Los Angeles In The Thirties 1931 1941:

Los Angeles in the Thirties, 1931-1941 David Gebhard, Harriette Von Breton, 1989 Speed mobility freedom these governed the aesthetics of the city of the future as it spread its arterials across the Southern California landscape If ever a city and a decade seemed meant for each other it was Los Angeles and the streamlined 30s The gloom of the Depression did little to curb the dynamism of this optimistic greedy sprawling metropolis The Hollywood dream machine mirrored the aspirations of millions of Americans a single family home and yard the independence of a private car on uncluttered streets and the latest household conveniences And L A s built environment reflected the dreams realizing in fact what the film sets offered in fantasy with imagery ranging from up to date recreations of popular period styles to the stripped classic monumentality of public buildings and on toward the future in the sleek Moderne of curved corners fluidly bent neon and metal tubing and sculpted surfaces of stucco and glass brick Attention is focused on the types of architectural imagery used in commercial public and residential buildings Page 4 of cover

Hollywood cinema and Los Angeles cannot be understood apart. Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles traces the interaction of the real city, its movie business and filmed image, focusing on the crucial period from the construction of the first studios in the 1910s to the decline of the studio system fifty years later. As Los Angeles gradually became one of the ten largest cities in the world, the film industry made key contributions to its rapid growth and frequent crises in economic, social, political and cultural life. Whether filmmakers engaged with the real city on location or recreated it on a studio set, Los Angeles shaped the films that were made there and circulated influentially worldwide. The book pays particular attention to early cinema, slapstick, comedy movies about the movies and film noir, which are each explored in new ways with an emphasis on urban and architectural space and its representation as well as filmmaking style and technique. Including many previously unpublished photographs and new historical evidence, Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles gives us a never-before-seen view of the City of Angels. The Rough Guide to Los Angeles Jeff Dickey, 2003. Fully updated, this irreverent guide to the City of Angels focuses on both the major tourist destinations as well as lesser-known gems and curiosities. A colour photograph section brings the city's highlights to life from the Hollywood Hills to Santa Monica Boulevard. Each chapter gives detailed coverage of each area's attractions from accommodation and restaurants to galleries, shops, sports activities and child-oriented diversions. There are also feature articles on such subjects as Hollywood LA, on film architecture and LA people. The History of Forgetting Norman M. Klein, 2020-05-05. Los Angeles is a city which has long thrived on the continual re-creation of its own myth. In this extraordinary and original work, Norman Klein examines the process of memory erasure in LA. Using a provocative mixture of fact and fiction, the book takes us on an anti-tour of downtown LA, examines life for Vietnamese immigrants in the City of Dreams, imagines Walter Benjamin as a Los Angeleno and finally looks at the way information technology has recreated the city, turning cyberspace into the last suburb. In this new edition, Norman Klein examines new models for erasure in LA. He explores the evolution of the Latino majority, how the Pacific economy is changing the structure of urban life, the impact of collapsing infrastructure in the city and the restructuring of those very districts that had been forgotten. Modernism and Subjectivity Adam Meehan, 2020-06-03 In Modernism and Subjectivity How Modernist Fiction Invented the Postmodern Subject Adam Meehan argues that theories of subjectivity coming out of psychoanalytic poststructuralist and adjacent late twentieth century intellectual traditions had already been articulated in modernist fiction before 1945 Offering a bold new genealogy for literary modernism Meehan finds versions of a postmodern subject embodied in works by authors who intently undermine attempts to stabilize conceptions of identity and who draw attention to the role of language in shaping conceptions of the self Focusing on the philosophical registers of literary texts Meehan traces the development of modernist attitudes toward subjectivity particularly in relation to issues of ideology spatiality and violence His analysis explores a selection of works published between 1904 and 1941 beginning with Joseph Conrad's prescient portrait of the subject interpolated by ideology and culminating with Samuel Beckett's categorical disavowal of the subjective I Additional close readings of novels by F Scott Fitzgerald Aldous Huxley James Joyce Nathanael West and Virginia Woolf establish that modernist texts conceptualize subjectivity as an ideological and linguistic construction that reverberates across understandings of consciousness race place

