 P. Jones,2023-04-10 For centuries access to Tibet was difficult for geographical and political reasons until missionaries pried it open in the nineteenth century Their reports provided glimpses of those living behind the towering mountains hidden from the Western world One of those missionaries Robert B Ekvall 1898 1983 stands out as one of the most illustrious and overlooked alumni of Nyack College now Alliance University and Wheaton College He joined the short list of those who contributed significantly to the evangelization of the Tibetan Buddhist nomads of Northeastern Tibet After serving two decades as a pioneer missionary anthropologist on the Gansu Tibetan border of western China his career in missions suddenly ended He was thrust into WWII as a captain in the US Army a combatant interpreter military attach diplomat and chief interpreter at the Panmunjom Korea armistice talks in 1953 In the late 1950s he entered the academic world at the University of Washington Seattle before retiring in the 1970s Adventure bravery intrigue tragedy and sorrow all describe facets of Ekvall s life Few missionaries can boast of such a varied career Report United States. Congress. House, compilation of essays documents the extensive intersubjective relationships between gender war and militarism in 21st century global politics Feminist scholars have long contended that war and militarism are fundamentally gendered Gender War and Militarism Feminist Perspectives provides empirical evidence theoretical innovation and interdisciplinary conversation on the topic while explicitly and uniquely considering the links between gender war and militarism Essentially an interdisciplinary conversation between scholars studying gender in political science anthropology and sociology the essays here all turn their attention to the same questions How are war and militarism gendered Seventeen innovative explanations of different intersections of the gendering of global politics and global conflict examine the theoretical relationship between gender militarization and security the deployment of gender and sexuality in times of conflict sexual violence in war and conflict post conflict reconstruction and gender and militarism in media and literary accounts of war Together these essays make a coherent argument that reveals that although it takes different forms gendering is a constant feature of 21st century
