Today Z. Huang,Y. Ding,L. Liu,1986 A systematic introduction to reading and writing Chinese. Keith Robinson,2012-11-13 This book sets out a clear learning progression that will help students make faster progress in acquiring the language skills needed to read and write Mandarin Chinese It concentrates on the 25 most commonly used radicals giving a clear explanation of their meanings and how to recognise them in their distorted forms It introduces other characters that include these radicals helping to build a vocabulary that is relevant to beginners For the first time it draws the students attention to those characters that carry the phonic and this enables the students to look at a new word have some idea of how it might be pronounced Understanding the radicals their meaning their distorted forms and learning which characters carry the phonic is the fastest way to achieve a basic literacy in Chinese Reading and Writing Chinese

William McNaughton,Li Ying,1999 Reading and Writing Chinese has been the standard text for foreign students and self teachers of the Chinese Writing System since Tuttle first published it over 20 years ago This new completely revised edition offers students a more convenient efficient and up to date introduction to the writing system Elementary Mandarin

Chinese Workbook Cornelius C. Kubler,2020-05-26 This workbook is designed for use with the Elementary Mandarin Chinese Textbook and offers a wealth of carefully designed practice activities to help you solidify every aspect of your Chinese skills in listening speaking reading and writing It includes extensive interactive drills exercises and other practice materials Online audio files are available for use in the relevant exercises The lessons in this workbook correspond to the 24 lessons in the Elementary Mandarin Chinese Textbook The materials in this workbook are meant to be completed by students outside of class to strengthen and consolidate their understanding of the materials in the textbook Lessons 1 and 2 of the Workbook contain exercises to learn to read and pronounce the Pinyin alphabet along with simple classroom expressions They also introduce 48 basic Chinese characters Beginning with Lesson 3 each lesson of the workbook contains two parts Each part has two sets of listening comprehension exercises one translation exercise one character practice sheet and one reading and writing exercise Lessons 13 and 24 of the textbook are review lessons and therefore have no corresponding workbook materials A New Method to Achieve Fluency in Reading and Writing Chinese. Wang Lingli,Keith

Robinson,2015 This book offers a completely new sequence for learning Chinese writing If foreign students start learning to write Chinese by first inputting Radicals on the computer they will make faster progress in being able to remember the vocabulary and their transition to writing Chinese by hand will be more successful At every stage in this carefully thought out sequence the student should be encouraged to also practice what they have learnt on computer by writing the characters out by hand The biggest problem that students have with learning Mandarin Chinese is being able to write Chinese It is a daunting task because of the sheer number of different characters involved and also because until now each character has been treated as a unique and separate entity The time needed to commit all this vocabulary to memory and gain fluency and facility in writing Chinese is immense but using this method it will make learning faster Basic Mandarin Chinese -
