Shades Of Black Conrad Black And The Worlds Fastest Growing Press Empire:

Shades of Black Richard Siklos,1995 Power and Betrayal in the Canadian Media David Taras,2001-02-01 The Canadian media system which in many respects is this society s meeting ground its public square is in the midst of a profound shift away from the foundations on which it has rested comfortably for decades The publicly financed Canadian Broadcasting Corporation long the backbone of the broadcasting system is threatened by budget cuts and by technological change The newspaper industry has fallen into the hands of a few powerful individuals Huge global corporations and a vast communications revolution are dramatically altering the nature of news and entertainment This book argues that unless action is taken these changes will narrow our access to the information we need as citizens and damage our capacity to communicate with each other and reflect on ourselves as a community Power and Betrayal in the Canadian Media is a sweeping exploration of the Canadian media system and the impact it has on Canadian society politics and culture 1995

Massimo Mastrogregori,2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Re-examining the UK Newspaper Industry Marc Edge,2022-10-31 This book dispels myths surrounding the newspaper industry s financial viability in an online world arguing that widespread predictions of pending newspaper extinction are based mostly on misunderstandings of the industry s operations Drawing from his training as a business journalist Marc Edge undertakes a thorough analysis of annual financial statements provided by newspaper companies themselves to explain the industry s arcane economics This book contextualizes available data within the historical context in which various news publishers operate and outlines the economic history of UK newspapers It also investigates how UK newspapers survived the 2008 09 recession considering both national and provincial markets separately A rigorous look at an often neglected aspect of the newspaper industry this volume will be an essential read for scholars of media studies journalism studies and communication studies especially those interested in studying journalism and news production as occupational identities Media, Profit, and Politics Joe Harper,Thom Yantek,2003 A compilation of essays and commentary delivered at the second annual Kent State University Symposium on Democracy this work recognizes and considers the differences that arise when the competitive forces of commerce clash with the demand for the open availability of information in a democratic society The conflicting roles of advocate initiator and objective reporter for journalists who cover community politics the role of the news media in forming public attitudes toward things political and their role in affecting voter nonparticipation the role of financial considerations in the news media s attempt to provide citizens with needed news and perspective on political affairs and particularly the role of the conglomeration of ownership of news media organizations are a few of the topics discussed in this volume

Literature and Culture in Modern Britain: Volume Three Clive Bloom, Gary Day, 2014-06-11 British culture has changed almost beyond recognition since 1956 Angry young men have been displaced by Yuppies Elvis by the Spice Girls and meat and two veg by continental cuisine What is more as the death of Diana Princess of Wales showed the British are now more famous for a trembling lower lip than a stiff upper one This volume the last in the series examines the transformations in literature and culture over the last forty years An introductory essay provides a context for the following chapters by arguing that although there have been significant changes in British life there are also profound continuities It also discusses the rise of theory and its impact on the humanities Each essay in the volume concentrates on a facet of British culture over the last half century from painting to poetry from the seriousness of the novel to the postmodern ironies of the computing age What we get from this selection is not only an informed history of the relations between literature and culture but also a lively sense of cultural change not least of which is the new found relationship between literature and other arts which ushers us into the new millennium

Ruling Class Men Mike Donaldson, Scott Poynting, 2007 The Murdochs Packers Kennedys Angnelis and other men like them directly determine the fates of thousands and influence the future of the world like no other people To learn about these often reclusive men the authors extended the life history technique to interrogate autobiographies diaries and biographies

Quill & Quire ,1998 Small Press ,1997 Asper Nation Marc Edge, 2007 The second generation of Aspers that now runs Canada s largest news media company is much like the first Israel Izzy Asper s three children often appear in today s headlines David is bidding to buy the Winnipeg Blue Bombers football team Gail heads fundraising efforts for the new Canadian Museum of Human Rights Leonard sits in his father s place as head of CanWest Global Communications Like its founder they also use their media empire to influence public opinion Asper Nation explains why Canadians should be concerned about where the country s first family of news media is coming from politically Izzy Asper was an oddity as a Liberal politician in the 1970s Fiscally he was to the right of most Conservatives As a nationally syndicated newspaper columnist he called for a flat tax and workfare As a best selling author he helped thwart a plan to shift Canada s tax burden from the middle class onto corporations But when Asper took his policies to Manitobans as Liberal leader in 1973 he was soundly defeated Asper got into the television business instead and built Canada s third network Asper made CanWest the country s most profitable broadcaster by feasting on regulations that encouraged the importation of cheap American programming He took his formula to the world in the 1990s buying television networks in New Zealand Australia and Ireland Then in 2000 Asper pioneered media convergence buying Canada s largest newspaper chain from Conrad Black Southam dailies were soon ordered to run national editorials written at CanWest Global headquarters in Winnipeg This corporate news control brought protest from journalists and two government inquiries Neither resulted in long sought limits on media ownership however Marc Edge offers a compelling account of the political perils involved in allowing the Asper family to dominate Canadian media

The Media Were American Jeremy Tunstall, 2008 It has become clear that the U S media are no longer increasingly their grip throughout the globe Asia and the Arab Moslem world is virtually saturated with their own national media output Tunstall produces a well written provocative snapshot at global media today His point of view is relentlessly global he considers the role of the media in the collapse of the Soviet Union the ascendance of the Brazilian and Mexican soap opera the increasing strength of Bollywood the national cinema output of India as well as the relative decline in influence of US media Importantly Tunstall focuses on both the nation state and the geographical and cultural region as crucial levels in today's mass media Both the United States and the US mass media have now lost their previous moral leadership Lone American control of the world news flow has ceased today rather than Global media we see a world media system comprised of interlocking national regional cultural systems Tunstall's assessment is a wake up call for insular American media consumers Tunstall, the Times Literary Supplement, 1996

Quill & Scroll, 1997 Report on Business Magazine, 1995 The Library Journal, 1997 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately
