Sexuality In The Field Of Vision:

Sexuality in the Field of Vision Jacqueline Rose, 2005 Jacqueline Rose argues for the importance of sexual difference and fantasy as key concepts through which an interrogation of contemporary theory should be sustained Sexuality In The Field Of Vision Jacqueline Rose, 1988 Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television

Visual Culture: Histories, archaeologies and genealogies of visual culture Joanne Morra, Marquard Smith, 2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain Art and Its Histories Steve Edwards, Professor and Head of Art History Steve Edwards, 1999-01-01 Published with six accompanying books in the series Art and its Histories Specters of Paul Benjamin H. Dunning, 2011-02-07 The first Christians operated with a hierarchical model of sexual difference common to the ancient Mediterranean with women considered to be lesser versions of men Yet sexual difference was not completely stable as a conceptual category across the spectrum of formative Christian thinking Rather early Christians found ways to exercise theological creativity and to think differently from one another as they probed the enigma of sexually differentiated bodies In Specters of Paul Benjamin H. Dunning explores this variety in second and third century Christian thought with particular attention to the ways the legacy of the apostle Paul fueled shaped and also constrained approaches to the issue Paul articulates his vision of what it means to be human primarily by situating human beings between two poles creation Adam and resurrection Christ But within this framework where does one place the figure of Eve and the difference that her female body represents Dunning demonstrates that this dilemma impacted a range of Christian thinkers in the centuries immediately following the apostle including Clement of Alexandria Irenaeus of Lyons Tertullian of Carthage and authors from the Nag Hammadi corpus While each of these thinkers attempts to give the difference of the feminine a coherent place within a Pauline typological framework Dunning shows that they all fail to deliver fully on the coherence that they promise Instead sexual difference haunts the Pauline discourse of identity and sameness as the difference that can be neither fully assimilated nor fully ejected a conclusion with important implications not only for early Christian history but also for feminist and queer philosophy and theology Visual Politics of Psychoanalysis Griselda

Pollock,2013-10-08 In this innovative collection a distinguished group of international authors dare to think psychoanalytically about the legacies of political violence and suffering in relation to post traumatic cultures worldwide They build on maverick art historian Aby Warburg s project of combining social cultural anthropological and psychological analyses of the image in order to track the undercurrents of cultural violence in the representational repertoire of Western modernity Drawing on post colonial and feminist theory they analyze the image and the aesthetic in conditions of historical trauma from enslavement and colonization to the Irish Famine from Denmark s national trauma about migrants and cartoons to collective shock after 9 11 from individual traumas of loss registered in allegory to newsreels and documentaries on suicide bombing in Israel Palestine and from Kristeva s novels to Kathryn Bigelow s cinema "French Paintings of Childhood and Adolescence, 1848-1886 " Anna Green,2017-07-05 The premise of Anna Green s timely and original book is that nineteenth century representations of childhood and adolescence in paintings but also in other forms of visual culture and in diverse written discourses of the period are critical for understanding modernity Whilst such well worn signifiers for modernity as the city the dandy and the prostitute have been well mined childhood and adolescence have not Paintings of the young produced in France from 1848 to 1886 Green contends inform not only our understanding of modern life but also our perception of modernist or avant garde painting Figuring largely are Manet and the Impressionists as well as a gamut of more traditional painters of children who are crucial in providing context for the avant garde Because modernity is an essentially urban phenomenon Green s focus is primarily on the city usually Parisian child The painted youth of her study are organized initially by class and gender Then the chapters are structured according to themes parent child relations modes of discipline work education and play the spectacle sexuality that straddle the congruences among the book s triple trajectory the young their modernist representations and the experience of modernity Green s interdisciplinary approach ensures that this book will be of interest not only to art historians but to all those concerned with the cultural and social history of childhood

