Haunted Visions Charles Colbert, 2011-05-10 Spiritualism emerged in western New York in 1848 and soon achieved a wide following due to its claim that the living could commune with the dead In Haunted Visions Spiritualism and American Art Charles Colbert focuses on the ways Spiritualism imbued the making and viewing of art with religious meaning and in doing so draws fascinating connections between art and faith in the Victorian age Examining the work of such well known American artists as James Abbott McNeill Whistler William Sydney Mount and Robert Henri Colbert demonstrates that Spiritualism played a critical role in the evolution of modern attitudes toward creativity He argues that Spiritualism made a singular contribution to the sanctification of art that occurred in the latter half of the nineteenth century The faith maintained that spiritual energies could reside in objects and thus works of art could be appreciated not only for what they illustrated but also as vessels of the psychic vibrations their creators impressed into them. Such beliefs sanctified both the making and collecting of art in an era when Darwinism and Positivism were increasingly disenchanting the world and the efforts to represent it. In this context, Spiritualism endowed the artist's profession with the prestige of a religious calling in doing so it sought not to replace religion with art but to make art a site where religion happened.

Acquiring Cultures

Bénédicte Savoy, Charlotte Guichard, Christine Howald, 2018-12-03 As more parts of the world outside Europe became accessible and in the wake of social and technological developments in the 18th century a growing number of exotic artefacts entered European markets. The markets for such objects thrived while a collecting culture and museums emerged. This book provides insights into the methods and places of exchange, networks, prices, expertise and valuation concepts as well as the transfer and transport of these artefacts over 300 years and across four continents. The contributions are from international experts including Ting Chang, N. Lia Dias, Noémie Etienne, Jonathan Fine, Philip Jones, Sylvester Okwunodu Ogbechie, L. a. Saint Raymond and Masako Yamamoto.

Enchanted Lives, Enchanted Objects Dianne Sachko Macleod, 2008 This insightful and beautifully illustrated book offers the first feminist analysis of the phenomenon of women art collectors in America. Dianne Sachko Macleod brings a surprising paradox to light showing that collecting which provided wealthy women with a private sense of solace also liberated them to venture into the public sphere and make a lasting contribution to the emerging American culture. Beginning in the antebellum period continuing through the Gilded Age and reaching well into the twentieth century Macleod shows how elite women enlisted the objects of art and avant garde paintings in their collections in causes ranging from the founding of modern museums to the campaign for women's suffrage.

Beyond Grief Cynthia Mills, 2014-09-23 Beyond Grief explores high style funerary sculptures and their functions during the turn of the twentieth century. Many scholars have overlooked these monuments viewing them as mere oddities, a part of an individual artist's oeuvre, a detail of a patron's biography or local civic cemetery history. This volume considers them in terms of their wider context and shifting use as objects of consolation, power and multisensory mystery and wonder. Art historian Cynthia Mills traces the stories of four families who memorialized their losses through sculpture. Henry Brooks Adams commissioned perhaps the most famous American cemetery monument of all the Adams Memorial in Washington D.C. The bronze figure was designed by Augustus Saint Gaudens who became the nation's foremost sculptor. Another innovative bronze monument featured the Milmore brothers who had worked together as sculptors in the Boston area. Artist Frank Duveneck composed a recumbent portrait of his wife following her early death in Paris. In Rome the aging William Wetmore Story made an angel of grief his last work as a symbol of his sheer desolation after his wife's death. Through these incredible monuments Mills explores questions like Why did new forms many of them now produced in bronze rather than stone and placed in architectural settings arise just at this time and how did they mesh or clash with the sensibilities of their era Why was there a gap between the intention of these elite patrons and artists whose lives were often intertwined in a closed circle and the way some public audiences received them through the filter of the mass media Beyond Grief traces the monuments creation influence and reception in the hope that they will help us to understand the larger story how survivors used cemetery memorials as a vehicle to mourn and remember and how their meaning changed over time
