Civic and Uncivic Values in Macedonia Sabrina P. Ramet, 2013-01-23 One of the central challenges facing Macedonia along with other Yugoslav successor states is to develop civic values and to combat such uncivic values as ethnic intolerance religious bigotry and homophobia This volume brings together specialists in Macedonian affairs to offer insights into the experiences and values of the Macedonians

Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere, 2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology

Shadow Genealogies Burcu Akan Ellis, 2003 Shadow Genealogies explores identity transformations under conditions of intense sociopolitical change Based on intensive fieldwork in Macedonia this study chronicles the fragmentation of the Sehirli once widespread urban Muslim communities in Macedonia into Turkish and Albanian elements throughout the formative years of former Yugoslavia Illustrating the dynamics of identity construction and alteration that goes beyond contemporary ethnic divisions in the Balkans Shadow Genealogies offers a unique perspective on the flexibility and sophistication that divided societies require if they are to survive as integrated cohesive social units

Imagining Macedonia in the Age of Empire Denis Š. Ljuljanović, 2023 During the tumultuous age of empire Ottoman Macedonia became a blank canvas onto which Great Powers and neighboring states projected their aspirations grievances ambitions and state building endeavors This manuscript aims to elucidate these constructs and imaginaries employing a theoretical framework encompassing entangled history post colonial theory and subaltern studies It will examine both inter state and local examples to shed light on the multifaceted nature of this complex issue

Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans Raymond Detrez, Pieter Plas, 2005 The fundamental contrast between convergent and divergent tendencies in the development of Balkan cultural identity can be seen as an important determinative both in the contradictory self images of people in the Balkans and in the often biased perceptions of Balkan societies held by external observers past and present In bringing together case studies from such heterogeneous lines of research as linguistics anthropology political literary and cultural history each presenting insightful analyses of micro as well as macro level aspects of identity construction in the Balkans this collection of essays provides a forum for the elucidation and critical evaluation of an intriguing paradox which continues to characterize the cultural situation in the Balkans and which moreover is of undeniable relevance for our understanding of recent political developments. As such it also provides a window into the actual state of scholarly interest in the rich interdisciplinary field of Balkan studies. This book contains a selection of papers presented at the international conference Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans: Convergence vs Divergence organized by the Center for Southeast European Studies at Ghent University on 12 and 13 December 2003 in Ghent.

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015. For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues, diplomatic missions, political rivalries and power struggles. In the last thirty years, due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West, what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself. Questions of the Hijab in schools, freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse. The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries. Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country. These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims, tackling issues such as discrimination, post colonial identity, adaptation and assimilation. The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism, radicalization, Shari'a, Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussions into a more comparative theoretical framework. The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events. Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field, this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies, immigration, Islamic studies and the sociology of religion.

