Wintle,Michael Wintle,1988 The Birds of Brushy Creek Robert Byron Bird,1996 Live & Work in Belgium, the Netherlands & Luxembourg André De Vries,2002 A detailed survey of the opportunities for living and working in Belgium The Netherlands and Luxembourg from Brussels to Bergen op Zoom and from Antwerp to Amsterdam The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988

Who's who in Writers, Editors & Poets, United States & Canada ,1995 Directory of German Studies Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst,1991 Who's who in U.S. Writers, Editors & Poets ,1992 Books in Print Supplement ,1988 Discord and Consensus in the Low Countries, 1700-2000 Jane Fenoulhet,Gerdi Quist,Ulrich Tiedau,2016-05-02 All countries regions and institutions are ultimately built on a degree of consensus on a collective commitment to a concept belief or value system This consensus is continuously rephrased and reinvented through a narrative of cohesion and challenged by expressions of discontent and discord The history of the Low Countries is characterised by both a striving for consensus and eruptions of discord both internally and from external challenges This interdisciplinary volume explores consensus and discord in a Low Countries context along broad cultural linguistic and historical lines Disciplines represented include early modern and contemporary history art history film literature and translation scholars from both the Low Countries and beyond The Catholic Church and the Dutch Bible Els Agten,2020-03-02 In The Catholic Church and the Bible From the Council of Trent to the Jansenist Controversy 1564 1733 Els Agten studies the impact of Jansenism and anti Jansenism on the ideas regarding vernacular Bible reading and Bible production in the Low Countries in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The book provides a review of book censorship during this time Furthermore it analyses the ideas and the writings of ten protagonists including theologians Bible translators ecclesiastical authorities and representatives of Port Royal In particular the author demonstrates how even as their opponents took a more cautious position the Jansenists encouraged the laity including women and children to read the Bible without any restrictions

Who's who in Finance and Business ,2008 Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century, 1618-1700 (2 Vols.) Arthur der Weduwen,2017-11-06 Winner of the 2019 Menno Hertzberger Encouragement Prize for Book History and Bibliography In Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century Arthur der Weduwen presents the first comprehensive account of the early newspaper in the Low Countries Composed of two volumes this survey provides detailed introductions and bibliographical descriptions of 49 newspapers surviving in over 16 000 issues in 84 archives and libraries This work presents a crucial overview of the first fledgling century of newspaper publishing and reading in one of the most advanced political cultures of early modern Europe Seventy years after Folke Dahl s Dutch Corantos first documented early Dutch newspapers Der Weduwen offers a brand new approach to the bibliography of the early modern periodical press This includes amongst others a description of places of correspondence listed in each surviving newspaper The bibliography is accompanied by an extensive introduction of the Dutch and Flemish press in the seventeenth century What emerges is a picture of a highly competitive and dynamic market for news in which innovative publishers constantly adapt to the changing tastes of customers and pressures from authorities at home and abroad Early Modern Women in the Low Countries Susan Broomhall,Jennifer Spinks,2016-05-13 Combining historical historiographical museological and touristic analysis this study investigates how late medieval and early modern women of the Low Countries expressed themselves through texts art architecture and material objects how they were represented by contemporaries and how they have been interpreted in modern academic and popular contexts Broomhall and Spinks analyse late medieval and early modern women s opportunities to narrate their experiences and ideas as well as the processes that have shaped their representation in the heritage and cultural tourism of the Netherlands and Belgium today The authors study female authored objects such as familial and political letters dolls houses account books visual sources funeral monuments and buildings commissioned by female patrons and further artworks as well as heritage sites streetscapes souvenirs and clothing with gendered historical resonances Employing an innovative range of materials from written sources to artworks material objects heritage sites and urban precincts the authors argue that interpretations of late medieval and early modern women s experiences by historians and art scholars interact with presentations by cultural and heritage tourism providers in significant ways that deserve closer interrogation by feminist researchers Introduction to Dutch William Z. Shetter,1988 Leerboek Nederlands voor anderstalige beginners CLARIN in the Low Countries Jan Odijk,Arjan van Hessen,2017-12-28 This book describes the results of activities undertaken to construct the CLARIN research infrastructure in the Low Countries i e in the Netherlands and in Flanders the Dutch speaking part of Belgium CLARIN is a European research infrastructure for humanities and social science researchers that work with natural language data This book introduces the CLARIN infrastructure describes various aspects of the technical implementation of the infrastructure and introduces data applications and software services created in the Low Countries for a wide variety of humanities disciplines These enable researchers to accelerate their research activities and to base their conclusions on a much larger and richer empirical base than was possible before thus providing a basis for carrying out groundbreaking research in which old questions can be investigated in new ways and new questions can be raised and investigated for the first time Given CLARIN s focus on language data linguistics and particularly syntax are prominently present However other humanities disciplines that work with natural language data such as history literary studies religion studies media studies political studies and philosophy are represented as well The book is a must read for humanities scholars and students who want to understand and use the potential that the Digital Humanities offer as well as for computer scientists and developers of research infrastructures in particular for researchers working on the CLARIN infrastructure in other countries Marketing English Books, 1476-1550 Alexandra Da Costa,2020 Explores how the earliest printers moulded demand and created new markets and argues that marketing changed what was read and the place of reading in sixteenth century readers lives shaping their expectations tastes and their practices and beliefs British Books in Print ,1985 Involving Readers Renske A. Hoff,2024-08-19 This volume explores how and by whom early modern Dutch Bibles were used Through a detailed analysis of paratextual features and readers traces in over 180 surviving Bible copies Renske Hoff shows how individuals manifested their faith in owning reading and personalising the Bible in a period characterised by religious turmoil From nuns and countesses to tailors and merchants Bibles were read by a diverse public Printer publishers shaped the contents and paratextual features of their Bible editions to suit the varied wishes of the reading public Readers themselves added marginalia corrected the text or pasted texts and images in their books displaying their creativity as users as well as stressing the malleability of the material Bible
