Zakariyya Tamir and the Politics of the Syrian Short Story Alessandro Columbu, 2022-12-29 Zakariyya Tamir is Syria's foremost writer of short stories and his works are widely read across the Arab world. In this, the first English language monograph on Tamir's entire oeuvre, Alessandro Columbu examines Tamir's literary development in the context of changing political contexts from his beginnings as a short story writer on local magazines in the late 1950s until the Syrian revolution of 2011. Thus, the movements from independence and Western inspired modernisation to the rise of nationalism and socialism, war, defeat, occupation in the 1960s, the emergence of authoritarianism and the cult of personality of Hafiz al Assad in the 1970s are charted in the context of Tamir's works. Therein, the significance of masculinity and patriarchy and its changing nature in relation to nationalism and authoritarianism are revealed as Tamir's foremost vehicles for social and political critique. The role of female sexuality and its disrupting empowering nature vis-à-vis patriarchal institutions is also explored, as is the question of literary commitment and the relationship between authors and the authoritarian regime of Syria, homosexuality and representations of unconventional sexualities in general.

Modern Arabic Fiction Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 2005 Beginning with the late nineteenth century cultural resurgence and continuing through the present day, short stories and novels have given voice to the personal and historical experiences of modern Arabs. This anthology offers a rich and diverse selection of works from more than one hundred and forty prominent Arab writers of fiction. The collection reflects Arab writers' formal inventiveness as well as their intense exploration of various dimensions of modern Arab life, including the impact of modernity, the rise of the oil economy, political authoritarianism, corruption, religion, poverty and the Palestinian experience in modern times. Salma Khadra Jayyusi, a renowned scholar of Arabic literature, has included short stories and excerpts from novels from authors in every Arab country. Modern Arabic Fiction contains writings stretching from the pioneering work of late nineteenth and early twentieth century authors to the novels of Naguib Mahfouz and the stories of contemporary Arab writers. In addition to familiar names such as Mahfouz, the anthology presents excerpts from writers well known in the Arab world but just beginning to find an audience in the West, including early twentieth century Christian Lebanese writer Jurji Zaydan whose historical epics were eye openers for generations of Arab readers, to the achievements of medieval Islamic civilization. Yusuf Idris's complex and brilliant portrait of Egypt's poor, Abd al Rahman Muneeb's searing exploration of the ecological and social impact of oil production, Palestinian writer Jabra Ibrahim Jabra's sophisticated description of the dilemmas of modern Arab intellectuals, and Jamal al Ghitani's impressive employment of mythical time and the continuity of the past in the present. Jayyusi provides biographical information on the writers as well as a substantial and illuminating introduction to the development of modern Arabic fictional genres that considers the central thematic and aesthetic concerns of Arab short story writers and novelists.

Iraq's Modern Arabic Literature Salih J. Altoma, 2010-10-14. Covering 60 years of materials, this bibliography cites translations, studies, and other writings which represent Iraq's national literature, including recent works of numerous Iraqi writers living in Western exile. The volume serves as a guide to three interrelated data: o Translations that have appeared since 1950 as books or as individual items (poems, short stories, novel extracts, plays, diaries in print and non print publications in Iraq and other Arab and English speaking countries including Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, and the United States); o Relevant studies and other secondary sources including selected reviews and author interviews which cover Iraqi literature and writers; o The scope of displacement or dispersion of Iraqi writers, artists, and other intellectuals who have been uprooted and are now living in exile in Arab or other Western countries. By drawing attention to a largely overlooked but relevant and extensive literature accessible in English, this first of its kind book will serve as an invaluable guide to students of contemporary Iraq, modern Arabic literature, and other fields such as women's studies, postcolonial studies, third world literature, American Arab, Muslim Relations, and Diaspora studies.
