

What Causes Delinquency?

- What propels youths to commit delinquency?
- Complex interplay of a variety of biological, genetic, and environmental factors
- Further complicated by various reactions to environmental factors
 - Why do only a few individuals who experience the same environments as many others actually commit crime?
- Criminological theories provide a scientific way to approach and understand why people commit crime

Reactions To Delinquency:

Reactions to Delinquency William Carter Smith, 1979 What Can Parents Do? Margaret Kerr, Håkan Stattin, Rutger C. M. E. Engels, 2008-04-15 In recent years research on parenting has changed stance from one where parents shape child outcomes to an interactive perspective However this shift is only now transferring to adolescents with research exploring how the roles that adolescents and parents play in their interactions can lead to problem behaviour Part of the Hot Topics in Developmental Research series this book presents the new perspective Children's Influence on Family Dynamics Ann C. Crouter, Alan Booth, 2003-04-02 This volume addresses how children's personal qualities make their mark on families in ways that may in turn influence children's subsequent development Criminological Theory Stephen G. Tibbetts, Craig Hemmens, 2009-10-15 This book provides the best of both worlds authored text sections with carefully selected accompanying readings covering criminological theory from past to present and beyond The articles from leading journals in criminology and criminal justice reflect both classic studies and state of the art research Key Features Begins with an introductory chapter that presents a succinct overview of criminological theory and briefly describes the organization and content of the book Features How to Read a Research Article a perfect introduction to understanding how real world research is organized and delivered in the journal literature Includes a mini chapter for each Section with figures and tables that present basic concepts and provide a background for the Readings that follow Provides key terms web resources and thought provoking discussion questions for each Section along with questions for each Reading to help students develop their critical thinking skills Instructor Resources on CD include a test bank PowerPoint slides for each section classroom activities and more A Student study site provides additional articles self study quizzes e flashcards and more Parental Monitoring of Adolescents Vincent Guilamo-Ramos, James Jaccard, Patricia Dittus, 2010 The close supervision of adolescents dramatically reduces the incidence of risky sexual behavior drug and alcohol use and other activities that could negatively affect one's health and well being Because of the strong correlation between parental monitoring and a child's welfare social workers psychologists child development specialists and other professionals who work with children now incorporate monitoring into their programs and practice A definitive resource providing the best research and techniques for productive supervision within the home this volume defines and develops the conceptual methodological and practical areas of parental monitoring and monitoring research locating the right balance of closeness and supervision while also remaining sensitive to ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds Assembled by leading experts on childrearing and healthy parent child communication Parental Monitoring of Adolescents identifies the conditions that best facilitate parental knowledge ideal interventions for high risk youth and the factors that either help or hinder the monitoring of an adolescent's world The volume also sets a course for future research establishing a new framework that evaluates the nature and approach of monitoring within the parent adolescent relationship and the particular social realities of everyday life Encyclopedia of
