Historically Kashmir was one of the most dynamic and influential centers of Sanskrit learning and literary production in South Asia In Poetry as Prayer in the Sanskrit Hymns of Kashmir Hamsa Stainton investigates the close connection between poetry and prayer in South Asia by studying the history of Sanskrit hymns of praise stotras in Kashmir The book provides a broad

introduction to the history and general features of the stotra genre and it charts the course of these literary hymns in Kashmir from the eighth century to the present In particular it offers the first major study in any European language of the Stutikusum a jali an important work of religious literature dedicated to the god Siva and one of the only extant witnesses to the trajectory of Sanskrit literary culture in fourteenth century Kashmir The book also contributes to the study of Saivism by examining the ways in which Saiva poets have integrated the traditions of Sanskrit literature and poetics theology especially non dualism and Saiva worship and devotion It substantiates the diverse configurations of Saiva bhakti expressed and explored in these literary hymns and the challenges they present for standard interpretations of Hindu bhakti More broadly this study of stotras from Kashmir offers new perspectives on the history and vitality of prayer in South Asia and its complex relationships to poetry and poetics
