Shadow in Hawthorn Bay Janet Lunn, 1988 When fifteen year old Mary journeys from Scotland to Canada in search of her cousin she makes a tragic discovery and alienates the townsfolk who fear her psychic powers      Shadow in Hawthorn Bay Janet Lunn, 2011-01-28 A classic children s book for every Canadian family to treasure for all time a story of mystery and young love in a richly detailed Canadian historical setting From the winner of the Governor General s Award for Children s Literature comes one of Canada s best loved bestselling books for young readers In the award winning follow up to the beloved children s classic The Root Cellar Janet Lunn brings us an enthralling historical tale of Celtic magic kindred spirits and the struggles of pioneer life in Upper Canada Shadow in Hawthorn Bay introduces fifteen year old Mary Urquhart a Scottish girl with a special gift the gift of second sight One morning in the spring of 1815 Mary hears her beloved cousin Duncan calling desperately for her help But Duncan is 3 000 miles away in Upper Canada and to journey to him means leaving the safety and comfort of home for an unknown wilderness Answering the call Mary finds herself battling dark forces in a foreign land But as she struggles for her survival and independence she unexpectedly finds friendship with cheerful Yankee Patty with Owena the quiet Indian who recognizes the healing powers in her and with Luke so different from Duncan the black      Shadow in Hawthorn Bay [text (large Print)] Janet Lunn, 1990 When fifteen year old Mary journeys from Scotland to Canada in search of her cousin she makes a tragic discovery and alienates the townsfolk who fear her psychic powers      Shadow in Hawthorn Bay, by Janet Lunn Peel (Ont. : Regional municipality). Board of Education. Program Department, 1988      Shadow in Hawthorn Bay Nyberg Consultants Ltd, 1998      Shadow in Hawthorn Bay by Janet Lunn : a Novel Study Guide Janet Lunn, Frances Stanford, Voigt, Cynthia, David Stanford, 2001      A Novel Approach to Shadow in Hawthorn Bay, 1990      Children's Literature and Imaginative Geography Aida Hudson, 2019-01-10 Where do children travel when they read a story In this collection scholars and authors explore the imaginative geography of a wide range of places from those of Indigenous myth to the fantasy worlds of Middle earth Earthsea or Pacificus from the semi fantastic Wild Wood to real world places like Canada s North Chicago s World Fair or the modern urban garden What happens to young protagonists who explore new worlds whether fantastic or realistic What happens when Old World and New World myths collide How do Indigenous myth and sense of place figure in books for the young How do environmental or post colonial concerns history memory or even the unconscious affect an author s creation of place How are steampunk and science fiction mythically re enchanting for children Imaginative geography means imaged earth writing it creates what readers see when they enter the world of fiction Exploring diverse genres for children including picture books fantasy steampunk and realistic novels as well as plays from Canada the United States the United Kingdom and Ireland from the early nineteenth century to the present Children s Literature and Imaginative Geography provides new geographical perspectives on children s literature      The Storymakers, 2000 Explore the lives of 83 of the most talented children s authors writing today Told in the authors own words these lively biographies describe the creative process and offer advice to today s young writers Learn how they crate wonderful books where they get their ideas what their desks look like and what their favourite books were when they were growing up Home Words Mavis Reimer,2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children s literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children s and national literatures Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children s literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians It builds on the literary histories bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children s literature Our Global Heritage Gr. 4-6 ,

Read for Your Life Gladys Hunt,Barbara Hampton,1992 Most teens already know what wealth and just plain fun books contain What is sometimes missing is the encouragement to make time for reading in the middle of a busy life Getting excited about books is contagious and so is the reading habit The whole family needs all the encouragement it can get especially teenagers Read for Your Life is more than inspiration to read Gladys Hunt discusses how to read a book what makes a good book what questions to ask and how to discern between good better and best She has a way of making you want to read while helping you to make the most of the opportunity To help you choose what to read Barbara Hampton has reviewed more than 300 books Her recommendations run the gamut from classics like A Tale of Two Cities to contemporary fiction like A Ring of Endless Light from literary greats like Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Alan Paton to moderns like Katherine Paterson and Chaim Potok The book contains Pointers on becoming a more perceptive reader Tips on how to enjoy poetry fantasy and fiction An annotated list of over 300 book recommendations Hundreds of plot synopses A complete index to authors and titles

