

SHERWOOD ANDERSON SHORT STORIES

Edited and with an Introduction
by Maxwell Geismar

Sherwood Anderson, best known for Winesburg, Ohio, continued until his death to write other fine short stories. In fact, contrary to what many critics say, some of Anderson's best work is his later work, as Maxwell Geismar points out in his critical introduction. (More than half of the stories in this volume are from Anderson's later period, after 1933.)

This comprehensive collection contains tales from The Triumph of the Egg, including "The Egg," the most famous of the group; sad and ironical pieces from Horses and Men; stories from Death in the Woods, which marked Anderson's return to chronicling provincial "small lives"; and some of his final stories from The Sherwood Anderson Reader.

"From the very start of his career . . . Sherwood Anderson belonged to that older order of communal artists who cared, in the deepest, best way, about their own country and their society — and hence were often most deeply critical about it," writes Mr. Geismar.

Maxwell Geismar is the noted critic and author of The Last of the Provincials, American Moderns, and Writers in Crisis, among many other books.
