Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a re envisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies and Reconciliation Commission Bringing together scholarship on varied practices in different cultures this book breaks new ground in the vast literature on memory and opens up new avenues of reflection and research on the lingering aftermath of war

The moon a luminous pearl in the velvet sky cast a silver glow on the cobblestone street below Shadows stretched and twisted dancing to a silent tune as the wind whistled through the alleyways Whispers carried on the night breeze seemed to tell tales of secrets and hidden wonders weaving a tapestry of mystery that enveloped the entire village of Hawthorne From the inky depths of a doorway a pair of emerald eyes emerged gleaming like precious jewels They belonged to a creature shrouded in legend and mystery a being of grace and stealth whose very presence held an air of enchantment A cat sleek and silent stepped into the moonlight its paws padding softly across the cobblestones Its fur as black as the midnight sky shimmered with an otherworldly sheen Each movement was fluid and deliberate as if choreographed by the moon itself The cat paused tilting its head its ears twitching as it listened to the symphony of the night The faint rustle of leaves the distant hoot of an owl and the murmured conversations of villagers settling into their homes for the night all formed a harmonious backdrop to the cat's silent vigil This was Shadow a cat known throughout Cobblestone Street not just for his sleek appearance but for the air of mystery that always seemed to accompany him To the villagers Shadow was a guardian of sorts a silent sentinel who watched over the night and ensured that peace reigned while they slept Children whispered tales of his bravery and adults respected his presence believing that wherever Shadow walked he brought with him an invisible cloak of protection