Read Mary Ruth Wilkinson, Heidi Wilkinson Teel, 2000-06 In a Time to Read Mary Ruth K Wilkinson and her daughter Heidi Wilkinson Teel have compiled a helpful guide to children's books More than bibliography A TIME TO READ also includes essays on the nature of children's families literature and story and how these hold together in a Christian life reflecting Mary Ruth's 30 years experience teaching a literary and Christian approach to children's books The Hidden Adult Perry Nodelman, 2008-09-30 What exactly is a children's book How is children's literature defined as a genre A leading scholar presents close readings of six classic stories to answer these questions and offer a clear definition of children's writing as a distinct literary form Perry Nodelman begins by considering the plots themes and structures of six works The Purple Jar Alice in Wonderland Dr Doolittle Henry Huggins The Snowy Day and Plain City all written for young people of varying ages in different times and places to identify shared characteristics He points out markers in each work that allow the adult reader to understand it as a children's story shedding light on ingrained adult assumptions and revealing the ways in which adult knowledge and experience remain hidden in apparently simple and innocent texts Nodelman then engages a wide range of views of children's literature from authors literary critics cultural theorists and specialists in education and information sciences Through this informed dialogue Nodelman develops a comprehensive theory of children's literature exploring its commonalities and shared themes The Hidden Adult is a focused and sophisticated analysis of children's literature and a major contribution to the theory and criticism of the genre Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007-04-26 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales Beth Bartleson Zarian, 2004 As more school districts undergo the painstaking task of curriculum integration resources that offer children an opportunity to live vicariously in times and places they cannot experience any other way become increasingly necessary Whether two teachers are covering the same topic in separate classes e.g. English and history or designing a thematic unit with the school librarian this book will assist all parties in the selection of high quality literature In this handy guide to nearly 800 award winning historical fiction for Kindergarten through 8th grade Beth Zarian literally spans the globe Entries are first divided into three sections American history world history and myths and folklore then chronologically from prehistoric times to present day and finally by grade level Each entry is accompanied by a short annotation For anyone wishing to teach historical facts in an entertaining way Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales is the only way to travel

Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts ,2020-11-23 Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts reflects that critiques of ideological formations occur within intersecting social political and cultural configurations where each position is in itself ideological and subject to asymmetrical power relations Postcolonialism has become an object of critique as ideology but postcolonial studies highly diversified engagement with ideology remains a strong focus that exceeds Ideologiekritik Fourteen contributors from North America Africa and Europe focus I on the complex relation between postcolonialism postcolonial theory and conceptualizations of ideology II on ideological formations that manifest themselves in very specific postcolonial contexts highlighting the potential continuities between colonial and postcolonial ideology and III on further expanding and complicating the nexus of postcolonial ideology from veiling as both ideological practice and individual resistance to home as ideological construct from palimpsestic readings of colonial photography to aesthetics as ideology

Children's Book Prizes Ruth Allen,2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this book is the first comprehensive survey of the awards made to children s books in the English speaking world The Volume covers nearly forty different prizes including well known and established ones such as the Newbury Award prizes instigated by the commercial sector such as the Smarties Prize as well as nationally sponsored awards and prizes for illustrators Detailed lists are provided of the winning titles and where appropriate the runners up in each year that the award has been given Ruth Allen also presents some fascinating and often entertaining insights into the motivations behind awards and how they are views by authors illustrators publishers librarians booksellers and potential purchasers The various criteria applied by judges of these awards are also examined with an assessment of whether they have always achieved the right result This Volume is both a useful guide for adults wishing to buy good books for children and an important tool for those researching the history of the children s book industry