Faulkner in America Ann J. Abadie, 2001      The Invisible Flâneuse? Aruna D'Souza, Tom McDonough, 2006 This collection of essays revisits gender and urban modernity in nineteenth century Paris in the wake of changes to the fabric of the city and social life In rethinking the figure of the flâneur the contributors apply the most current thinking in literature and urban studies to an examination of visual culture of the period including painting caricature illustrated magazines and posters Using a variety of approaches the collection re-examines the long held belief that life in Paris was divided according to strict gender norms with men free to roam in public space while women were restricted to the privacy of the domestic sphere http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0743/2007533305\_d.html      Theorizing Sexuality Jackson, Stevi, Scott, Sue, 2010-03-01 The book confronts the anxieties associated with sexuality in the late modern western world and engages with wider debates on social transformations in late modernity As such it provides both an overview of the field of sexuality as well as setting a new agenda for debating the topic      Feminism and Geography Gillian Rose, 2013-11-18 Geography is a subject which throughout its history has been dominated by men men have undertaken the heroic explorations which form the mythology of its foundation men have written most of its texts and as many feminist geographers have remarked men's interests have structured what counts as legitimate geographical knowledge This book offers a sustained examination of the masculinism of contemporary geographical discourses Drawing on the work of feminist theories about the intersection of power knowledge and subjectivity different aspects of the discipline's masculinism are discussed in a series of essays which bring influential approaches in recent geography together with feminist accounts of the space of the everyday the notion of a sense of place and views of landscape In the final chapter the spatial imagery of a variety of feminists is examined in order to argue that the geographical imagination implicit in feminist discussions of the politics of location is one example of a geography which does not deny difference in the name of a universal masculinity      Visual Culture: What is visual culture studies? Joanne Morra, Marquard Smith, 2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain      First Things Mary Jacobus, 2020-04-03 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study

First Things sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud s oedipal preconceptions Klein s missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie

Baroque Bodies Mitchell Greenberg, 2001 Mitchell Greenberg explores the significance of fantasies of the body in seventeenth century France through provocative and subtle readings of some of the most intriguing texts of the period Beginning with an eloquent invocation of the status of the king in classical France Greenberg surveys the complex sociopolitical history of Louis XIV s reign analyzing both Moliere and the entire corpus of Racine The central chapters of Baroque Bodies deal with such fascinating texts as the Memoires of the abbe de Choisy the first existing account of a male cross dresser two founding texts of the modern pornographic genre L ecole des filles and L academie des dames and the autobiography of Marie de l Incarnation the famous mystic and founder of the first Ursuline convent in Canada In addition to his richly nuanced readings Greenberg integrates into his argument material from a broad array of disciplines including psychoanalysis feminism epistemology and history He also points out the implications of his argument for the political theological and historical thought of the period moving effortlessly from witch trials in France to discussions of bodies in Renaissance English literary criticism to the works of Bakhtin Foucault Freud and Lacan

Reading Melanie Klein Lyndsey Stonebridge, John Phillips, 1998 Kleinian psychoanalysis has recently experienced a renaissance in academic and clinical circles Reading Melanie Klein responds to the upsurge of interest in her work by bringing together the most innovative and challenging essays on Kleinian thought from the last two decades The book features material which appears here for the first time in English and several newly written chapters Reading Melaine Klein recontextualizes Klein to the more well known works of Freud and Lacan and disproves the long held claim that her psychoanalysis is both too normative and too conservative for critical consideration The essays address Klein s distinctive readings of the unconscious and phantasy her tenacious commitment to the death drive her fecund notions of anxiety projection and projective identification and most famously her challenge to Freud s Oedipus complex and theories of sexual difference The authors demonstrate that not only is it possible to rethink the epistemological basis of Kleinian theory rendering it as vital as those of Freud and Lacan but also that her psychoanalysis can engage in powerful and productive dialogue with diverse disciplines such as politics ethics and literary theory This timely collection is an invaluable addition to the scholarship on Melaine Kein and catalyst for further debate not only within the psychoanalytic community but also across social critical and cultural studies
