Mackarness, 1860 The Star-Crowned Kings Rob Chilson, 2020-10-19 The human race has split into two groups ordinary people like Race and his mother and sister and the Starlings humans with godlike telekinetic powers Their powers enable them to carry spaceships to the stars and settle many planets while ordinary folk are no better than slaves Now Race finds that he has Starling powers too Excerpt First correction to his visualization there was no stream of traffic He saw and sensed three or four ships as many more might be out of his range They were running right into Slavin s trap His stomach lighter and more hollow with fear he extended his mind enfolding the fast little freighter within it moving it as he had moved Dinine between stars No acceleration was felt within the ship instead they felt Jacarantha s grip weakening draining away Race crowded the safety limit the air speed indicator whining The transponder beeped in warning before they were out of atmosphere and Race felt a wave of despair It was off not replying to that insistent question from space But where radar probed coherent light beams also would be The yellow sky had long since turned green then blue now royal purple set with stars The transponder carilloned and the radio barked at him harshly on the official space frequency Attention freighter halt at once or Another voice cut in as authoritatively but Race wasn t listening From low fast orbit overhead a ship had flashed up behind him he felt it swell A fast moving dot before him would be another He was keyed up intolerably and turned the ship now without a thought At his right hand was a handle in the hull Moving it swiveled a tele periscope that combined a low powered wide angle view with a high powered narrow angle one Immediately below their line of sight and precisely parallel to it was a glass tube about an inch in diameter and five inches long Connected to it was a pocket in the hull containing a handful of common glass marbles The whole apparatus was outside the airseal It was the work of but a moment to line the telescope and tube on the growing dot of light that was the first ship He had placed marbles at the bases of the firing ports before takeoff and now he flicked one as he had flicked pebbles like bullets in the Mountains of the Oron months before but with the fury of despair Involuntarily he blinked in time to save his vision The Starling ship erupted in a fireball that illuminated half the world below For half a second Race stared horrified at the destruction he had wrought Then fear blossomed like that spreading glare every Starling in the area knew where he was now He swerved the ship away recklessly not hearing the clangor of the radiation alarm His mind swooped and reeled as things like planets whipped past in less than an eyeblink two of them almost on opposite sides of the ship one nearer than the other On the radio two voices were bellowing one Surrender the other Shoot Shoot Another thing flicked past invisible undetectable but to his mind seeming to have planetary mass yet to be incredibly tiny Marbles like his own flicked at near light speed Fear galvanized him His rolling gaze touched the Imperial Cluster and in a moment the ship was in incredible motion toward it Jacarantha shrank behind them

The Evening Star Faye Haskins, 2019-09-11

The Evening Star The Rise and Fall of a Great Washington Newspaper is the story of the 129 year history of one of the preeminent newspapers in journalism history when city newspapers across the country were at the height of their power and influence The Star was the most financially successful newspaper in the Capital and among the top ten in the country until its decline in the 1970s The paper began in 1852 when the capital city was a backwater southern town The Star s success over the next century was due to its singular devotion to local news its many respected journalists and the historic times in which it was published The book provides a unique perspective on more than a century of local national and international history The book also exposes the complex reasons for the Star s rise and fall from dominance in Washington s newspaper market The Noyes and Kauffmann families who owned and operated the Star for a century play an important role in that story Patriarch Crosby Noyes life and legacy is the most fascinating a classic Horatio Alger story of the illegitimate son of a Maine farmer who by the time of his death was a respected newspaper publisher and member of Washington s influential elite In 1974 his descendants sold the once great newspaper Noyes built to Joseph Allbritton Allbritton and then Time Inc tried to save the Star but failed

To The Stars George Takei,2015-03-10 Best known as Mr Sulu helmsman of the Starship Enterprise and captain of the Starship Excelsior George Takei is beloved by millions as part of the command team that has taken audiences to new vistas of adventure in Star Trek the unprecedented television and feature film phenomenon From the program s birth in the changing world of the 1960s and death at the hands of the network to its rebirth in the hearts and minds of loyal fans the Star Trek story has blazed its own path into our recent cultural history leading to a series of blockbuster feature films and three new versions of Star Trek for television The Star Trek story is one of boundless hope and crushing disappointment wrenching rivalries and incredible achievements It is also the story of how after nearly thirty years the cast of characters from a unique but poorly rated television show have come to be known to millions of Americans and people around the world as family For George Takei the Star Trek adventure is intertwined with his personal odyssey through adversity in which four year old George and his family were forced by the United States government into internment camps during World War II Star Trek means much more to George Takei than an extraordinary career that has spanned thirty years For an American whose ideals faced such a severe test Star Trek represents a shining embodiment of the American Dream the promise of an optimistic future in which people from all over the world contribute to a common destiny
