Schooling In Sub Saharan Africa Contemporary Issues And Future Concerns:

Schooling in Sub-Saharan Africa Cynthia S. Sunal, 1998 Overviews education in sub Saharan Africa focusing on region wide issues Section I looks at primary schooling higher education and informal sector education Section II examines six major issues through the lens of content area teaching focusing on curriculum and instructional methodologies

Undertaking Educational Challenges in the 21st Century Cynthia S Sunal, Kagendo Mutua, 2008-10-01 This is Book V in the series Research on Education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East The series strives to encourage the presentation of evidence based investigations using data collected on site from the three world regions it considers A strong focus is on data specific to a nation or to a region within a nation as we recognize that nations are diverse often encompassing regions with unique cultural and geographic characteristics The data are rooted in the voices of individuals and communities Such evidential data are analyzed and interpreted within the context of the complex human and natural environments from which they are derived Chapters in the books within the series describe investigations that are part of an effort to continue the publication of an annual compilation of research studies in the three world regions upon which the series focuses The series therefore indicates that the need to develop modern self sufficient independent and post colonial societies is being balanced with the need to strengthen cultural values and identities within these three world regions Book V in the series focuses on how the educational challenges found in these three world regions are addressed The chapters specifically examine related recent research identify useful investigative methodologies identify accomplishments in meeting challenges and consider unresolved challenges The overarching questions presented below were derived from an analysis of the questions methods and conclusions presented in the studies appearing in this book These overarching questions described here reflect the connections between educational issues that emerged in the 20th century and issues identified in the 21st century

Research on Education in Africa, the Caribbean, and the Middle East Kagendo Mutua, Cynthia S Sunal, 2009-03-01 Interculturalism, Society and Education , 2010-01-01 In no part of the world today is the concept of intercultural exchange a novelty and in many parts of the world it has even been a long tradition Nevertheless recent globalization forces have combined to accelerate many aspects of migration and intercultural confrontation As a result we see an emerging world society in which intercultural mixing and conflict are salient characteristics rather than being exceptional situations or embryonic phases of societal development The need for intercultural education and for intercultural dialogue in various forms has become universal All people have an obligation to participate in and take responsibility for world peace balanced sustainable development and democratic dialogue to create the capacity to live together Persistent and increasingly complex patterns of population movement with all of the societal ramifications that accompany them demand consideration of ways in which different societies respond to issues of intercultural education and dialogue both historically and currently Interculturalism Society and Education contains contributions that explore comparative and international case studies ranging from accounts of educational problems impacting specific immigrant groups in Europe socio educational programs and projects in Africa and Asia comparative analyses of citizenship education issues in selected countries and a global overview of different patterns of the interculturalism society education nexus This volume offers a sampling of the multiplicity of intercultural forms around the world useful for policy makers and educators across the spectrum of institutions and organizations that strive to open paths for positive intercultural exchange through education Education, Cultures, and Economics Angela W. Little, Fiona E. Leach, 2013-06-17 This edited volume reviews the conflict between economic prescriptions for improved education in the developing world and local cultures Among the issues reviewed are conceptions of culture and economics in development and education literature economic considerations of school systems to promote cultural goals the differentiation of schools from other sites of cultural reproduction learning experiences of various cultural groups and the cross cultural work of development agencies Educational Restructuring in the Context of Globalization and National Policy Holger Daun, 2002 This study posits that global change is being driven mainly by financial forces new patterns of economic growth and market ideology It then goes on to examine the forces opposing such globalizing processes such as religious and ethnic social movements throughout Africa Asia and Latin America Home was Uncomfortable; School was Hell Cecilia Sem Obeng, 2002 Ghana has faced strong gender bias inside its educational institutions since gaining independence from Britain This prejudice is fuelled by the legacy of the colonial powers nurtured by Ghana's traditional anti female beliefs and made worse by various social crises and irresponsible politicians These factors combine to limit girls educational experiences keeping females in complete submission to males Many of the studies done on girls education have focused on comparing the student population of girls and boys but this book looks at the role played by societal belief systems and socio educational and economic crises impacting girls schooling The author tells about the problems Ghanaian girls face through her own memories as a child and as a teacher in Ghanaian school This book uses case studies of four girls who dropped out of school and their families and teachers to further the understanding of gender issues faced by Ghana in particular and educational systems in general Gender Issues in International Education Maggie Wilson, Sheena Erskine, 2013-10-31 This book discusses equal opportunity for education in a global context Research findings from all over the world including Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America are presented Wilson and Erskine have compiled chapters addressing current gender issues as well as specific problems facing policy makers and professionals alike

Crosscurrents and Crosscutting Themes Kagendo Mutua, Cynthia S Sunal, 2006-08-01 In this Third Volume of the series Research on Education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East the volume continues with the previously established overarching purpose of publishing chapters that are based upon research conducted in those regions by scholars many of whom are indigenous to the regions they write about and are therefore able to provide cultural insights about relevant issues as well as nonindigenous scholars who have conducted their studies in countries within the regions or about those regions This mixture of indigenous scholarship offering emic perspectives and outside scholarship offering etic perspectives continues to be a relative strength and uniqueness of this book series In addition several chapters in the current volume constitute collaborations between the authors etic and emic to the contexts about which they write This bifocality in the gaze cast upon issues covered in this book series has been well received by readers of earlier volumes of the series
