Reading Emptiness:

The Heart Sutra Explained Donald S. Lopez, 1988-01-01 Renowned for its terse declaration of the perfection of wisdom the Heart Sutra is the most famous of Buddhist scriptures The author draws on previously unexamined commentaries preserved only in Tibetan to investigate the meanings derived from and invested into the sutra during the later period of Indian Buddhism The Heart Sutra Explained offers new insights on form is emptiness emptiness is form on the mantra gate gate paragate parasamgate bodhi svaha and on the synthesis of Madhyamika Yogacara and tantric thought that characterized the final period of Buddhism in India It also includes complete translations of two nineteenth century Tibetan commentaries demonstrating the selective appropriation of Indian sources The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time Cynthia Ashperger, 2008 The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time examines the place of Chekhov's Technique in contemporary acting pedagogy and practice Cynthia Ashperger answers the questions What are the reasons behind the technique's current resurgence How has this cohesive and holistic training been brought into today's mainstream acting training What separates this technique from the other currently popular methods Ashperger offers an analysis of the complex philosophical influences that shaped Chekhov's ideas about this psycho physical approach to acting Chekhov's five guiding principles are introduced to demonstrate how eastern ideas and practices have been integrated into this western technique and how they have continued to develop on both theoretical and practical levels in contemporary pedagogy thereby rendering it intercultural The volume also focuses on the work of several contemporary teachers of the technique associated with Michael Chekhov International Association MICHA Current teacher training is described as well as the different modes of hybridization of Chekhov's technique with other current methods Contemporary practical experiments and some fifty exercises at both beginner and intermediate advanced levels are presented through analysis examples student journals and case studies delineating the sequences in which units are taught and specifying the exercises that differ from those in Chekhov's original writing This book is for practitioners as well as students of the theatre Body Fascism Brian Pronger, 2002-01-01 Brian Pronger argues that a technological approach to fitness transforms more than the body's functions and contours it diminishes its transcendent power compelling it conform to a profoundly limited imagination of what the body can do Svatantrika-Prasangika Distinction Georges B.J. Dreyfus, L. Sara McClintock, 2015-01-30 Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy came to Tibet from India and became the basis of all of Tibetan Buddhism The Tibetans however differentiated two streams of Madhyamaka philosophy Svatantrika and Prasangika In this collection leading scholars in the field address the distinction on various levels including the philosophical import for both Indian and Tibetan Madhyamaka and the historical development of the distinction itself Locating and Losing the Self in the World Masato Ishida, Laura Specker Sullivan, 2014-10-16 Comparative philosophy brings into focus relationships found across philosophies of disparate cultures In the contemporary globalizing world this perspective is vital it ensures that diverse voices have the opportunity to be heard and refines the understanding of the many varieties of philosophical thought Philosophy departments around the world are beginning to see the import of this broader perspective Recent years have seen tremendous growth in the areas of Chinese Japanese Indian Islamic African Latin American and indigenous philosophies Every year graduate students from around the world gather at the University of Hawai i at M noa the defining center of this comparative movement in order to attend the Uehiro Graduate Student Philosophy Conference These students bring a range of philosophical interests that converge to a definite theme over the course of the conference At the 2012 meeting this theme revolved around human beings recognition of themselves as selves the discovery of the nature of these selves and their relation to the world at large These issues are comparative in the best sense of the word drawing on the interests of canonical Western philosophy as well as reflecting the fundamental concerns of non Western philosophies The three sections of this volume capture the stages of thought moving from self awareness to self transcendence and leading to the general theme of the volume locating and losing the self in the world The papers in this volume represent diverse philosophical viewpoints from canonical Western figures such as Immanuel Kant and Simone de Beauvoir to those of non Western philosophers who have been gaining interest in the English speaking world such as N g rjuna and Nishida Kitar By gaining familiarity with these figures perspectives readers will become better able to distinguish and think through issues including linguistic and phenomenological understanding of the self the self s full engagement with the world and the world s reciprocal determination of the self

