The Four Lost Men Thomas Wolfe, 2008 This is the never before published extended version of Wolfe's short story in memory of his father The Four Lost Men is the first publication of the long version of Wolfe's story of familial and national reflection set during World War I Wolfe supplies a moving portrait of his dying father as well as a rich meditation on American history and ambitions on the verge of America's entry into a broadening global conflict Discussion of the title characters Presidents Garfield Arthur Harrison and Hayes provides opportunity for assessment of the mood and promise of the nation as well as reflection on the obstacles that had obscured paths toward untapped American potential Garfield Arthur Harrison and Hayes the four Republican presidents who followed Grant during the Reconstruction and post Reconstruction eras were all Civil War generals and self made men though none experienced a particularly distinguished term in office These presidents are iconic figures in the stories and political musings of the narrator s dying father In his efforts to understand their importance to his father the teenaged narrator comes to appreciate the act of storytelling that redefines these men in his father s memory and in turn redefines his father in the his own memory Originally published as a short story of 7 000 words in Scribner s Magazine in 1934 and later abridged by 1 000 words for reissue in the 1935 anthology From Death to Morning Wolfe s expanded tale is published here for the first time in its intended form and full length of some 21 000 words Editors Arlyn and Matthew J Brucoli have employed the same methods to reestablish this text as they used to wide acclaim in their centennial edition of O Lost The Story of a Buried Life the unabridged version of Wolfe s Look Homeward Angel The reestablishment of the long version of Four Lost Men opens an undeveloped area of scholarship into Wolfe s short fiction and serves as a model for restoring other such works of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K'tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternatives accounts of her past question the image of K'tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K'tut Tantri's self-defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K'tut Tantri's autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person ABOUT THE AUTHOR Timothy Lindsey is Professor of Law Director of the Asian Law Centre Director of the Centre for Islamic Law and Society and Federation Fellow in the Law School at the University of Melbourne

Hearts of the City Herbert Muschamp, 2013-12-11 From the late Herbert Muschamp the former architecture critic of The New York Times and one of the most outspoken and influential voices in architectural criticism a collection of his best work The pieces here from The New Republic Artforum and The New York Times reveal how Muschamp's views were both ahead of their time and timeless He often wrote about how the right architecture could be inspiring and uplifting and he uniquely drew on film literature and popular culture to write pieces that were passionate and often personal changing the landscape of architectural criticism in the process These columns made architecture a subject accessible to everyone at a moment when because of the heated debate between modernists and postmodernists architecture had become part of a larger public dialogue One of the most courageous and engaged voices in his field he devoted many columns at the Times to the lack of serious new architecture in this country and particularly in New York and spoke out against the agenda of developers He departed from the usual dry didactic style of much architectural writing to playfully for example compare Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Bilbao to the body of Marilyn Monroe or to wax poetic about a new design for Manhattan's manhole covers One sees in this collection that Muschamp championed early on the work of Frank Gehry Rem Koolhaas Zaha Hadid Thom Payne Frank Israel Jean Nouvel and Santiago Calatrava among others and was drawn to the theoretical writings of such architects as Peter Eisenman Published here for the first time is the uncut version of his brilliant and poignant essay about gay culture and Edward Durrell Stone's museum at 2 Columbus Circle Fragments from the book he left unfinished whose title we took for this collection A Dozen Years Metroscope and Atomic Secrets are also included Hearts of the City is dazzling writing from a humanistic thinker whose work changed forever the way we think about our cities and the buildings in them
