Event Portfolio Management Vladimir Antchak,Vassilios Ziakas,Donald Getz,2019-09-01 A concise introduction to portfolio theory and methods for use in event management and event tourism Divided into 2 parts of Theory and Practice it explains why it is important in event studies and management and then shows how related methods can be used and adapted using real world international case studies British Colonial Investment in Colonial N.S.W. 1788-1850 Gordon W. Beckett,2013 The traditional recounting of early Australian Economic History is that Britain decided to settle the continent for strategic advantages and as a source of raw materials for its industry and as an outlet for its trading and the transfer of resources a takeover by the new economic managers The official intention of settling the colony was for peaceful co operative economic development of the new land beneficial to British traditional interests and not intended to undermine or engage in war with the native population and to share what food resources were naturally available The gulf between the two societies was too large to be bridged and the British settlement succeeded while the ancient society was destroyed The destruction of traditional Aboriginal society was recognized by depopulation from an accepted population of about 1 million in 1788 to 250 000 by 1848 whilst an estimated 50% of Aboriginal resources were absorbed by white settlers between 1788 and 1809 The extent and content of British Colonial Investment is discussed as are topics such as the role of Immigration and Foreign Investment the reasons for the colony and the highlights of the British rule in the economy and the colonial economic experiment undertaken by Macquarie Permian-Triassic Pangean Basins and Foldbelts Along the Panthalassan Margin of Gondwanaland J. Towards a Twenty-First-Century Feminist Politics of Music Sally Macarthur, 2016-02-24 Towards a Twenty First Century Feminist Politics of Music opens up a new way of thinking about the absence of women's music It does not aim to find a solution in a liberal feminist sense but to discover new potentialities new possibilities for thought and action Sally Macarthur encourages us with the assistance of Deleuze and feminist Deleuzian work to begin the important work of imagining what else might be possible not in order to provide answers but to open up the as yet unknown The power of thought or what Deleuze calls the virtual opens up new possibilities Macarthur suggests that the future for women's new music is not tied to the predictable and known but to futures beyond the already known Previous research concludes that women's music is virtually absent from the concert hall and yet fails to find a way of changing this situation Macarthur finds that the flaw in the recommendations flowing from past research is that it envisages the future from the standpoint of the present and it relies on a set of pre determined goals It thus replicates the present reality so reinforcing rather than changing the status quo Macarthur challenges this thinking and argues that this repetitive way of thinking is stuck in the present unable to move forward Macarthur situates her argument in the context of current dominant neoliberal thought and practice She argues that women have generally not thrived in the neoliberal model of the composer which envisages the composer as an individual autonomous creator and entrepreneur Successful female composers must work with this dominant modernist aesthetic and exploit the image of the neo romantic entrepreneurial creator This book sets out in contrast to develop a new conception of subjectivity that sows the seeds of a twenty first century feminist politics of music Writing Never Arrives Naked Penny van Toorn, Penelope Van Toorn, 2006 In Writing Never Arrives Naked Penny van Toorn reveals the resourceful and often poignant ways that Indigenous Australians involved themselves in the colonisers paper culture The first Aboriginal readers were children stolen from the clans around Sydney Harbour The first Aboriginal author was Bennelong a stolen adult From the early years of colonisation Aboriginal people used written texts to negotiate a changing world to challenge their oppressors protect country and kin and occasionally for economic gain Van Toorn argues that Aboriginal people were curious about books and papers and in time began to integrate letters of the alphabet into their graphic traditions During the 19th and 20th centuries Aboriginal people played key roles in translating the Bible and made their political views known in community and regional newspapers They also sent numerous letters and petitions to political figures including Queen Victoria BOOK JACKET Gravity, Geoid and Geodynamics 2000 Michael G. Sideris, 2013-06-29 This symposium continued the tradition of mid term meetings held between the joint symposia of International Geoid and Gravity Commissions This time geodynamics was chosen as the third topic to accompany the traditional topics of gravity and geoid The symposium thus aimed at bringing together geodesists and geophysicists working in the general areas of gravity geoid and geodynamics Besides covering the traditional research areas special attention was paid to the use of geodetic methods for geodynamics studies dedicated satellite missions airborne surveys geodesy and geodynamics of arctic regions and the integration of geodetic and geophysical information Cambridge Handbook of Strategy as Practice Damon Golsorkhi, Linda Rouleau, David Seidl, Eero Vaara, 2015-09-03 Now in its second edition this extended and thoroughly updated handbook introduces researchers and students to the growing range of theoretical and methodological perspectives being developed in the vibrant field of strategy as practice With new authors and additional chapters it shows how the strategy as practice approach in strategic management moves away from disembodied and asocial studies of firm assets technologies and practices to explore and explain the contribution that strategizing makes to people working at all levels of an organization It breaks down many of the traditional paradigmatic barriers in strategy to investigate who the strategists are what they do how they do it and what the consequences or outcomes of their actions are This essential work summarizes recent developments in the field while presenting a clear agenda for future research Melanges Loren A. Raymond, 1984

