Shadow Child A Memoir Of The Stolen Generation:

Tracing the Autobiographical Marlene Kadar, Susanna Egan, 2009-10-22 The essays in Tracing the Autobiographical work with the literatures of several nations to reveal the intersections of broad agendas for example national ones with the personal the private and the individual Attending to ethics exile tyranny and hope the contributors listen for echoes and murmurs as well as authoritative declarations They also watch for the appearance of auto biography in unexpected places tracing patterns from materials that have been left behind Many of the essays return to the question of text or traces of text demonstrating that the language of autobiography as well as the textualized identities of individual persons can be traced in multiple media and sometimes unlikely documents each of which requires close textual examination These unlikely documents include a deportation list an art exhibit reality TV Web sites and chat rooms architectural spaces and government memos as well as the more familiar literary genres a play the long poem or the short story Interdisciplinary in scope and contemporary in outlook Tracing the Autobiographical is a welcome addition to autobiography scholarship focusing on non traditional genres and on the importance of location and place in life writing Read the chapter Gender Nation and Self Narration Three Generations of Dayan Women in Palestine Israel by Bina Freiwald on the Concordia University Library Spectrum Research Repository website

Shadow Child Rosalie Fraser, 1998 An account of the social injustice meted out to Aboriginal Australians

The Slow Evolution of Foster Care in Australia Nell Musgrove, Deidre Michell, 2018-08-10 This book draws on archival oral history and public policy sources to tell a history of foster care in Australia from the nineteenth century to the present day It is primarily a social history which places the voices of people directly touched by foster care at the centre of the story but also within the wider social and political debates which have shaped foster care across more than a century The book confronts foster care's difficult past death and abuse of foster children family separation and a general public apathy towards these issues but it also acknowledges the resilience of people who have survived a childhood in foster care and the challenges faced by those who have worked hard to provide good foster homes and to make child welfare systems better These are themes which the book examines from an Australian perspective but which often resonate with foster care globally

Indigenous Biography and Autobiography Peter Read, Frances Peters-Little, Anna Haebich, 2008-12-01 In this absorbing collection of papers Aboriginal Maori Dalit and western scholars discuss and analyse the difficulties they have faced in writing Indigenous biographies and autobiographies The issues range from balancing the demands of western and non western scholarship through writing about a family that refuses to acknowledge its identity to considering a community demand not to write anything at all The collection also presents some state of the art issues in teaching Indigenous Studies based on auto biography in Austria Spain and Italy

Journeys to the Commonwealth of Australia Kalman Dubov, 2021-11-24 The continent of Australia has an ancient and modern history Aborigines arrived at this continent an estimated 40 000 to 60 000 years ago living a hunter gatherer existence while developing unique ways to live and thrive on this land That idyllic life ended in 1770 when the great British explorer James Cook discovered the continent Just eighteen years later in 1788 the First Fleet of convict ships from England established a colony at Botany Bay near today's city of Sydney The settlement grew and developed while additional convict ships and settlers came to this continent to make a new home and life for themselves As the number of settlers increased there was a corresponding series of attacks on the Aborigines Massacres took many lives while European diseases for which the Aborigines had no immunity decimated these ancient communities I review this tragic interaction between these two diverse cultures which continues today I also explore the Stolen Generation the racist and genocidal policy of forcibly removing Aboriginal children from their parents and community then giving these children to white parents to be raised in an atmosphere intolerant to the Aboriginal culture and history An estimated 100 000 children were taken in this manner remembered nationally and annually as Sorry Day In addition an estimated 500 000 white children were taken from parents and given to others While forcibly negating and outlawing native cultures has taken place in many countries where dominant values are identified as superior to the older and subjugated culture the forcible removal of hundreds of thousands of white children from parents reflects a policy that begs to be examined in depth I also review the establishment of a Royal Commission that examined sexual predatory attacks on children both in the Roman Catholic Church by diocesan and order priests brothers while these children were wards of these religious institutions by order of the federal government I also explore the percentages of prelates who acted in this criminal manner This issue has been faced in several other countries with resulting questions regarding the role Catholic priests and their bishops have in teaching religious values while protecting their charges from sexual abuse The Jewish community too has been charged in this scourge Two religious schools in Melbourne were charged with knowledge of such attacks taking place in these schools but the rabbinic leadership neither reported the abuse to civil authorities nor made efforts to stop it In this regard I explore the Jewish law inhibiting such reporting to secular authorities In fact the historic and traditional Jewish community standard prefers to protect the predator and not protect the victimized child This standard is gradually changing as progressive awareness is made into the corrosive atmosphere surrounding a victimized child and the enormous psychological and emotional costs endured by the child for the remainder of his or her life The theme of sexual abuse is also present with regard to Malka Leifer This woman was charged with over seventy counts of criminal behavior while having a senior administrative and teaching role in a leading ultra Orthodox religious school for girls She became a cause célèbre with international intrigue between Australia and Israel when she escaped Australian shores for refuge in Israel Years of legal wrangling ensued by many Israeli courts including the Supreme Court each examining the increasing furor if this woman should be extradited to face criminal charges in Australia Malka Leifer was only recently returned to Australia now finally awaiting her moment of facing her accusers in open court This volume also reviews and analyzes each war Australians fought in from the Second Boer War First World War Second World War Korean and Vietnam Wars the wars in

