No Magic Bullet Allan M. Brandt, 1987 The recent epidemic of AIDS and herpes virus has called into question not only the ability of the medical profession to treat venereal disease but its willingness to do so No Magic Bullet a perceptive analysis of the treatment of venereal diseases since the 1880s places these questions in critical historical perspective Beginning with Victorian hysteria about syphilis and continuing to our current concerns about AIDS Allan Brandt recounts the various medical military and public health responses to venereal diseases that have arisen over the years Brandt demonstrates that Americans tendency to view sexually transmitted disease as both a punishment for sexual misconduct and an index of social decay has seriously impeded efforts to develop magic bullets the miracle drugs that would effectively halt the spread of infection Resolving the conflicts between the medical and moral approaches to venereal disease he argues is the first step toward developing effective policies for disease control

From the Land of Shadows Khatharya Um, 2015-10-16 In a century of mass atrocities the Khmer Rouge regime marked Cambodia with one of the most extreme genocidal instances in human history What emerged in the aftermath of the regime s collapse in 1979 was a nation fractured by death and dispersal It is estimated that nearly one fourth of the country s population perished from hard labor disease starvation and executions Another half million Cambodians fled their ancestral homeland with over one hundred thousand finding refuge in America From the Land of Shadows surveys the Cambodian diaspora and the struggle to understand and make meaning of this historical trauma

Drawing on more than 250 interviews with survivors across the United States as well as in France and Cambodia Khatharya Um places these accounts in conversation with studies of comparative revolutions totalitarianism transnationalism and memory works to illuminate the pathology of power as well as the impact of auto genocide on individual and collective healing Exploring the interstices of home and exile forgetting and remembering From the Land of Shadows follows the ways in which Cambodian individuals and communities seek to rebuild connections frayed by time distance and politics in the face of this injurious history Shadow Over the Land D. G. Alderton, 2022-04-26 This is a journey to a time when the eastern half of what would become known as the United States was being transformed by the settlers there The western half was still relatively unknown This story takes an imagined look at the affairs of some of the native tribes that inhabited the northwestern part of this country primarily the Nez Perce people I take some historical facts and go back in time from there with a tale of adventure romance and revenge I work this tale back toward that point of history It being a pristine land with wide open possibilities that one's imagination could very much appreciate Where we can consider the goals desires and struggles of such a place and time and the interactions with nature and a focus on their horse culture that they gave their wholehearted attention to Come with me and enter that place and time for what I believe will be a pleasant distraction from the cares of now which we all find ourselves There is some violence depicted but it is not intended to incite anyone to any violence of any kind Persisting Pandemics Powel H. Kazanjian, 2024-11-15 Persisting Pandemics explores the history of syphilis and AIDS to provide insights into the limits of biomedicine and our experience with epidemics today Novel therapies developed for syphilis and AIDS became renowned in the medical field and the broader public sphere as exemplars of biomedical innovations Public health campaigns based on these spectacular biomedical advances however have repeatedly fallen short of their goals to eliminate syphilis and AIDS in the population The diseases epitomize the power of innovative biomedical therapies for the individual while unveiling limitations of scientific medicine in the domain of public health The need for a public health approach to address mistrust in science government indifference and racial inequalities is relevant for strategies to eliminate Covid 19 today Persisting Pandemics argues that campaigns to eliminate these diseases have not succeeded because they have not adequately addressed how diseases like AIDS syphilis and Covid spread unevenly in populations according to race ethnicity and geographic location Despite the expectation of public health officials that medical advances would render epidemics obsolete new diseases continue to emerge and spread regardless of efforts to eliminate them Medical doctor and historian Powel Kazanjian concludes that narratives of syphilis AIDS and Covid unlike smallpox do not contain a discrete ending at least not within the timelines specified by their elimination campaigns Instead they will be a continued part of our existence Provided by publisher Shadow on the Teche Jo Ann Lordahl, 2023-10-01 Felecia LeBlanc in the summerhouse behind The Shadows watched the Louisiana Bayou Teche flow by carrying her memories and anticipations The summerhouse was supposed to be haunted As a child she'd heard that but how or why she never knew The swollen red water and the summerhouse held many associations On these steps she and Etienne had decided to marry when they were older And right out there Blaze Devalcourt came down the bayou paddling that log pirogue he d hollowed out himself Those years ago when she and Etienne told Blaze their marriage plans he d laughed Then shaking the coal black hair out of his eyes he invited them for an engagement boat ride Delighted she and Etienne had scrambled into his small unsteady log canoe Sure enough in the exact center of the bayou the crude boat overturned Felecia coming up furious as a cat yelling and hitting about wildly knew Blaze tipped over his pirogue on purpose But Etienne only laughed lazily laughter which to her further fury joined Blaze s hooting and hollering She d hated them both Even now those memories were razor fresh What was Blaze like now So long since she d heard of him It was a long return journey she d made from Nova Scotia Canada to this summerhouse in New Iberia Louisiana Long in more than pure physical distance This was a crossroads in her life No requirement now to stay in Nova Scotia She was free to face the past to make a new future A child when she left Louisiana she was a woman now returning to her old home area and her childhood love Etienne Or rather trying to return Where was he
