Shadow Boxers Sweat Sacrifice And The Will To Survive In American Boxing Gyms:

Shadow Boxers John Gattuso, 2005 Boxing gyms are uncovered in all of their glorious grunge in these photographs and essays that reveal both the stark reality of success and the possibility of promise in the sport of boxing This intimate look at the fighters trainers and hangers on who inhabit these gyms brings to life the tough and surprisingly tender world of American boxing Evocative images reveal the pain sacrifice and discipline of the sweet science as well as the triumphs tragedies and big dreams of the men and women who practice it A dozen essays by veteran boxing writers such as Katherine Dunn Carlo Rotella Kate Sekules F X Toole Lucius Shepard Robert Anasi Loic Wacquant Joe Rein and Ralph Wiley explore the community and culture of boxing gyms an endangered American institution that serves not only as the training ground for the next generation of great fighters but as a sanctuary in tough neighborhoods a lifeline for troubled kids and a repository of a centuries old tradition of pugilistic knowledge Boxing, Narrative and Culture Sarah Crews, P. Solomon

Lennox, 2023-10-16 Boxing Narrative and Culture Critical Perspectives is the first interdisciplinary response to the dominant boxing narratives that are produced performed and circulated in commercial boxing culture This collection includes global perspectives on boxing It highlights the diverse range of bodies and communities that engage with boxing practices but are oftentimes overlooked and overwritten by popular narrative tropes and misconceptions of the sport These interdisciplinary and global perspectives engage with boxing's shared narrative resources offering new readings and insights on how and what boxing performs and for whom The contributors to this collection are academics artists amateur boxers and or coaches who provide a culture critique of boxing The work shows how boxing practices are performed and channelled by individuals and communities who access and utilise boxing culture as a means of physical enquiry political statement and community building These contributions challenge the notion that boxing is a sport reserved for masculine bodies adorned as heroes warriors or victims of the sport Exploring key themes in socio cultural studies including gender race community media and performance this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in physical culture sport studies cultural studies gender studies cultural geography critical race theory labour studies performance studies or media studies Boxing and Performance Sarah Crews, P. Solomon Lennox, 2020-11-29 Boxing and Performance is the first substantial piece of work to place the lived experience of female and male boxers in dialogue with one another Crews and Lennox critically reflect on their ethnographic experiences of boxing and their reading of the cultural representations of the sport They conceive of the project as an extended sparring session This book offers a unique perspective on boxing in as performance and boxing in as culture It explores how the connections between boxing and performance address ideas about bodies relationships intimacy and combat It challenges and renegotiates oft repeated narratives used to make meaning about boxing This volume examines questions of visibility voice and agency and will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of performance and media and sport and social studies Boxing in Philadelphia Gabe Oppenheim, 2014-10-16 Philadelphia was essentially the birthplace of boxing in America the city where matches first took shape in the back of bars Jack Johnson the first black heavyweight champ fought more times in Philly than any other city besides his hometown Sugar Ray Robinson perhaps the best boxer ever fought under his first promotional contract in Philadelphia appearing there twenty times and Joe Louis one of the greatest heavyweights of all time was trained by a Philadelphia fighter In Boxing in Philadelphia Gabe Oppenheim examines the rise and fall of boxing in Philadelphia and how it often mirrored the city's own narrative arc Originating from the tales told to Oppenheim by a retired Philadelphia trainer this history of boxing is drawn from personal interviews with current and former fighters and managers from attending the fights in local arenas and from watching the boxers train in their gyms In this book Oppenheim opens a window into the lives of such fighters as Jimmy Young Meldrick The Kid Taylor Teon Kennedy and Mike Jones telling with remarkable detail their struggles triumphs and defeats Throughout Oppenheim weaves together cultural history urban studies and biographical sketches of past boxers to create this comprehensive account of Philadelphia and its fighters Featuring an array of photographs and exclusive interviews this book captures the unique history of Philadelphia boxing It will interest boxing fans those who enjoy sports and cultural histories and of course native Philadelphians who want to discover more about their city and their fighters

Lommasson,Jonathan Shay,2015 This compelling and timely collaboration between photographer writer Jim Lommasson and American veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan wars presents Lommasson s portraits and interviews as well as soldiers own photographs from the war zones The stories expressed in words and in images are intimate profound and timeless In their own words 50 men and women speak their truth about these wars what they saw and what they did They talk about the wars impact on themselves and on their loved ones at home as well as on the Iraqis and Afghanis caught in the crossfire They talk about why they went to war and how the war came home with them Our soldiers need to tell their stories and we need to listen

What We Carried Jim Lommasson,2019-05-15 What We Carried Fragments and Memories from the Cradle of Civilization is an ongoing photography and narrative project with Iraqi and Syrian refugees who have fled their homelands because of war I asked participants to let me photograph the few items they were able carry on their long and dangerous journey to America These treacherous treks can take years encompassing refugee camps multiple countries and often a few bribes The precious objects carried ranged from a family photo a doll a Qur an a game of dominoes My agreement with my subjects was that I would photograph the object and then return a 13 x 19 archival photograph to the owner to provide personal reflections by writing directly onto the photograph Through this process participants could tell their own stories in their own language in their own hand The stories speak to so much more than the objects The luminous inner life of these ordinary items are a testament to the unspeakable anguish of a life left forever behind Ordinary objects become sacred objects Refugees often flee under the cover of darkness sometimes with a child under each arm They bring a few practical items and some kind of memento to help them hold on to the lives they are leaving behind possibly forever As they settle into new lives in a new land speaking a new language these often unremarkable ordinary items will be the only physical evidence of their former lives What would you carry I hope viewers of these collaborative photo writings will imagine themselves making decisions about what they would gather before forever closing the door on the lives they have lived The realization that follows next is what are they be leaving behind Friends schools jobs language culture and history Very often they must bid farewell to family members they will never again see Pets beloved animal companions must remain behind What We Carried aims to be a bridge building project to illustrate our common humanity
