Words about Pictures Perry Nodelman,1990-08-01 A pioneering study of a unique narrative form Words about Pictures examines the special qualities of picture books books intended to educate or tell stories to young children Drawing from a number of aesthetic and literary sources Perry Nodelman explores the ways in which the interplay of the verbal and visual aspects of picture books conveys more narrative information and stimulation than either medium could achieve alone Moving from baby books alphabet books and word books to such well known children s picture books as Nancy Ekholm Burkert s Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs Gerald McDermott s Arrow to the Sun Maurice Sendak s Where the Wild Things Are and Chris Van Allsburg s The Garden of Abdul Gasazi Nodelman reveals how picture book narrative is affected by the exclusively visual information of picture book design and illustration as well as by the relationships between pictures and their complementary texts Writing to Survive Deborah M. Alvarez,2011-02-16 This ethnographic research investigates how adolescents use writing Deborah M Alvarez uncovers the hidden abuses and violence that adolescents bore with each school day In two different research sites the author follows adolescents through their academic and personal lives to discover how they use writing only to uncover the impact the public and private violence had upon their ability to learn The author details the writing classroom practices assignments and how adolescents adapt reconstruct and appropriate the lessons of the classroom for their purpose and needs For the adolescents in the book writing was a way to address the stresses that plagued the adolescents each day especially when they had no other way to communicate or tell about their lived experiences Alvarez outlines an alternative Expressivist plan for teaching writing to adolescents This writing program builds upon the evidence from the case studies brain theory and research on traumatic stresses to offer teachers and thereby their students a more effective way to teach writing with greater impact for those who need it most How to Read a Film James
