Reading For Pleasure Guidelines Reading Aids Series:

Reading for Pleasure Dixie Lee Spiegel, 1981 Grade level 1 2 3 4 k p e i t      Prereading Activities for Content Area Reading and Learning David W. Moore, John E. Readence, Robert J. Rickelman, 1982 Based on the premise that what students know before they read an assignment will strongly influence what they learn by reading that assignment this booklet provides strategies that teachers can use to evoke and enhance students background knowledge in relation to content area reading Following a foreword and preface the first major section of the booklet discusses readiness to read in the content areas including content and word knowledge motivation and attention The second section provides guidelines for asking and answering questions before reading The third section contains information on forecasting a passage while the fourth section discusses preteaching content vocabulary Previewing graphically represented information is discussed in the fifth section The sixth and final section covers guidelines for selecting prereading activities keeping in mind the characteristics of the learners and materials and the expected learning goals HTH

Teaching Reading Skills Through the Newspaper Arnold B. Cheyney, 1984 Recognizing that newspapers are among the best supplementary instructional materials this booklet offers suggestions for the use of newspapers for teaching or reinforcing specific reading skills The booklet focuses on inferential and evaluative comprehension skills and the suggestions range from how to teach students to identify main ideas and details to the development of higher order critical reading competencies Though its major emphasis is on comprehension the booklet devotes some attention to the reinforcement of decoding skills through the use of newspapers Following an introduction the first two chapters provide a rationale for using the newspaper as an instructional resource and using it to teach reading The remaining chapters provide suggestions in the following areas 1 teaching a reading lesson with the newspaper 2 developing critical readers 3 developing vocabulary and word identification skills 4 developing appropriate reading rates and 5 reading and the language arts A list of suggested books materials and periodicals is appended HTH

Book Promotion News , 1982      Taking Humor Seriously in Children's Literature Patricia Roberts, 1997-11-20 This teaching aid helps librarians and teachers incorporate humor into their classes by presenting quality humorous children's literature and experiences that develop children's sensitivity toward humor      Resources in Education , 2001-10

ERIC Clearinghouse Publications , 1981      Tools, Not Rules Tommy Thomason, Geoff Ward, 2010 If you want to start an argument in a teachers lounge bring up the topic of how best to teach grammar There is a wide spectrum of opinion Traditionalists claim that we must explicitly teach grammar Students drill the basics and diagram sentences Sometimes their study and drills take the place of writing but these teachers claim that good writing demands good grammar At the opposite end of the spectrum are teachers who claim that the best way to learn grammar is to write thereby being forced to use grammar in writing and editing They reason that students will learn grammar in the context of actually using it without all the drills and worksheets They trust the writing process to instill an appreciation for grammar instead of actually teaching it

Teachers on the write to learn grammar side claim that students who are only taught grammar rules might pass tests but since they didn't learn in the context of writing they typically don't apply the rules when they write Grammar traditionalists say students in writing classes never learn grammar at all because it is not explicitly taught In Tools Not Rules authors Tommy Thomason and Geoff Ward take the middle ground position that grammar should be taught as part of the writing process Tommy Thomason is a veteran journalist and university journalism professor at TCU Geoff Ward is a well known Australian professor and associate dean from James Cook University in Townsville Both have written several books and work extensively with American teachers Publisher's website <http://www.eloquentbooks.com/ToolsNotRulesTeachingGrammarInTheWritingClassroom.html>
