Egocentricity and Mysticism Ernst Tugendhat,2016-10-04 In Egocentricity and Mysticism Ernst Tugendhat casts mysticism as an innate facet of what it means to be human a response to an existential need for peace of mind This need is created by our discursive practices which serve to differentiate us from one another and privilege our respective first person standpoints Emphasizing the first person fuels a desire for mysticism which builds knowledge of what binds us together and connects us to the world Any intellectual pursuit that prompts us to step back from our egocentric concerns harbors a mystic kernel that manifests as a sense of awe wonder and gratitude Philosophy the natural sciences and mathematics all engender forms of mystical experience as profound as any produced by meditation and asceticism One of the most widely discussed books by a German philosopher in decades Egocentricity and Mysticism is a philosophical milestone that clarifies in groundbreaking ways our relationship to language social interaction and mortality

The Numinous Universe Daniel Liderbach,1989 Contraversial and utterly unique this scholarly work uses modern physics to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is an active presence in the world Equilibrium of Eternitys Playground Andrew Lennard,2021-02-15 The transcendental truth had always been hidden from the spiritual being Even among the enigma of supernatural existence the celestial contradictions of the consecrated cosmos were concealed from the Archangel and Seraphim But the days of a duplicitous divine design were numbered Infinity s lies are about to come to an end The mutiny of three malevolent malcontents are ready to destroy the Deity s deceit as Parrish May and Ecole s insurrection ignites the flames of divine dissidence in heaven and earth releasing an angelic apocalypse But can the three subversive seraphs rebellion alter the numinous nebula of creation with their seditious symmetry Or will the inviolable equilibrium of eternity s

The Learned Practice of Religion in the Modern University Donald Wiebe,2019-11-14 In these essays Donald Wiebe unveils a significant problem in the academic study of religion in colleges and universities in North America and Europe that studies almost always exhibit a religious bias To explore this issue Wiebe looks at the religious and moral agendas behind the study of religion showing that the boundaries between the objective study of religion and religious education as a tool for bettering society have become blurred As a result he argues religious studies departments have fostered an environment where religion has become a learned or scholarly practice rather than the object of academic scrutiny This book provides a critical history of the failure of 20th and 21st century scholars to follow through on the 19th century ideal of an objective scientific study of religious thought and behaviour Although emancipated from direct ecclesiastical control and to some extent from sectarian theologizing Wiebe argues that research and scholarship in the academic department of religious studies has failed to break free from religious constraints He shows that an objective scientific study of religious thought and practice is not only possible but the only appropriate approach to the study of religious phenomena

David's Question Edward Reaugh Smith,2001-11 This collection of the astronomical writings by Dr Elisabeth Vreede is a fascinating compendium of scientific and spiritual knowledge Between September 1927 and August 1930 Dr Vreede wrote a monthly letter available by subscription about both modern astronomy and classical astrology in the light of spiritual science These letters include clear explanations of the fundamentals of astronomy and discussions on the role of astrology in the modern world They also include inspiring presentations of a worldview that sees the stars planets and all physical phenomena as manifestations of spiritual beings and spiritual activities A previous edition was published as Anthroposophy and Astrology Consecrating Science Lisa H. Sideris, 2017-08-15 In Consecrating Science Lisa Sideris offers a searing critique of The New Cosmology a complex network of overlapping movements that claim to bring together science and spirituality all in the name of saving our planet from impending ecological collapse Highly regarded in many academic circles these movements have been endorsed by numerous prominent scholars scientists historians and educators Their express goal popularized in numerous books films TED talks YouTube videos podcasts and even introductory courses at places like Harvard or Washington University is to instill in readers and audiences a profound sense of being at home in the universe thereby fostering environmentally responsible behavior Whether promoted as The New Story The Universe Story or The Epic of Evolution they all offer humanity a new sacred story a common creation myth for modern times and for all people the evolutionary unfolding of the universe from the Big Bang to the present Evolutionary science and religious cosmology together at last But as Sideris shows however the New Cosmology actually underwrites a staggeringly anthropocentric vision of the world Instead of cultivating an ethic of respect for nature the project of consecrating science only increases human arrogance and indifference to nonhuman life Going back to the work of Rachel Carson and other naturalists the author shows how a sense of wonder rooted in the natural world and our own ethical impulses helps foster environmental attitudes and policies that protect our planet Provided by publishe