Balkan Popular Culture and the Ottoman Ecumene Donna A. Buchanan, 2007-10-01. Since the early twentieth century, balkanization has signified the often militant fracturing of territories, states or groups along ethnic, religious and linguistic divides. Yet the remarkable similarities found among contemporary Balkan popular music reveal the region as the site of a thriving creative dialogue and interchange. The eclectic interweaving of stylistic features evidenced by Albanian commercial folk music, Anatolian pop, Bosnian sevdah, rock, Bulgarian pop, folk, Greek ethniki, mousike, Romanian muzica orientala, Serbian turbo folk and Turkish arabesk, to name a few, points to an emergent regional popular culture circuit extending from southeastern Europe through Greece and Turkey. While this circuit is predicated upon older cultural confluences from a shared Ottoman heritage, it also has taken shape in active counterpoint with a variety of regional political discourses. Containing eleven ethnographic case studies, Balkan Popular Culture and the Ottoman Ecumene: Music, Image and Regional Political Discourse examines the interplay between the musicians and popular music styles of the Balkan states during the late 1990s These case studies each written by an established regional expert encompass a geographical scope that includes Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria the Republic of Macedonia Croatia Slovenia Romania Greece Turkey Serbia and Montenegro The book is accompanied by a VCD that contains a photo gallery sound files and music video excerpts Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia-Herzegovina Xavier Bougarel,2017-12-14 Based on substantial fieldwork and thorough knowledge of written sources Xavier Bougarel offers an innovative analysis of the post Ottoman and post Communist history of Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina explores little known aspects of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina unravels the paradoxes of Bosniak national identity and retraces the transformations of Bosnian Islam from the end of the Ottoman period to today It offers fresh perspectives on the wars and post war periods of the Yugoslav space the forming of national identities and the strength of imperial legacies in Eastern Europe and Islam s presence in Europe The question of how Islam is tied to national identity still divides Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina places the history of ties between Islam and politics in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the larger global context of Bosnian Muslims relations both with the umma the global Muslim community and Europe from the late 19th century to the present and is a vital contribution to research on Islam in the West Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia Dimitar Bechev,2019-09-03 Located in the middle of the Balkans North Macedonia reflects the turbulent history of the region The country emerged from former Yugoslavia in the 1990s without violence but struggled to achieve international recognition due to a dispute with neighboring Greece over its name and symbols The name issue was resolved only in 2018 with the signature of the Prespa Agreement reviving prospects for membership in NATO and the European Union EU Yet North Macedonia s story goes centuries back to the Middle Ages the period of Ottoman Rule which lasted until 1912 and the various reincarnations of Yugoslavia The historical dictionary traces the country s past and present with a wealth of articles on issues events institutions personalities shaping political economic and cultural life It looks at the majority Macedonian as well as other ethnic communities such as the Albanians Turks and the Roma There are also entries on North Macedonia s relations with neighbors in history and today as well as with global powers This second edition of Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about North Macedonia Social Inequalities and Discontent in Yugoslav Socialism Rory Archer,Igor Duda,Paul Stubbs,2016-03-31 Socialist countries like Yugoslavia garnered legitimacy through appealing to social equality Yet social stratification was characteristic of Yugoslav society and increased over the course of the state s existence By the 1980s the country was divided on socio economic as well as national lines Through case studies from a range of social milieux contributors to this volume seek to bring class back in to Yugoslav historiography exploring how theorisations of social class informed the politics and policies of social mobility and conversely how societal or grassroots understandings of class have influenced politics and policy. Rather than focusing on regional differentiation between Yugoslav republics and provinces, the emphasis is placed on social differentiation and discontent within particular communities. The contributing authors of these historical studies come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds, linking scholarship from the socialist era to contemporary research based on accessing newly available primary sources. Voices of a wide spectrum of informants are included in the volume, from factory workers and subsistence farmers to fictional television characters and pop folk music superstars.

Muslims and the Making of Modern Europe Emily Greble, 2021. Drawing upon Muslim Europe's own voices, institutions, and experiences, this compelling work reframes the debates on European secularism, the historic role of Shari'a law in diverse European states, Muslims and Nazis, Muslims and Communists, and the contributions of Muslims to Europe today.

The Oxford Handbook of Slavic and East European Folklore Margaret H. Beissinger, 2025-03-28. The Oxford Handbook of Slavic and East European Folklore provides a broad survey of the folklore of the Slavic and East European world, Russia, Ukraine, and the Baltics, as well as Central and Southeastern Europe. The volume contains forty-three chapters that offer an array of distinctive yet comparable traditions and genres. It includes folklore of the life cycle, calendrical cycle, traditions, magic, and folk belief, folktales, epic, lyric songs, proverbs, and jokes, local Romani, Muslim, and Jewish musical genres, and material culture. The handbook presents an assortment of oral traditions for an audience of folklorists, students, and scholars who wish to explore the rich, expressive culture of the Slavic and East European world.

Romani Routes Carol Silverman, 2012-02-14. Now that the political and economic plight of European Roma and the popularity of their music are objects of international attention, Romani Routes provides a timely and insightful view into Romani communities both in their home countries and in the diaspora. Over the past two decades, a steady stream of recordings, videos, feature films, festivals, and concerts has presented the music of Balkan Gypsies, or Roma, to Western audiences who have greeted them with exceptional enthusiasm. Yet, as author Carol Silverman notes, Roma are revered as musicians and reviled as people. In this book, Silverman introduces readers to the people and cultures who produce this music, offering a sensitive and incisive analysis of how Romani musicians address the challenges of discrimination. Focusing on southeastern Europe, then moving to the diaspora, her book examines the music within Romani communities, the lives and careers of outstanding musicians, and the marketing of music in the electronic media and world music concert circuit. Silverman touches on the way that the Roma exemplify many qualities: adaptability, cultural hybridity, transnationalism, that are taken to characterize late modern experience. And rather than just celebrating these qualities, she presents the musicians as complicated, pragmatic individuals who work creatively within the many constraints that inform their lives.

Turcologica, Balkan Syntax and Semantics Olga Mišeska Tomić, 2004-01-01. The book deals with some syntactic and semantic aspects of the shared Balkan Sprachbund properties. In a comprehensive introductory chapter, Tomić offers an overview of the Balkan Sprachbund properties. Sobolev displaying the areal distribution of 65 properties argues for
