Once there was another Sun and another Moon a different Sun and a different Moon from the ones we see now Sol was the name of that Sun and Mani was the name of that Moon Nevertheless always behind Sol and Mani wolves went a wolf behind each The wolves caught on them at last and they devoured Sol and Mani And then the world was in darkness and cold In those times the Gods lived Odin and Thor H dur and Baldur Tyr and Heimdall Vidar and Vali and Loki the doer of a good doer of evil Moreover the beautiful Goddesses lived then Frigga Freya Nanna Iduna and Sif Nevertheless in the days when the Sun and Moon were destroyed the Gods were destroyed too all the Gods except Baldur who had died before that time Vidar and Vali the sons of Odin and Modi and Magni the sons of Thor At that time too there were men and women in the world However before the Sun and the Moon were devoured and before the Gods were destroyed terrible things happened in the world Snow fell on the four corners of the earth and kept on falling for three seasons Winds came and blew everything away Moreover the people of the world who had lived on despite the snow and the cold and the winds fought each other brother killing brother until all the people were destroyed Women and Miracle Stories Anna

Korte, 2018-11-13 This book contains a multidisciplinary collection of studies on women in miracle stories found in texts ranging from religious classics to contemporary literary fiction Miracle stories are a genre of great importance for the study of women's religious inheritance and for the historical and cultural understanding of women as makers of faith Miracle stories are very generally speaking more open to popular religion and culture than for instance doctrinal and official ecclesiastical texts and as such they can be of special interest to the study of women's lives and religious aspirations Remarkably up till now this genre has not been looked at from this point of view This book aims to open this field for further research by presenting case studies from diverse angles and disciplines Some of the questions this book tries to answer are What do miracle stories specifically tell us about women Are there some types of miracles that are in particular related to certain groups of women What do these stories tell us about women as performers and or subjects of miracles What can be said about the social function and religious meaning of miracles by specifically looking at the way certain groups of women are practising and experiencing miracles By including research on miracle stories in contemporary fiction written by women this book also wants to acknowledge and research the disputed status of miracles as well of women in our present society which is moving from modernity to post modernity Please note that Women and Miracle Stories is previously published by

Subcreation: Fictional-World Construction from J.R.R. Tolkien to Terry Pratchett and Tad Williams Stefanie Schult,2017-01-26 The doctoral thesis argues that the term Subcreation with its revised and broadened definition in part differing from J R R Tolkien s original term sub creation may be used for the discussion of the making of fictional worlds in literary discourse The successful conception of a fictional world depends on the reader's willing suspension of disbelief This depends both on the author and his skilled composition of the world and all its aspects as well as on the reader's acceptance of this invented fictional world The author needs to create a narrative with an inner consistency which is crucial to achieving the effect of the reader's immersion in the fictional world The fundamental aspects that an author needs to realize to achieve successful Subcreation have been structured into and analysed in four categories Language and Linguistic Variation Physiopoeia Anthropoeia and Mythopoeia Furthermore this thesis shows that as contemporary examples of fantastic literature both Tad Williams's and Terry Pratchett's fictional worlds are successfully created through the realization of these aspects of Subcreation Apart from commenting on the success of the subcreative process this thesis also remarks upon the cultural influences both authors include in their writings While both may be considered Anglophone in a general categorization Pratchett's Discworld retains a feeling of Britishness that is not to be found in Williams's Otherland The thesis proposes several approaches to Subcreation that may be studied subsequently So for example it may be possible to determine the success of an author's Subcreation by collecting empirical data Apart from literary works this field of studies may also include other media