The Legendary Estates of Beverly Hills Jeffrey Hyland, 2025-09-02. A re-edition of the authoritative Los Angeles estates book featuring the homes, gardens, and lifestyles of many of the city's original great architects and residents. This deluxe volume offers a meticulously researched and lavishly illustrated history of fifty magnificent estates in three of America's most prized residential districts: Beverly Hills, Bel Air, and Holmby Hills. Lush color photographs as well as a trove of historical images take readers beyond the front gates for an exceptional view of the mansions, grounds, and gardens of these sumptuous estates and tell the history of Los Angeles's rise from rugged paddocks and farmland to famed metropolis. Each house is explored both for its historical and architectural importance; for here are the epitome of residences and gardens reflecting the famed Italianate and California Mediterranean styles by all the leading architects of Southern California, including Wallace Neff, James Dolena, Gordon Kaufmann, Robert Farquhar, Roland Coate, and Paul Williams. They built for clients such as Gary Cooper, Buster Keaton, Harold Lloyd, and Bing Crosby, whose own stories reflect the intrigue and foibles of Hollywood society. The book's final chapter, "Gone but Not Forgotten," pays homage to great estates that have been destroyed or lost to history.

American Autopia Gabrielle Esperdy, 2019-10-28. Early to mid twentieth century America was the heyday of a car culture that has been called an automobile utopia. In American Autopia, Gabrielle Esperdy examines how the automobile influenced architectural and urban discourse in the United States from the earliest days of the auto industry to the aftermath of the 1970s oil crisis. Paying particular attention to developments after World War II, Esperdy creates a narrative that extends from U.S. Routes 1 and 66 to the Las Vegas Strip to California freeways with stops at gas stations, diners, main drags, shopping centers and parking lots along the way While it addresses the development of auto oriented landscapes and infrastructures American Autopia is not a conventional history offering instead an exploration of the wide ranging evolution of car centric territories and drive in typologies looking at how they were scrutinized by diverse cultural observers in the middle of the twentieth century Drawing on work published in the popular and professional press and generously illustrated with evocative images the book shows how figures as diverse as designer Victor Gruen geographer Jean Gottmann theorist Denise Scott Brown critic J B Jackson and historian Reyner Banham constructed autopia as a place and an idea The result is an intellectual history and interpretive roadmap to the United States of the Automobile As Seen on TV Karal Ann Marling,1996-03-01 From the painting by numbers fad to the public fascination with the First Lady s apparel to the television sensation of Elvis Presley to the sculptural refinement of the automobile Marling explores what Americans saw and what they looked for in the 1950s with a gaze newly trained by TV Los Angeles Anton Wagner,2022-07-12 For the first time Anton Wagner s groundbreaking 1935 book that launched the study of Los Angeles as an urban metropolis is available in English No book on the emergence of Los Angeles today a metropolis of more than four million people has been more influential or elusive than this volume by Anton Wagner Originally published in German in 1935 as Los Angeles Werden Leben und Gestalt der Zweimillionenstadt in S dkalifornien it is one of the earliest geographical investigations of a city understood as a series of layered landscapes Wagner demonstrated that despite its geographical disadvantages Los Angeles grew rapidly into a dominant urban region bolstered by agriculture real estate development transportation infrastructure tourism the oil and automobile industries and the film business Although widely reviewed upon its initial publication his book was largely forgotten until reintroduced by architectural historian Reyner Banham in his 1971 classic Los Angeles The Architecture of Four Ecologies This definitive translation is annotated by Edward Dimendberg and preceded by his substantial introduction which traces Wagner s biography and intellectual formation in 1930s Germany and contextualizes his work among that of other geographers It is an essential work for students scholars and curious readers interested in urban geography and the rise of Los Angeles as a global metropolis L.A.