Iraq and Afghanistan These conflicts culminated with the ANZUS Treaty with a military cooperation agreement between the United States Australia and New Zealand The United States identified New Zealand as standing against the West when it promulgated its anti nuclear zone New Zealand identified with smaller Pacific island nations that condemned nuclear testing on remote Pacific islands and the resulting fallout with consequent health issues they face because of such testing I was on the Holland American Grand Voyage while visiting Australian ports I review the different Australian ports the Amsterdam came to such as Darwin Brisbane and Sydney I review each of these cities both as the country developed and modernly with these cities taking on more developed economic power

Contesting Childhood Kate Douglas,2010-01-21 The late 1990s and early 2000s witnessed a surge in the publication and popularity of autobiographical writings about childhood Linking literary and cultural studies Contesting Childhood draws on a varied selection of works from a diverse range of authors from first time to experienced writers Kate Douglas explores Australian accounts of the Stolen Generation contemporary American and British narratives of abuse the bestselling memoirs of Andrea Ashworth Augusten Burroughs Robert Drewe Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Pelzer and Lorna Sage among many others Drawing on trauma and memory studies and theories of authorship and readership Contesting Childhood offers commentary on the triumphs trials and tribulations that have shaped this genre Douglas examines the content of the narratives and the limits of their representations as well as some of the ways in which autobiographies of youth have become politically important and influential This study enables readers to discover how stories configure childhood within cultural memory and the public sphere

Centuries of Genocide Samuel Totten,William Spencer Parsons,2013 This title addresses examples of genocides perpetrated in the 19th 20th and 21st centuries Each chapter of the book is written by a recognized expert in the field collectively demonstrating a wide range of disciplinary perspectives

Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks,Andrea O'Reilly,2011-04-07 Textual Mothers Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother's voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby,2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature Australia's Unthinkable Genocide Colin Tatz,2017-04-04 We are a moral people and the very notion that Australians could have anything to do with genocide is unthinkable so claimed parliamentarians when Australia was asked to ratify the UN's Genocide Convention in 1949 The reality is that even decent democrats and people who consider themselves good colonists are capable of doing just that killing people because of who they were forcibly removing their children in order to assimilate them and erase them from the landscape and then in the name of their protection incarcerated them on reserves in a manner that caused them serious physical and mental harm This confronting book addresses the whole issue of what happens to an indigenous minority who were considered other than human an unworthy order of beings destined to die out Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines Mitchell Rolls,Murray Johnson,2019-11-05 The Aboriginal Australians first arrived on the continent at least 60 000 years ago occupying and adapting to a range of environmental conditions from tropical estuarine habitats densely forested regions open plains and arid desert country to cold mountainous and often wet and snowy high country Cultures adapted according to the different conditions and adapted again to environmental changes brought about by rising sea levels at the end of the last ice age European colonization of the island continent in 1788 not only introduced diseases to which Aborigines had no immunity but also began an enduring and at times violent conflict over land and resources Reconciliation between Aborigines and the settler population remains unresolved This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced entries on the politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the Aborigines This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the indigenous people of Australia The Anti-Capitalist Dictionary David E Lowes,2013-07-04 This dictionary is an alternative and a counter balance to the many political dictionaries that ignore or marginalize the history and influence of anti capitalist movements It paints a rich picture of the ideas and issues that inform today's anti capitalist activity The Anti Capitalist Dictionary is organised in an easily accessible alphabetical format with self contained cross referenced entries that introduce and explain concepts and issues that are integral to understanding today's global movement The Dictionary demonstrates how the meaning and relevance of some of these have evolved and illustrates a linkage between past and present activity that might be unfamiliar to people who are involved or interested in the movement's current manifestations This Dictionary has international coverage and will prove invaluable to students of politics as well as to activists and the general reader Indigenous Legal Judgments Nicole Watson,Heather Douglas,2021-06-27 This book is a collection of key legal decisions affecting Indigenous Australians which have been reimagined so as to be inclusive of Indigenous people's stories historical experience perspectives and worldviews In this groundbreaking work Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars have collaborated to rewrite 16 key decisions Spanning from 1889 to 2017 the judgments reflect the trajectory of Indigenous people's engagements with Australian law. The collection includes decisions that laid the foundation for the wrongful application of terra nullius and the long disavowal of native title. Contributors have also challenged narrow judicial interpretations of native title which have denied recognition to Indigenous people who suffered the prolonged impacts of dispossession. Exciting new voices have reclaimed Australian law to deliver justice to the Stolen Generations and to families who have experienced institutional and police racism. Contributors have shown how judicial officers can use their power to challenge systemic racism and tell the stories of Indigenous people who have been dehumanised by the criminal justice system. The new judgments are characterised by intersectional perspectives which draw on postcolonial critical race and whiteness theories. Several scholars have chosen to operate within the parameters of legal doctrine. Some have imagined new truth telling forums highlighting the strength and creative resistance of Indigenous people to oppression and exclusion. Others have rejected the possibility that the legal system which has been integral to settler colonialism can ever deliver meaningful justice to Indigenous people. Entangled Subjects Michèle Grossman, 2013. Indigenous Australian cultures were long known to the world mainly from the writing of anthropologists, ethnographers, historians, missionaries and others. Indigenous Australians themselves have worked across a range of genres to challenge and reconfigure this textual legacy so that they are now strongly represented through their own life narratives of identity, history, politics and culture. Even as Indigenous authored texts have opened up new horizons of engagement with Aboriginal knowledge and representation, however, the textual politics of some of these narratives, particularly when cross-culturally produced or edited, can remain haunted by colonially grounded assumptions about orality and literacy. Through an examination of key moments in the theorizing of orality and literacy and key texts in cross-culturally produced Indigenous life writing, Entangled Subjects explores how some of these works can sustain rather than trouble the frontier zone established by modernity in relation to talk and text. Yet contemporary Indigenous vernaculars offer radical new approaches to how we might move beyond the orality-literacy frontier and how modernity and the modern are productively entangled in the process.

Australian Book Review, 2006

"Until Our Hearts are on the Ground" Jeannette Corbiere Lavell, Dawn Memee Lavell-Harvard, 2006. In this revolutionary volume as part of their overall effort to advocate for the rights of Aboriginal women, Dawn Memee Lavell-Harvard and Jeannette Corbiere Lavell have brought together a multitude of voices to speak on the issues facing Aboriginal mothers in contemporary society. Beginning with an examination of the experience of childbirth, the initiation into motherhood, the contributing authors illustrate its potential as a source of empowerment and revitalization for our nations. Through their own unique perspectives, the women bring us to an understanding of the variety of Aboriginal mothering practices, the impacts of colonization and government legislation on Aboriginal mothers and literary representations of Aboriginal mothering.

Together these women have worked to reveal not only the connection between the longstanding historical oppression experienced by Aboriginal women and the dire contemporary circumstances of many Aboriginal communities but also the power of Aboriginal mothers to revitalize and transform our communities They are truly the givers of new life The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce,2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society Orphaned by the Colour of My Skin Mary Terszak,2015-07-17 In an invasive paternalistic federal public policy environment for Indigenous communities this book provides an in depth account of one person s experiences as a Stolen Generation Aboriginal Australian Told from the heart the book speaks in the raw voice of a grandmother reflecting on her life focusing on her childhood experiences subsequent perceptions and life stories The book presents a rare autobiographical journaling of the psychological impact of institutionalisation on an Indigenous woman her search for family community and identity her psychological breakdown and her personal reconstruction through telling her story in a supportive educational environment As an Appendix the author provides us with a critical analysis and autoethnography using her story as a case study that provides deep insights into the personal experience of dealing with forced institutionalisation and social engineering to assimilate Aboriginal people Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
