Rottet, Barry Jean Ancelet, Richard Guidry, Thomas A. Klingler, Amanda LaFleur, Tamara Lindner, Michael D. Picone, Dominique Ryon, 2010-09-30 The Dictionary of Louisiana French DLF provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana the coastal marshes the banks of the Mississippi River the central area the north and the western prairie Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty-four areas in these regions In addition to the data collected from fieldwork the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings The new authoritative resource the DLF not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling the pronunciation including attested variants the part of speech classification

the English equivalent and the word's use in common phrases The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in la Louisiane

A Journey Through Representation Theory Caroline Gruson, Vera Serganova, 2018-10-23 This text covers a variety of topics in representation theory and is intended for graduate students and more advanced researchers who are interested in the field The book begins with classical representation theory of finite groups over complex numbers and ends with results on representation theory of quivers The text includes in particular infinite dimensional unitary representations for abelian groups Heisenberg groups and $SL(2)$ and representation theory of finite dimensional algebras The last chapter is devoted to some applications of quivers including Harish Chandra modules for $SL(2)$ Ample examples are provided and some are revisited with a different approach when new methods are introduced leading to deeper results Exercises are spread throughout each chapter Prerequisites include an advanced course in linear algebra that covers Jordan normal forms and tensor products as well as basic results on groups and rings

Introductory Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory

Adult Language Acquisition: Volume 1, Field Methods Clive Perdue, 1993-07-30 These two volumes present the methodology and results of an international research project on second language acquisition by adult immigrants This project went beyond other studies in at least three respects in the number of languages studied simultaneously in the organisation of coordinated longitudinal studies in different linguistic environments and in the type and range of linguistic phenomena investigated It placed the study of second languages and inter ethnic discourse on a firm empirical footing Volume 1 explains and evaluates the research design adopted for the project Volume 2 summarises the cross linguistic results under two main headings native non native speaker interaction and language production Together they present the reader with a complete research procedure and in doing so make explicit the links between research questions methodology and results
