formal documents 901-2634 National Library of Scotland,1938 Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward,2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England s religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John Henry Newman s category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person s being in relation to God
