Liste Mondiale Des Périodiques Spécialisés Dans Les Sciences Sociales, 1991      Signals and Images Madeleine Bastide, 2012-12-06 Scientists challenging dominant paradigms are either ignored or attacked by the scientific mainstream This book however contains a selection of scientific papers presented at the two last GIRI meetings International Research Group on Very Low Dose and High Dilution Effects The majority of these papers present results performed with succussed high dilutions homeopathic dilutions even beyond the Avogadro number All presented models are classified and their interpretation is possible either in the mechanistic paradigm or in an information paradigm This new field of research introduces new scientific concepts which are supported by experimental results Furthermore this nascent science is totally concerned with living organisms and as such it becomes necessary to define information brought by non molecular high dilutions This book presents brain storming work of this research group and is one of the starting points of a scientific evolution      Information Sur Les Sciences Sociales International Social Science Council, 2004      Ethnomethodological Sociology Jeff Coulter, 1990 Ethnomethodological Sociologypresents some of the classic papers in ethnomethodology together with the most important recent contributions It includes a clear introduction and a comprehensive 80 page bibliography It contains a significant range of ethnomethodological work spanning 20 years The volume exhibits the theoretical power and philosophical significance of this domain of sociological enquiry Concerned to elucidate in fine detail the formal properties of human conduct in situ ethnomethodologists have made great progress in specifying how members of society pursuing their diverse practical purposes manage to construct the intelligibility and orderliness of their practical affairs in methodical and formally analysable ways This collection effectively documents that progress      Impending Challenges to Penal Moderation in France and Germany Kirstin Drenkhahn, Fabien Jobard, Tobias Singelstein, 2023-07-27 This book investigates the penal culture in France and Germany how it is shaped in politics media and public opinion Although compared with the US or the UK France and Germany seem to place a strong emphasis on the ideal of rehabilitation that would block excessive punishment and other outcomes of punitive developments in society there is a steady increase in punitiveness over time for which the term strained restraint is proposed The book shows that the idea of penal moderation is deeply rooted in public opinion politics and the media and that it is renegotiated every day in a dynamic interplay between these spheres Punishment and society research has traditionally focused on the US and the UK In comparative research both are considered extreme in punitive developments with high rates of imprisonment and large groups of the population under penal control The other extreme in comparative research would be Scandinavia with the famous Nordic Exceptionalism marked by low prison population rates Germany and France are often considered to be the same when compared with each other and the other with reference to both of these extremes However this book shows that France and Germany are far from being the same when it comes to state organization centralistic vs federal criminal justice and the criminal law political traditions and the media Also research from both countries has looked at whether developments such as the punitive turn have occurred in Germany and France Research focused on the domestic situation concludes that punitiveness is on the rise and that both countries are indeed experiencing their own punitive turn How do we reconcile these contradictory findings Why do these two seem to follow the path of penal moderation in the overall outcome of punishment in society when we look at comparative research And how is it that from a domestic perspective punitive attitudes and desires are leading to more punitiveness By focusing on the meso level with a comparative perspective on the two countries and a dynamic analytical approach this book reconciles the fluidity of individual attitudes and opinions with the relative stability of societal discourse The authors posit that penal moderation comes at a price overall and in an internationally comparative perspective there is penal moderation but a closer look at the domestic situation and development reveals that it is nonetheless challenged by a slowly rising tide of punitiveness Going beyond the main tenets of punishment and society research with a dynamic analysis of two large societies in Europe this book is ideal reading for scholars and students of penology criminal justice and European studies Canadian Books in Print ,1995 Mapping Ideology in Discourse Studies Simo K. Määttä, Marika K. Hall, 2022-05-09 Discourse and ideology are quintessential albeit contested concepts in many functionally oriented branches of linguistics such as linguistic anthropology critical discourse studies sociolinguistics and sociology of language With many ways of understanding and utilizing the concepts the line between discourse and ideology can become blurry This volume explores divergent ways in which the concept of ideology may be applied in different branches of sociolinguistics and the sociology of language critical discourse studies and applied linguistics The goal is to provide an overview of the ways in which these two concepts can be used separately or together emphasizing one or the other depending on the ways in which the concepts and their relationship are defined The volume is targeted at scholars working in various fields of linguistics in which discourse and ideology are used as theoretical and analytical tools While the target audience includes both senior and junior scholars a particular goal is to reach junior scholars who often struggle with the distinction between discourse and ideology and their theoretical and methodological potential The volume is suitable for classroom use at the graduate level

Archer, 2013-02-20 The rate of social change has speeded up in the last three decades but how do we explain this This volume ventures what the generative mechanism is that produces such rapid change and discusses how this differs from late Modernity Contributors examine if an intensification of morphogenesis positive feedback that results in a change in social form and a corresponding reduction in morphostasis negative feedback that restores or reproduces the form of the social order best captures the process involved This volume resists proclaiming a new social formation as so many books written by empiricists have done by extrapolating from empirical data Until we can convincingly demonstrate that a new generative mechanism is at work it is premature to argue what accounts for the global changes that are taking place and where they will lead More concisely we seek to answer the question whether or not current social change can be regarded as social morphogenesis Only then in the next volumes will the same team of authors be able to remove the question mark

Social Innovation and Sustainability Transition Geoff Desa, Xiangping Jia, 2022-11-09 This book uses a historical and modern lens to reimagine the role that Extension could potentially play in catalyzing reciprocal co-learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies The establishment of statewide extension systems was once seen as a way to ensure that Land Grant Universities would be accessible and responsive to all of a state's residents Extension systems continue to offer a front door to a major public university in almost every county of the United States but they tend to be viewed primarily as a way to translate science or distribute information from the university to the public This book argues for the importance of Extension and shows that we are conceiving of this system too narrowly Only by retelling the stories of the Extension and getting people to see themselves as part of the story can we imagine a different future in which state universities and land grant colleges engage more authentically and equitably in two-way relationships with their local constituents in catalyzing reciprocal co-learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies Chapter Palatable disruption the politics of plant milk chapter Feeding the melting pot inclusive strategies for the multi-ethnic city chapter A carrot isn't a carrot isn't a carrot tracing value in alternative practices of food exchange chapter Virtualizing the good life reworking narratives of agrarianism and the rural idyll in a computer game and chapter Workable utopias for social change through inclusion and empowerment Community supported agriculture CSA in Wales as social innovation are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license via link.springer.com
