The Third Circle Frank Norris,1909 There are more things in San Francisco s Chinatown than are dreamed of in Heaven and earth In reality there are three parts of Chinatown the part the guides show you the part the guides don t show you and the part that no one ever hears of It is with the latter part that this story has to do There are a good many stories that might be written about this third circle of Chinatown but believe me they never will be written at any rate not until the town has been as it were drained off from the city as one might drain a noisome swamp and we shall be able to see the strange dreadful life that wallows down there in the lowest ooze of the place wallows and grovels there in the mud and in the dark If you don t think this is true ask some of the Chinese detectives the regular squad are not to be relied on ask them to tell you the story of the Lee On Ting affair or ask them what was done to old Wong Sam who thought he could break up the trade in slave girls or why Mr Clarence Lowney he was a clergyman from Minnesota who believed in direct methods is now a dangerous inmate of the State Asylum ask them to tell you why Matsokura the Japanese dentist went back to his home lacking a face ask them to tell you why the murderers of Little Pete will never be found and ask them to tell you about the little slave girl Sing Yee or no on the second thought don't ask for that story Vagabond's Way Nancy Price,1914 The Vagabonds, America's Oldest Little Theater Linda Lee Koenig,1983 Tracing the sixty four year career of Baltimore's Vagabond Players this study of the longest lasting of the little theaters examines the influence and participation of figures such as H L Mencken Mildred Natwick and Zelda Fitzgerald
