Explorations in Interdisciplinary Reading Robbie F. Castleman, Darian R. Lockett, Stephen O. Presley, 2017-05-31 The tension between reading Scripture as primarily a historically situated text on one hand and binding canon addressed to a community of faith on the other constitutes a crucial issue for biblical interpretation Considering the ways the disciplines of Biblical Studies Biblical Theology Patristics and Systematic Theology approach Scripture and biblical interpretation the Biblical Theology Hermeneutics and Theological Disciplines study group within the Institute of Biblical Research established a four year project aimed at clarifying the relationships between these diverse lines of inquiry into scriptural interpretation found in each of these disciplines The goal of this project was to foster a sustained discussion where exploratory papers might be proposed composed and rewritten for final form using a collaborative process This research project and the present volume resulting from it offers valuable insights into the integration of Biblical Studies and Theology as subdisciplines within the academy The essays collected here fall naturally into the following sections Exegetical Explorations Reception Historical Explorations and finally Theological Practical Explorations Explorations in College Algebra Linda Almgren Kime, Judith Clark, Beverly K. Michael, 2017-10-23 Explorations in College Algebra s overarching goal is to reshape the College Algebra course to make it more relevant and accessible to all students This is achieved by shifting the focus from learning a set of discrete mechanical rules to exploring how algebra is used in social and physical sciences and the world around you By connecting mathematics to real life situations students come to appreciate its power and beauty Israel Exploration

Journal Reader Harry Meyer Orlinsky, Harry M. Orlinsky, 1981 A collection of the best articles from Israel Exploration Journal vols 1 25 1951 1975 Canadian Income Tax Act Canada, 19?? Oral Literacies Sam Duncan, 2020-12-23 This is the first book to focus exclusively on an examination of early 21st century adult reading aloud The dominant contemporary image of reading in much of the world is that of a silent solitary activity This book challenges this dominant discourse acknowledging the diversity of reading practices that adults perform or experience in different communities languages contexts and phases of our lives outlining potential educational implications and next steps for literacy teaching and research

By documenting and analysing the diversity of oral reading practices that adults take part in on and offline this book explores contemporary reading aloud as hugely varied often invisible and yet quietly ubiquitous Duncan discusses questions such as What where how and why do adults read aloud or listen to others reading How do couples families and groups use oral reading as a way of being together When and why do adults read aloud at work And why do some people read aloud in languages they may not speak or understand This book is key reading for advanced students researchers and scholars of literacy practices and literacy education within education applied linguistics and related areas
