A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen, 2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation Three Rivers Run Deep A Pittsburgh Poet's Anthology Dessie Bey, African American Nationalist Literature of the 1960s Sandra Hollin Flowers, 2019-09-25 Bringing together political theory and literary works this study recreates the political climate which made the 1960s an unforgettable era for young black Americans A chapter on The Many Shades of Black Nationalism for instance explains why black nationalism is known by more than a dozen different names how events in Africa influenced black nationalism in America why Malcolm X s death had a greater impact on nationalism than did his life and how the United States government unwittingly became nationalism s ally Another chapter explores the bitter feud between the dominant factions of the 1960s cultural and revolutionary nationalists This feud erupted in both verbal and armed warfare and generated an abundance of political theory and literary works much of which is out of circulation but is examined in the study Nationalist poetry theater and fiction are each treated in separate chapters which exemplify the aesthetic and political concerns of this memorable period in American history and letters Aside from its unique combination of artistic and political works what makes this book important is the current revival of nationalist sentiment in African American life and arts Though this revival is closely identified with the nationalism of the 1960s it lacks the focus of that period This study explains what gave the nationalism of the 1960s its focus how that focus was expressed in art forms and why 1960s nationalism continues to influence the African American identity and will probably do so well into the twenty first century

Situating Poetry Joshua Logan Wall,2022-10-11 A retelling of American modernism through the lines of solidarity and division within and among ethnic and religious identities found in poetry What happens if we approach the reading and writing of poetry not as an individual act but as a public one Answering this question challenges common assumptions about modern poetry and requires that we explore the important questions that define genre Where is this poem situated and how did it get there Joshua Logan Wall s Situating Poetry studies five poets of the New York literary scene rarely considered together James Weldon Johnson Charles Reznikoff Lola Ridge Louis Zukofsky and Robert Hayden Charting their works and careers from 1910 1940 Wall illustrates how these politically marginalized writers from drastically different religious backgrounds wrestled with their status as American outsiders These poets produced a secularized version of America in which poetry rather than God governed individual obligations to one another across multiethnic barriers Adopting a multiethnic and pluralist approach Wall argues that each of these poets two Black two Jewish and one Irish American anarchist shares a desire to create more truly democratic communities through art and through the covenantal publics created by their poems despite otherwise sitting uncomfortably at best within a more standard literary history In this unique account of American modernist poetics religious pluralism creates a lens through which to consider the bounds of solidarity and division within and among ethnic identities and their corresponding literatures
