Shade Of Homer A Study In Modern Greek Poetry:

The Shade of Homer David Ricks, 1989-11-30 In exploring the significance of Homer for the poetry of modern Greece benign shade or looming shadow Dr Ricks is tackling a theme that has implications for the study of poetic influence in general In this 1989 book he takes the work of Sikelianos Cavafy and Seferis and subjects a selection of poems to a careful scrutiny These poems are not imitations of Homer but fresh engagements with Homeric themes and comparison of the modern versions with the original is found to be illuminating for the poets methods of composition Dr Ricks does not lose sight of the larger significance of his subject and modern poets from outside Greece Eliot and Pound in particular find their way into the discussion All Greek is translated and the reader has no need to be a specialist in modern or in ancient Greek to find this study absorbing and instructive

The Classics in Modernist Translation Lynn Kozak, Miranda Hickman, 2019-02-07 This volume sheds new light on a wealth of early 20th century engagement with literature of Graeco Roman antiquity that significantly shaped the work of anglophone literary modernism The essays spotlight translation a concept the modernists themselves used to reckon with the Classics and to denote a range of different kinds of reception from more literal to more liberal translation work as well as forms of what contemporary reception studies would term adaptation refiguration and intervention As the volume's essays reveal modernist translations of Classical texts crucially informed the innovations of many modernists and often themselves constituted modernist literary projects Thus the volume responds to gaps in both Classical reception and Modernist studies essays treat a comparatively understudied area in Classical reception by reviving work in a subfield of Modernist studies relatively inactive in recent decades but enjoying renewed attention through the recent work of contributors to this volume The volume's essays address work significantly informed by Classical materials including Homer Sophocles Euripides Sappho Ovid and Propertius and approach a range of modernist writers Pound and H D among the modernists best known for work engaging the Classics as well as Cummings Eliot Joyce Laura Riding and Yeats
