The Works of the British Poets: Young, Gray, West, R., Lyttleton, Moore, Boyse, Thompson, Cawthorn, Churchill, Falconer, Lloyd, Cunningham Green, Cooper, Goldsmith, Whitehead, P., Brown, Grainger, Smollett, and Armstrong Robert Anderson,1795      Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres,2013 Love poetry in the Spanish Golden Age redefines the lyric poetry that is located at the centre of Imperial Spanish culture s own self image and self definition This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet s sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and intheir dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera G ngora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantialbody of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Isabel Torres isProfessor of Spanish Golden Age Literature and Head of Spanish and Portuguese Studies at Queen s University Belfast      In Hawthorne's Shadow Samuel Chase Coale,2014-07-15 The world is so sad and solemn wrote Nathaniel Hawthorne that things meant in jest are liable by an overwhelming influence to become dreadful earnest gaily dressed fantasies turning to ghostly and black clad images of themselves From the radical dualism of Hawthorne s vision Samuel Coale argues springs a continuing tradition in the American novel In Hawthorne s Shadow is the first critical study to describe precisely the formal shape of Hawthorne s psychological romance and to explore his themes and images in relation to such contemporary writers as John Cheever Norman Mailer Joan Didion John Gardner Joyce Carol Oates William Styron and John Updike When viewed from this perspective certain writers particularly Cheever Mailer Oates and Gardner appear in a new and very different light leading to a considerable reevaluation of their achievement and their place in American fiction Mr Coale's long interviews and conversations with John Cheever John Gardner William Styron and others have provided insights and perspectives that make this book particularly valuable to students of contemporary American literature Coale links contemporary writers to an ongoing American romantic tradition represented by such earlier authors as Melville Harold Frederic Faulkner Flannery O'Connor and Carson McCullers He explores the distinctly Manichean matter of much American romance linking it to America's Puritan past and to the almost schizophrenic dynamics of American culture in general Finally he reexamines the post modernist writers in light of Hawthorne's shadow and shows that however similar they may be in some ways they differ remarkably from the previous American romantic tradition

Mary Robinson and the Genesis of Romanticism Ashley Cross, 2016-08-19 First coming to prominence as an actress and scandalous celebrity Mary Robinson created an identity for herself as a Romantic poet and novelist in the 1790s Through a series of literary dialogues with established writers Robinson put herself at the center of Romantic literary culture as observer participant and creator Cross argues that Robinson's dialogues shaped the nature of Romantic writing both in content and form and influenced second generation Romantics These dialogues further establish the idea of Romantic discourse as essentially interactive and conversational not the work of original geniuses working in isolation and positions Robinson as a central player in its genesis

The Shadow of Dante in French Renaissance Lyric Alison Baird Lovell, 2020-11-09 This book presents an interpretation of Maurice Scève's lyric sequence Dieu objet de plus haulte vertu Lyon 1544 in literary relation to the Vita nuova Commedia and other works of Dante Alighieri Dante's subtle influence on Scève is elucidated in depth for the first time augmenting the allusions in Dieu to the Canzoniere of Petrarch Francesco Petrarca Scève's sequence of dense epigrammatic dizains is considered to be an early example prior to the Pléiade poets of French Renaissance imitation of Petrarch's vernacular poetry in a time when imitatio was an established literary practice signifying the poet's participation in a tradition While the Canzoniere is an important source for Scève's Dieu both works are part of a poetic lineage that includes Occitan troubadours Guinizzelli Cavalcanti and Dante. The book situates Dante as a relevant predecessor and source for Scève and examines anew the Petrarchan label for D'Ue. Compelling poetic affinities emerge between Dante and Scève that do not correlate with Petrarch. The Moment and Late Writings Søren Kierkegaard, 2009-10-11 Kierkegaard a poet of ideals and practitioner of the indirect method also had a direct and polemical side. He revealed this in several writings throughout his career culminating in The Moment his attack against the established ecclesiastical order. Kierkegaard was moved to criticize the church by his differences with Bishop Mynster Primate of the Church of Denmark. Although Mynster saw in Kierkegaard a complement to himself and his outlook Kierkegaard challenged Mynster to acknowledge the emptying and estheticizing of Christianity that had occurred in modern Christendom. For three years Kierkegaard was silent waiting. When Mynster died he was memorialized as an authentic truth witness in the holy chain of truth witnesses that stretches through the ages from the days of the apostles. This struck Kierkegaard as blasphemous and inspired him to write a series of articles in Fædrelandet which he followed with ten numbers of the pamphlet The Moment. This volume includes the articles from Fædrelandet all numbers of The Moment and several other late pieces of Kierkegaard's writing. Latin Erotic Elegy and the Shaping of Sixteenth-Century English Love Poetry Linda Grant, 2019-08-29 Interdisciplinary in approach and methodologically sophisticated this book explores the dynamic reception of Latin erotic elegy in Renaissance love poetry.
