Sexual Abuse and Education in Japan Robert O'Mochain,Yuki Ueno,2022-09-09 Bringing together two voices practice and theory in a collaboration that emerges from lived experience and structured reflection upon that experience O Mochain and Ueno show how entrenched discursive forces exert immense influence in Japanese society and how they might be most effectively challenged With a psychosocial framework that draws insights from feminism sociology international studies and political psychology the authors pinpoint the motivations of the nativist right and reflect on the change of conditions that is necessary to end cultures of impunity for perpetrators of sexual abuse in Japan Evaluating the value of the MeToo model of activism the authors offer insights that will encourage victims to come out of the shadows pursue justice and help transform Japan s sense of identity both at home and abroad Ueno a female Japanese educator and O Mochain a non Japanese male academic examine the nature of sexual abuse problems both in educational contexts and in society at large through the use of surveys interviews and engagement with an eclectic range of academic literature They identify the groups within society who offer the least support for women who pursue justice against perpetrators of sexual abuse They also ask if far right ideological extremists are fixated with proving that so called comfort women are higaisha buru or fake victims Japan would have much to gain on the international stage were it to fully acknowledge historical crimes of sexual violence yet it continues to refuse to do so O Mochain and Ueno shed light on this puzzling refusal through recourse to the concepts of international status anxiety and male hysteria An insightful read for scholars of Japanese society especially those concerned about its treatment of women

In Pursuit Of Contemporary East Asian Culture Xiaobing Tang, 2019-04-03 These critical essays examine East Asian culture through an interdisciplinary cross cultural lens Readings of film television and visual and literary texts reveal the historical condition as well as the contemporary impulses driving East Asian culture today We feel the muted tension in a rural South Korean village we walk down the bustling streets of Hong Kong and witness the city's protean possibilities for a postrevolutionary reality The boisterous tarento shows on Japanese television force us to rethink the nature of information and image production in relation to leisure management cinematic spectacles in Japan North Korea Taiwan and China point to complex issues of agency the formation of the public sphere and postnationalist identities We see contemporary fiction from China and Japan engage themes of desire and remembrance as metaphors to express a profound historical anxiety Mirroring the fast moving and multifaceted landscape is our ability to move freely through time as we confront legitimizing narratives of modernization in early twentieth century Japan and against an emerging regime of global capitalism reexamine the approaching century in imagined historical hindsight By anticipating the geocultural shift to the Asian Pacific Rim in the twenty first century this volume serves as both an introduction to contemporary East Asian culture and an exploration of its global context

Equality in Asia-Pacific Phil C. W. Chan, 2014-02-04 In 1948 the United Nations General Assembly proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stating every human being's right of equality in dignity and right However notwithstanding recognition by the international community of its importance and codification in numerous national and sub national constitutions and legislation reinforced by various multilateral and regional human rights treaties the right of equality continues to be unable to take complete firm hold in all regions and countries Evidence as presented by the insightful papers in this collection published initially as a Special Double Issue of The International Journal of Human Rights dedicated to exploring the place of equality in Asia Pacific societies suggests that although progress is being made the right of equality has not yet fully materialized both in law and in reality in the world's most populous region Many factors particularly entrenched cultural heritage and practices the lingering effects of colonialism and newly found independence and above all pervasive ignorance and prejudices continue to impede the recognition development and protection of equality in this region Of course equality a normative right and entitlement by virtue of our humanity has neither been fully achieved in societies outside the region Such neo colonial thinking in fact perpetuates and assists in the subjugation of the right of equality in the Asia Pacific Region as a matter of relevance and concern only to Western countries Accordingly we hope that our discussions will also be able to shed light and generate reflections on realities outside the region as interlinked with our aim The Editor's book fee has been donated to the UNICEF Tsunami Fund This book was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights
