Lost Thoughts Of Soldiers:

The Lost Thoughts of Soldiers Delia Falconer, 2009-08-10 Georgia 1898 On what may be the last day of his life Captain Frederick Benteen the man who saved Custer's Seventh Cavalry from almost certain death at Little Bighorn receives a letter from an ambitious boy offering to restore his reputation For over 23 years Benteen has silently watched Custer's legend grow His General has been dead for more than 20 years killed in action considered a hero while the public has never forgiven Benteen for surviving Now at last he begins to put down some account of those two horrific days pinned down on a ridge What follows is an exquisite eulogy for his fellow soldiers both alive and dead Funny moving rich in character and incident this acclaimed novel avoids the bloody battle scenes and maudlin romance that characterize much Civil War based fiction in favor of an unsparing and poetic story that explores what it means to be a soldier then and now The Lost Thoughts of

Soldiers Delia Falconer, 2006-05-08 In 1876 Captain Frederick Benteen of Custer's 7th Cavalry survived Little Bighorn but has never been forgiven by the public Twenty years later he receives a letter from an ambitious boy offering to restore his reputation The Best Australian Stories 2009 (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) , Creative Writing Practice Debra Adelaide, Sarah Attfield, 2021-10-09 Creative Writing Practice reflections on form and process explores the craft of creative writing by illuminating the practices of writers and writer educators Demonstrating solutions to problems in different forms and genres the contributors draw on their professional and personal experiences to examine specific and practical challenges that writers must confront and solve in order to write This book discusses a range of approaches to writing such as the early working out of projects the idea of experimentation of narrative time and of failure With its strong focus on process Creative Writing Practice is a valuable guide for students scholars and practitioners of creative writing

Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage Frances A. Johnson, 2015-11-16 Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage examines key developments in the field of the Australian postcolonial historical novel from 1989 to the present In parallel with this analysis A Frances Johnson undertakes a unique study of in kind creativity reflecting on how her own nascent historical fiction has been critically and imaginatively shaped and inspired by seminal experiments in the genre by writers as diverse as Kate Grenville Mudrooroo Kim Scott Peter Carey Richard Flanagan and Rohan Wilson Mapping the postcolonial novel against the impact of postcolonial cultural theory and Australian writers intermittent embrace of literary postmodernism this survey is also read against the post millennial history and culture wars which saw politicizations of national debates around history and fierce contestation over the ways stories of Australian pasts have been written

Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History Gay Lynch, 2010-10-12 Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History establishes that apocryphal stories in all their transformations contribute to collective memory Common characteristics frame their analysis irreducible and enduring elements often embedded in archetypal drama lack of historical verification establishment in collective memory revivals after periods of dormancy subjection to political and economic manipulation implicit speculation and literary transformations This book contextualises Unsettled an Australian novel about a convict play derived from the Irish apocryphal story of The Magistrate of Galway and documents previously unpublished primary material including apocryphal stories passed through generations of descendants of settlers Martin and Maria Lynch and The Hibernian Father a play by Irish convict Edward Geoghegan It puts forward new hypotheses that the Irish hero Cuchulain may have provided a template for the archetypal and apocryphal story of the Magistrate of Galway that disgraced Trinity College medical student and aspiring writer Edward Geoghegan enacted and recounted the same father son archetypal conflict when he was transported to Botany Bay in 1839 and wrote the The Hibernian Father based on the Magistrate of Galway that working class Irish families were marginalised in South east South Australian historical records that oral apocryphal Lynch stories may be true that Kate Grenville s The Secret River 2006 offers an alternative history of the Hawkesbury River settlement by some definitions apocryphal The mystery of Geoghegan s disappearance is solved and knowledge about his life increased French theorist Gerard Genette s notion advanced in Palimpsests Literature in the Second Degree 1997 of all novels being transtextual provides a model for the analysis of relationships between these key apocryphal texts Jimmy Sharman's Boxers Stephen McGrath, 2023-10-04 Jimmy Sharman is a conundrum Raised in a large poor catholic family becoming a tent boxer at age eleven He blinds another boxer and is racked by guilt for the rest of his life yet develops an extremely profitable and popular showground fixture We learn about Sharman s boxing tent spruiking his unconventional business habits his furious temper his leadership and diplomacy Sharman was twenty seven and medically fit when the war started We learn the real life stories of several indigenous boxers who were openly defiant against the intense racism they encountered We meet clumsy Billy Grimes the flat foot kid who went on to win several Australian titles We see an unlikely friendship develop between Rud Kee a Chinese boxer and Sharman As losses at Gallipoli and the Western Front grow townspeople begin to question why a troupe of young men is fighting for profit while others are dying Soon there are few men left Sharman struggles to find challengers recruitment propaganda and white feather campaigns intensify The conscription plebiscites bitterly divide Australia Then great personal tragedy visits Archie and the troupe This story is the result of a remarkable new discovery in Australian history a true story about how Jimmy Sharman navigated his Boxing Troupe throughout the First World War despite the war fervour the conscription debate pressure to enlist accusations of cowardice and the tragic loss of so many to the war itself Based on extensive research of real people and real events this story tells how Jimmy Sharman managed to continue to tour throughout the war and created an unbeatable boxing troupe of White Chinese and indigenous boxers training them to be the most famous of all the Australian Travelling Boxing Troupes This is an incredible true and uniquely Australian story it is beautifully told giving us deep insight into the struggles of extraordinary people in extraordinary times Stephen McGrath s tireless research underpins this reanimation of a key chapter in Australia s social cultural and sporting history Much can be learned from revisiting the

Lost Causes Bradley R. Clampitt, 2022-06 This groundbreaking analysis of Confederate demobilization examines the state of mind of Confederate soldiers in the immediate aftermath of war Having survived severe psychological as well as physical trauma they now faced the unknown as they headed back home in defeat Lost Causes analyzes the interlude between soldier and veteran suggesting that defeat and demobilization actually reinforced Confederate identity as well as public memory of the war and southern resistance to African American civil rights Intense material shortages and images of the war's devastation confronted the defeated soldiers turned veterans as they returned home to a revolutionized society Their thoughts upon homecoming turned to immediate economic survival a radically altered relationship with freedpeople and life under Yankee rule all against the backdrop of fearful uncertainty Bradley R Clampitt argues that the experiences of returning soldiers helped establish the ideological underpinnings of the Lost Cause and create an identity based upon shared suffering and sacrifice a pervasive commitment to white supremacy and an aversion to Federal rule and all things northern As Lost Causes reveals most Confederate veterans remained diehard Rebels despite demobilization and the demise of the Confederate States of America

Down in the City Elizabeth Harrower, 2013-10-23 Esther Prescott has seen little of life outside her wealthy family's Rose Bay mansion until flashy Stan Peterson comes roaring up the drive in his huge American car and barges into her life Within a fortnight they are living in his Kings Cross flat Moody and erratic proud of his well bred wife yet bitterly resentful of her privilege Stan is involved with his former girlfriend and a series of shady business deals Esther innocent and desperate to please him must endure his controlling ways This story of a troubled and obsessive marriage set against the backdrop of postwar Sydney is devastating First published in 1957 Down in the City announced Elizabeth Harrower as a major Australian writer Elizabeth Harrower was born in Sydney in 1928 and moved to London in 1951 She travelled extensively and began to write fiction Her first novel Down in the City was published in 1957 and was followed by The Long Prospect a year later In 1959 she returned to Sydney where she began working for the ABC and as a book reviewer for the Sydney Morning Herald In 1960 she published The Catherine Wheel the story of an Australian law student in London her only novel not set in Sydney The Watch Tower appeared in 1966 No further novels were published until May 2014 when Harrower's lost novel In Certain Circles was released Her work is austere intelligent ruthless in its perceptions about men and women She was admired by many of her contemporaries including Patrick White and Christina Stead and is without doubt among the most important writers of the postwar period in Australia Elizabeth Harrower died in Sydney on 7 July 2020 at the age of ninety two Down in the City marked the arrival of one of the sharpest authors of psychological fiction in Australian literature Many of the things that happen in the novel are unpleasant but are rendered with such intensity and psychological insight that the experience of reading about them is thrilling Australian a triumph from Text's project to recover forgotten Australian literature Doused in
