Significantly, this volume focuses on seldom heard groups including persons diagnosed with HIV, COVID 19 dissenters, prisoners, essential workers, waste pickers, refugees, and migrants. The chapters focus on the pandemic's multifarious impacts on people's lived realities in personal and professional domains, exploring the complexity of people's relationships with family, friends, interactions with colleagues and students, and the centrality of emotions to everyday human experiences, including grief, loss, and loneliness, as well as moments of joy and processes of personal renewal. This volume explores innovative questions, issues, and challenges on the development and utilization of rich biographical narrative methodologies during COVID 19, addressing important issues like power and voice, and pragmatic questions of how to do biographic research whilst socially distant. Contributions to this work illuminate the multidimensionality of human experiences, adaptability to adverse circumstances, and the complexity of working through unanticipated global events whilst reimagining novel social futures.
