Shake The Anger Habit:

Shake the Anger Habit! Betty Doty, Pat Rooney, 1987      Anger Habit Carl Semmelroth, Donald Smith, Donald E. P. Smith, 2004-08 Carl Semmelroth's The Anger Habit is a leading anger management book that is poised to become a major force in the category. This book is centered around the principle that for those who have anger problems, anger can be a learned response. Often the people with the problem don't realize that they are acting habitually or why they are. Semmelroth takes you step by step through the process of identifying and getting over the anger habit. Case studies and stories show you how to avoid feelings of losing control, Depression, Panic, Family battles.      Aging in the Twenty-First Century Dr. William Weddington, 2024-09-28 Are you a senior 65 years or older? Are you a family member of a senior? Do you provide care for a senior? Is your healthcare plan meeting your needs? The needs of the senior in your family? Is your senior family member unhoused? Are you without a life plan? A medical directive? Is your retirement plan failing you? If you answered Yes to any of these questions, this book is for you. Every day in our nation 12,000 people become 65 years old. Ten thousand seniors per day retire. Only one third of our senior population have a life plan or medical directive. Half of the homeless people in the United States are over 50 years old. Every night in this country, significant numbers of seniors go to sleep food deprived. Elder abuse has been identified as the crime of the twenty-first century. This book addresses these issues and more. It offers the reader information and challenges each of us to actively seek solutions for our aged population. Today it is about the senior; tomorrow it may be about you. The problems that seniors face affect us all.      Passionate Animals Mara-Daria Cojocaru, 2022-02-01 Passionate Animals: Emotions, Animal Ethics, and Moral Pragmatics draws on the theoretical achievements made in ethics, political philosophy, and human animal studies, addressing the problem that these advancements have not resulted in practical change toward significantly improved human animal relations. Mara Daria Cojocaru argues that this gap between theory and action can close only if humans live up to the task of becoming passionate animals themselves and passionate about animals as well. In the tradition of philosophical pragmatism and with reference to congenial thinkers like Mary Midgley, Cojocaru develops a moral pragmatics that highlights the role of emotions in moral and political life and focuses on the institutions necessary to make tangible progress on the problems posed by animal experimentation and factory farming.      Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1994      Raising Boys to Become Responsible Men Matthew D.
