Lord Of Laos:

Britain and Sihanouk's Cambodia Nicholas Tarling, 2014-07-01 Diplomatic relations between Cambodia and Britain at the height of the Cold War provide unique insights into the overall foreign policies of both nations King Norodom Sihanouk's strategy of preserving the independence and integrity of Cambodia through a policy of neutrality grew ever more challenging as the Cold War heated up in Indochina and conflict in Vietnam became a proxy war between the superpowers Despite its alliance with the United States Britain's diplomatic objectives in the region largely aligned with Cambodia's and British criticism of US policy towards Cambodia was a problem in the alliance British diplomatic records present a fascinating window into Cambodian decision making and the rationale behind Sihanouk's sometimes apparently irrational policies The reports yield new insights into Sihanouk's efforts to sustain Cambodia's integrity vis vis its more powerful neighbours Equally a fine grained analysis of British Cambodia relations reveals much about the dynamics of British foreign policy in the period Britain's ultimate dependence on its powerful American ally limited its influence in the region After 1967 indeed it ceased to have a strategic role Over the period British frustrations grew even as it remained consistent in its foreign policy objectives and approaches

Following Jesus Helen Laib, 2022-07-22 Remote villages in Africa and Asia, a war refugee village in Guatemala, war-ravaged muddy Sudan, squatters' camps in South Africa, slums in India, rugged country in Bangladesh, a tsunami-torn community in Sri Lanka, sweltering in Vietnam, inside a jail in Laos, pulling teeth in a prison in Uganda, under a tree in Cambodia and in a bamboo gazebo in Thailand. Following Jesus is never boring. God's compassion compels us to go to the poor and needy all over the world. Dr Helen Laib made a commitment to follow Jesus into medical missions at age sixteen. This didn't come into reality until thirty years later with her first medical mission to Vietnam. Helen is the founder and president of Circle of Love Foundation, a medical mission organization based in Rockford, Illinois. Helen has organized and led over 110 short-term medical trips to seventeen countries, serving over 112,000 people and resulting in 30,000 people making commitments to also follow Jesus. Helen has compiled her trip reports so that others can see how faithful God has been in every situation. He makes all things work out for good.

The Judicial House of Lords Louis Blom-Cooper QC, Brice Dickson, Gavin Drewry, 2009-08-13 The House of Lords served as the highest court in the UK for over 130 years. In 2009 the new UK Supreme Court took over its judicial functions, closing the doors on one of the most influential legal institutions in the world and a major chapter in the history of the UK legal system. This volume gathers over 40 leading scholars and practitioners from the UK and beyond to provide a comprehensive history of the House of Lords as a judicial institution, charting its role, working practices, reputation and impact on the law and UK legal system. The book examines the origins of the House's judicial work, the different phases in the court's history, the international reputation and influence of the House in the legal profession, the domestic perception of the House outside the law and the impact of the House on the UK legal tradition and substantive law. The book offers an invaluable overview of the Judicial House of Lords and a major historical record for the UK legal system now that it has passed into the next chapter in its history.

Liturgical Power Nicholas Heron, 2017-11-28 Is Christianity exclusively a religious phenomenon which must separate itself from all things political, or do its concepts actually underpin secular politics? To this question which animated the twentieth-century debate on political theology, Liturgical Power advances a third alternative: Christian anti-politics. Heron contends that it entails its own distinct conception of politics. Yet this politics, he argues, assumes the form of what today we call administration but which the ancients termed economics. The book's principal aim is thus genealogical: it seeks to understand our current conception of government in light of an important but rarely acknowledged transformation in the idea of politics brought about by Christianity. This transformation in the idea of politics precipitates in turn a concurrent shift in the organization of power and organization whose determining principle Heron contends is liturgy understood in the broad sense as public service Whereas until now only liturgy s acclamatory dimension has made the concept available for political theory Heron positions it more broadly as a technique of governance What Christianity has bequeathed to political thought and forms he argues is thus a paradoxical technology of power that is grounded uniquely in service Historical sketches of the missions under the care of the Board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church Philadelphia Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.
