paradox on every level an artist in every sense of the word During the comic boom of the seventies when the world had begun to discover the prodigious talents of Steve Martin Richard Pryor John Belushi Bill Murray and so many others Andy was simply doing what he had always done in his boyhood reveries On the debut of Saturday Night Live he stood nervously next to a phonograph that scratchily played the theme from Mighty Mouse He fussed and fidgeted waiting for his moment When it came he raised his hand and moved his mouth to the words Here I come to save the day In that beautiful deliverance of pantomime before the millions of people for whom he had always dreamed about performing Andy triumphed He changed the face of comedy forever by lurching across boundaries that no one knew existed He was the boy who made life his playground and never stopped playing even when the games proved too dangerous for others And in the end he would play alone just as he had when it was all only beginning

In Lost in the Funhouse Bill Zehme sorts through a life of disinformation put forth by a master of deception to uncover the motivation behind the manipulation Magically entertaining it is a singular biography matched only by its singular subject
