sexual partners They then use this theory to consider a variety of questions about sexuality Why do sexual partnerships rarely cross racial and ethnic lines even in neighborhoods where relatively few same ethnicity partners are available Why do gay men and lesbians have few public meeting spots in some neighborhoods but a wide variety in others Why are African Americans less likely to marry than whites Does having a lot of friends make you less likely to get a sexually transmitted disease And why do public health campaigns promoting safe sex seem to change the behaviors of some but not others Considering vital questions such as these and shedding new light on the city of Chicago this work will profoundly recast our ideas about human sexual behavior Families and Communities Responding to AIDS Peter Aggleton, Peter Davies, Graham Hart, 2012-10-02 All over the world families and communities are key providers of care and support This is particularly true in relation to serious illnesses such as HIV and AIDS Yet families and communities can also stigmatize their members leaving people to die in the most appalling conditions This book looks at the diversity of family and community responses to HIV and AIDS By examining contexts as diverse as nuclear extended and refugee family households and gay community networks and structures it offers important insight into the factors which lead to positive responses and those which trigger negative ones Evidence-based Public Health Amanda Killoran, Michael Patrick Kelly, 2010 A follow up to Public Health Evidence Tackling Health Inequalities this book builds on the themes already introduced and provides a broader perspective on an evidence based approach to public health concentrating on health inequalities