Nothingness in Asian Philosophy Jeeloo Liu, Douglas Berger, 2014-06-13 A variety of crucial and still most relevant ideas about nothingness or emptiness have gained profound philosophical prominence in the history and development of a number of South and East Asian traditions including in Buddhism Daoism Neo Confucianism Hinduism Korean philosophy and the Japanese Kyoto School These traditions share the insight that in order to explain both the great mysteries and mundane facts about our experience ideas of nothingness must play a primary role This collection of essays brings together the work of twenty of the world's prominent scholars of Hindu Buddhist Daoist Neo Confucian Japanese and Korean thought to illuminate fascinating philosophical conceptualizations of nothingness in both classical and modern Asian traditions The unique collection offers new work from accomplished scholars and provides a coherent panoramic view of the most significant ways that nothingness plays crucial roles in Asian philosophy It includes both traditional and contemporary formulations sometimes putting Asian traditions into dialogue with one another and sometimes with classical and modern Western thought The result is a book of immense value for students and researchers in Asian and comparative philosophy Chapter 20 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Ocean of Reasoning Tsong khapa, 2006-04-20 Tsong kha pa 14th century is arguably the most important and influential philosopher in Tibetan history An Ocean of Reasoning is the most extensive and perhaps the deepest extant commentary on Nagarjuna's Mulamadhyamakakarika Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way and it can be argued that it is impossible to discuss Nagarjuna's work in an informed way without consulting it It discusses alternative readings of the text and prior commentaries and provides a detailed exegesis constituting a systematic presentation of Madhyamaka Buddhist philosophy Despite its central importance however of Tsong kha pa's three most important texts only An Ocean of Reasoning remains untranslated perhaps because it is both philosophically and linguistically challenging demanding a rare combination of abilities on the part of a translator Jay Garfield and Ngawang Samten bring the requisite skills to this difficult task combining between them expertise in Western and Indian philosophy and fluency in Tibetan Sanskrit and English The resulting translation of this important text will not only be a landmark contribution to the scholarship of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism but will serve as a valuable companion volume to Jay Garfield's highly successful translation of The Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way     The Middle Way Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, 2009-05-26 The Dalai Lama lays out the Buddhist approach to matters of faith and devotion that is based on the highest spirit of critical inquiry     Histories, Practices, Interventions: A Reader In Singapore Contemporary Art Jeffrey Say, Yu Jin Seng, 2023-01-30 Histories Practices Interventions A Reader in Singapore Contemporary Art brings together key writings about ideas practices issues and art institutions that shape the understanding of contemporary art in Singapore This reader is conceived as an essential resource for advancing critical debates on post independence Singapore art and culture It comprises a total of thirty three texts by art historians art theorists art critics artists and curators In addition there is an introduction by the co editors Jeffrey Say and Seng Yu Jin as well as three section introductions contributed by Seng Yu Jin artist curator and writer Susie Wong and art educator and writer Lim Kok Boon Bundle set A Reader in Singapore Modern and Contemporary Art     When the Clouds Part, 2015-02-17 Buddha nature tath gatagarbha is the innate potential in all living beings to become a fully awakened buddha This book discusses a wide range of topics connected with the notion of buddha nature as presented in Indo Tibetan Buddhism and includes an overview of the sources of the tath gatagarbha teachings and the different ways of explaining the meaning of this term It includes new translations of the Maitreya treatise Mah y nottaratantra Ratnagotravibh ga the primary Indian text on the subject its Indian commentaries and two hitherto untranslated commentaries from the Tibetan Kagy tradition Most important the translator's introduction investigates in detail the meditative tradition of using the Mah y nottaratantra as a basis for Mah mudr instructions and the Shentong approach This is supplemented by translations of a number of short Tibetan meditation manuals from the Kadampa Kagy and Jonang schools that use the Mah y nottaratantra as a work to contemplate and realize one's own buddha nature     Reading Ronell Diane Davis, 2010-10-01 Avital Ronell has won worldwide acclaim for her work across literature and philosophy psychoanalysis and popular culture political theory and feminism art and rhetoric drugs and deconstruction In works such as The Test Drive Stupidity Crack Wars and The Telephone Book she has perpetually raised new and powerful questions about how we think what thinking does and how we fool ourselves about the troubled space between thought and action In this collection some of today's most distinguished and innovative thinkers turn their attention to Ronell's teaching writing and provocations observing how Ronell reads and what comes from reading her By reading Ronell and reading Ronell reading contributors examine the ethico political implications of her radical dislocations and carefully explicate extend and explore the paraconcepts addressed in her works     New Readings & New Renderings of power while holding open that same space to keep memory in question and receptive to alternative futures to come Hoag likewise demonstrates how one might occupy memory through insights gleaned from analyzing artifacts media events and tropes from the Occupy Movement a contemporary national and international movement for socioeconomic justice