Ecosystem Response Modelling in the Murray-Darling Basin Neil Saintilan,Ian Overton,2010-04-27 Ecosystem Response Modelling in the Murray Darling Basin provides an overview of the status of science in support of water management in Australia s largest and most economically important river catchment and brings together the leading ecologists working in the rivers and wetlands of the Basin It introduces the issues in ecosystem response modelling and how this area of science can support environmental watering decisions The declining ecological condition of the internationally significant wetlands of the Murray Darling Basin has been a prominent issue in Australia for many years Several high profile government programs have sought to restore the flow conditions required to sustain healthy wetlands and this book documents the scientific effort that is underpinning this task In the Southern Murray Darling Basin the River Murray the Murrumbidgee River and their associated wetlands and floodplains have been the focus of the Murray Darling Basin Authority s The Living Murray program and the NSW Rivers Environmental Restoration Program The book documents research aimed at informing environmental water use in a number of iconic wetlands including those along the Murray the Barmah Millewa Forest the Chowilla Floodplain and Lindsay Wallpolla Islands the Coorong and Murray mouth and the Murrumbidgee the Lowbidgee Floodplain Within the Northern Murray Darling Basin research conducted in support of the Wetland Recovery Plan and the NSW Rivers Environmental Restoration Program has improved our knowledge of the Gwydir Wetlands and the Macquarie Marshes and the water regimes required to sustain their ecology Journal of Geophysical Research ,1963 The city trip guide for Newcastle (Australia) YouGuide Ltd, Fodor's Australia Margaret Kelly,Kelly Kealy,2010-04-13 Examines the cultural attractions of Vienna Salzburg and other areas of Austria and offers tips on accommodations restaurants walking and driving tours sightseeing shopping and seasonal festivals and events

Business Continuity Planning Ken Doughty,2000-09-11 Once considered a luxury a business continuity plan has become a necessity Many companies are required to have one by law Others have implemented them to protect themselves from liability and some have adopted them after a disaster or after a near miss Whatever your reason the right continuity plan is essential to your organization Business Continuity Planning Protecting Your Organization s Life explains how to evaluate your current plan for completeness create an effective plan if you don t have one and ensure it remains up to date From fires floods and power outages to hackers and software problems companies need to protect against a variety of threats Business Continuity Planning Protecting Your Organization s Life takes a best practices approach to provide a comprehensive continuity solution It details how to build a plan to handle business disruptions keep vital operations up and running and prevent losses that occur when business is crippled or security is compromised Joint Volumes of Papers Presented to the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly New South Wales. Parliament,1905 Includes various departmental reports and reports of commissions Cf Gregory Serial publications of foreign governments 1815 1931 Subduction Zones Part II Larry J. Ruff,H. Kanamori,2012-12-06 Subduction zones consume oceanic lithosphere and are an indispensable part of plate tectonics Unlike the oceanic lithosphere production system which can be linked as a nearly continuous albeit sinuous strand around the earth subduction zones are a rather dissociated group and are found in several isolated corners of the world While plate tectonics can predict that subduction zones are required along certain plate boundaries it does not stipulate how subduction zones initiate and develop The preservation of newly created oceanic lithosphere and the propensity for spreading centers to fragment continents leaves a wealth of geological information on the initiation and evolution of spreading On the other hand the subject of subduction initiation has little observational basis To find such observations we need to look at some muddled tectonic regimes The Macquarie Ridge complex presents a natural laboratory for studies of subduction initiation

2 Tectonics of the Macquarie Ridge Complex The Macquarie Ridge complex is a complicated physiographic feature that trends approximately north south between South Island New Zealand and the Pacific Antarctica spreading center This feature consists of a sequence of troughs and ridges with Macquarie Island as the only exposed expression The seismically active Macquarie Ridge complex hereafter MRC is crudely continuous with the Tonga Kermadec New Zealand seismic activity The basic physiographic features and seismicity of the MRC are shown in Figure 1 The earthquake epicenters generally cluster about the bathymetric expression of the MRC

The Enlightenment, Philanthropy and the Idea of Social Progress in Early Australia Ilya Lazarev, 2018-08-06 This book seeks to highlight the influence of the Enlightenment idea of social progress on the character of the civilising mission in early Australia by tracing its presence in the various civilising attempts undertaken between 1788 and 1850 It also represents an attempt to marry the history of the British Enlightenment and the history of settler Aboriginal interactions The chronological structure of the book as well as the breadth of its content will facilitate the readers understanding of the evolution of civilising attempts and their epistemological underpinnings while throwing additional light on the influence of the Enlightenment on Australian history as a whole
