

A crowd seemed to have gathered at the arena, but their conduct was most ill. With their children around, no one dared to stand the children down on the arena.

"How foolishness, why don't you take the basket to the door and wash it?"

After the children left home, the crowd started their program. Right in the middle of their performance, the kids came back.

The parents got frustrated and shouting at them: "Why do you come back without washing the basket?"

The children answered, "Nowhere the day program is so popular that the arena bowl was full of kids watching show basket. We couldn't find any space."

A woman got called her angel. "You know, I said the bowl was full of kids, but there were some things hanging back."

Even the men: "What were they?"

"Oh, they were the 10 minutes."

"I see. If they are not at home, I will know them from your entrance door."

The man replied them, "I said you will know them from your entrance door."

The girl replied them, "You know? You said. If you call them from the entrance of the house and you will find your job?"

The older daughter answered, "No wonder it didn't take root. He was trying to steal it away from me."

A group of men got together. A middle-aged man among them said, "These days, I don't have enough time to play with girls. All I have to do is go to the temple."

All the men were very surprised. The man knew the word, 'temple'. He asked his daughter in law about the word. The daughter in law didn't know either and they asked her son.

The son answered, "That word means 'prayer' that we do in a room."

Several days later they had a good.
