

Reading Focus	Description and Key Strategies	Use of film and image
RF 1	Decode Use a range of strategies, including accurate decoding of text to read for meaning. Consistently apply phonic knowledge until automation occurs. Read exception words fluently with confidence. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes. Read aloud with fluency and confidence.	Listen to films and animations with subtitles. Watch foreign language films with subtitles.
RF 2	Inference and Deduction Make a judgement based on the evidence (clues) given. KS1 make judgements based on what is said and done. KS2 infer characters' feelings' through thoughts and motives from their actions. Justify inferences with evidence Form opinions and hypothesis that is something is probably true because of other information that we already know. For example, we may deduce that a child in a lion's cage is in danger because we know lions are dangerous.	View body language and actions of characters in silent films to create inferences. Use film clues to deduce time and location. Compare past and future
RF 3	Prediction Predict what might happen based on what has been read so far. Predict what may happen from events, actual and implied.	Make predictions based on scenes from the film. Look at prologues and predict what will happen in the whole film. Watch endings and predict what happened to get to that point.
RF 4	Authorial Intent Discuss how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Think about the choices the author has made.	Why has the director used a particular style? E.g. B&W what effect does this have on viewer?
RF 5	Summarise, review, evaluate Being able to discuss what they have read, précis it and judge it's effectiveness against another text. Take turns in discussion, valuing what others say.	Describe what has happened in a scene, compare two similar scenes from different films. Compare film to a text.
RF 6	Themes Become familiar with key stories and texts such as fairy tales, sci fi etc. Identify a range of themes and conventions across a wide range of texts.	Compare across film and text or between a number of films, finding themes or convention in common, e.g. loss, black and white etc.
RF 7	Performance Learning to appreciate rhyme and poem and recite some by heart. Prepare texts to be read aloud and perform to show understanding through intonation, tone, volume etc Make meaning clear to the audience.	Watch performances of poetry, view readers making meaning explicit and emulate the style.

The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning Music Jonathan Savage, 2013-06-26. The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning Music draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers to provide insight, guidance and clarity about key issues affecting Music teachers. The book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms. The extracts are accompanied by a summary of the key ideas and issues, raised questions to promote discussion and reflective practice and annotated further reading lists to extend thinking. Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme, the chapters cover: Analysing your own work as a music teacher; Concepts of musicality; Notions of musical development and progression; Pedagogies for teaching music musically; Music inside and outside the school; Formal, informal and non-formal approaches to music education; Productive methods of assessment and transition for music education; Creativity and music education; Supporting the gifted and talented in music; Using ICT within music education. Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers, including those working towards Masters level qualifications as well as practicing teachers, this accessible but critically provocative text will be an essential resource for all teachers that wish to deepen their understanding of Music Education.

Australian National Bibliography, 1978. The Literacy Game John Stannard, Laura Huxford, 2007-06-11. Containing invaluable insights from the original director of the National Literacy Strategy (NLS) and its director of training, this book provides the only systematic exploration of the reform programme. A vital introduction and critical appraisal for practitioners and students, The Literacy Game examines the origins, evolution and impact of the NLS and provides a fully comprehensive contribution to the teaching of literacy and the management of educational change. This illuminating text sets out the political background and context to literacy education in England over a decade from 1996 to 2006, explains and appraises the rationale and design underpinning the NLS, thereby rebutting some of the folk lore that has built up around it, provides an example of the principles and practices of large scale system change links the NLS to wider global research on system change and educational reform evaluates the contribution of the NLS in advancing knowledge of the literacy curriculum in English and the development of pedagogy as a whole considers the impact and consequences of the NLS on standards of literacy The Literacy Game is an enlightening book which will appeal to all policy makers and academics who are keen to know what did and did not work in the NLS and why
