Who Will Throw the Ball?

Ida H. Love Ph.D., 2015-11-06 School leadership is the difference maker in achieving high expectations for all students by involving all staff parents community and business partnerships Everyone employed in the school has an important role in promoting high student achievement The principal is the leader and is ultimately responsible for everything but does not need to do or know everything Organization early learning professional learning implementation follow up and feedback are critical components in building an effective school The principal needs a strong leadership team and a very smart dependable and knowledgeable secretary administrative assistant to give leadership to the front office Any principal without anyone other than the best in this position has a setup for failure because the major part of the job is in the classroom for the leader and not the office Early learning is the foundation for all future learning and beginning in pre k and kindergarten educators can set the tone for student success All children can learn to read by the end of kindergarten by utilizing the services of paraprofessionals who have received professional learning skills to reinforce instruction previously taught by the teacher Why do we have some students in middle and high schools who can't read The answer is obvious the foundation was not set in the early years Try building a house without a foundation and you will find yourself spending twice the amount of time and money doing what should have been done in the first place Many times when students have not been adequately prepared to enter secondary schools they no longer have the will and motivation to learn and this is tragic because dropout is usually the only option Students need social emotional and other developmental skills in the early years but it is time to emphasize instructional skills also starting with writing reading listening to daily storytelling and daily high frequency words We can't afford to continue moving students from grade to grade and they cannot read

Supporting Literacies for Children of Color

Daniel R. Meier, 2019-11-26 A comprehensive theory to practice guidebook Supporting Literacies for Children of Color argues for a new strength based view of teaching to support the literacy talents and abilities of preschool aged children of Color The early childhood field is at a critical juncture in preschool literacy education as educators confront an ever changing array of curricular approaches and assessment measures while still trying to meet the social cultural language and literacy needs of individual children By integrating parent and teacher literacy perspectives as well as calling on the author's own decades of teaching this book offers practical tools and strategies for culturally responsive pedagogy and demonstrates effective methods for using oral language and multilingualism to celebrate and deepen the literacy capabilities of children of Color Featuring examples of children's literacy processes and products both at home and in preschools to illustrate effective instructional strategies as well as boxes noting important ideas and strategies in each major section this text will guide students and educators toward creating a supportive learning environment for children of Color

Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines Education English and Library and Information Science Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home school library and community settings Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels picturebooks indigenous literature graphic novels and other genres Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship awards marketing and literary museums The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory

Resilience and Sustainability in Urban Africa Innocent Chirisa, Andrew Chigudu, 2021-08-02 Resilience has become a very topical issue transcending many spheres and sectors of sustainable urban development This book presents a resilience framework for sustainable cities and towns in Africa The rise in informal settlements is due to the urban planning practices in most African cities that rarely reflect the realities of urban life and environment for urban development Aspects of places people and process are central to the concept of urban resilience and sustainable urban growth It stems from the observation that urban vulnerability is on the increase in Zimbabwe and beyond In history disasters have adversely affected nations across the world inflicting wide ranging losses on one hand while on the other hand creating development opportunities for urban communities Cooperation in disaster management is a strategy for minimising losses and uplifting the affected urban settlements The significance of urban planning and design in the growth and development of sustainable urban centres is well documented Urbanisation has brought with it challenges that most developing countries such as Zimbabwe are not equipped to handle This has been accompanied by problems such as overpopulation overcrowding shortages of resources and the growth of slum settlements There need is to seriously consider urban planning and design in order to come up with contemporary designs that are resilient to current urban challenges There are major gaps in urban resilience building for instance in Harare and the local authority needs to prioritise investment in resilient urban

Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers. Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials, this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking in K-8 classrooms. Heller's highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts, reading, writing, and literacy. Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction, a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten, primary 1-3, intermediate 4-6, and middle grades 7-8, instructional guidelines that offer generous, detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice, plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection, and a wealth of classroom vignettes, examples of students' oral and written language, illustrations, and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory, research, and practice. In addition, Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing across the curriculum, greater emphasis on cultural diversity, including new multicultural children's literature booklists that complement the general children's literature bibliographies, and current information on alternative assessment, emerging technologies, the multiage classroom, reader response to literature, and thematic teaching.
