Life after Loss Bob Deits, 2017-05-02 One of the classics in the field of crisis intervention Dr Earl Grollman Life after Loss is the go to resource for anyone who has suffered a significant life change Loss can be overwhelming and recovery often seems daunting if not impossible With great compassion and insight Deits provides practical exercises for navigating the uncertain terrain of loss and grief helping readers find positive ways to put together a life that is necessarily different but equally meaningful With two new chapters and significant changes throughout reflecting Deits s ongoing experience in counseling Life after Loss is an essential roadmap for those in grief Lawrence J Lincoln MD Staff Elisabeth K Ross Center End-of-Life Issues, Grief, and Bereavement Sara Honn Qualls, Julia E. Kasl-Godley, 2010-11-04 A practical overview of clinical issues related to end of life care including grief and bereavement The needs of individuals with life limiting or terminal illness and those caring for them are well documented However meeting these needs can be challenging particularly in the absence of a well established evidence base about how best to help In this informative guide editors Sara Qualls and Julia Kasl Godley have brought together a notable team of international contributors to produce a clear structure offering mental health professionals a framework for developing the competencies needed to work with end of life care issues challenges concerns and opportunities Part of the Wiley Series in Clinical Geropsychology this thorough and up to date guide answers complex questions often asked by patients their families and caregivers and helping professionals as well including How does dying occur and how does it vary across illnesses What are the spiritual issues that are visible in end of life care How are families engaged in end of life care and what services and support can mental health clinicians provide them How should providers address mental disorders that appear at the end of life What are the tools and strategies involved in advanced care planning and how do they play out during end of life care Sensitively addressing the issues that arise in the clinical care of the actively dying this timely book is filled with clinical illustrations guidance tips for practice and encouragement Written to equip mental health professionals with the information they need to guide families and others caring for the needs of individuals with life threatening and terminal illnesses End of Life Issues Grief and Bereavement presents a rich resource for caregivers for the psychological sociocultural interpersonal and spiritual aspects of care at the end of life

Palliative Care: A Practical Guide for the Health Professional Kathryn Boog, Claire Tester, 2007-10-23 This book encourages health professionals to reconceptualise their practice in the light of the fact that their patients are deteriorating and dying supporting them in their dichotomous role which involves affirming that person's life whilst acknowledging that that life is ending Professionals are encouraged to think laterally to be creative in their use of their core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions By making these changes those involved with caring for the dying will be able to address issues related to burnout and feeling de-skilled The authors share their considerable experience with the reader what works for both patient and carer professional when working in this field By providing workable solutions they empower those in disempowering situations such as when working with terminally ill children and adults The book is truly holistic and client centred in its approach upholding the philosophy of palliative care Aimed at all who interact with children and adults who have a life limiting condition or who are dying Offers practical examples of approaches to dilemmas and emotional issues commonly face by those working in palliative care Encourages professionals to think laterally to be creative in their use of core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions Moves the emphasis away from the medical model to the emotional and spiritual influences on quality of life Offers clear workable guidelines and demonstrates practical solutions based on proven theory and experience to problems encountered on a day to day basis by patients and those coming into contact with them

Care, Loss and the End of Life, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 This inter and multi disciplinary volume examines various experiences of loss whether we encounter it in the form of lost loved ones lost relationships lost opportunities or the loss of capabilities as we age Loss is something we can experience personally as part of a family and as part of a community whose collective experiences of loss occasions more public displays of commemoration We are constantly challenged to find ways of coping and surviving in the face of different types of loss Due in part to the complexities of the concept itself and the resistance many individuals feel toward discussing painful subjects it is often difficult to engage in the sort of robust inter disciplinary dialogue that is needed to explore fully the links between living suffering dying and surviving loss Thus this volume is profoundly interdisciplinary as it explores how loss can be expressed through cognitive affective somatic behavioral interpersonal and spiritual grief responses

Non-Death Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, 2019-10-16 Non Death Loss and Grief offers an inclusive perspective on loss and grief exploring recent research clinical applications and current thinking on non death losses and the unique features of the grieving process that accompany them The book places an overarching focus on the losses that we encounter in everyday life and the role of these loss experiences in shaping us as we continue living. A main emphasis is the importance of having words to accurately express these living losses such as loss of communication with a loved one due to disease or trauma which are often not acknowledged for the depth of their impact. Chapters showcase a wide range of contributions from international leaders in the field and explore individual perspectives on loss as well as experiences that are more interpersonal and sociopolitical in nature. Illustrated by case studies and clinical examples throughout, this is a highly relevant text for clinicians looking to enhance their support of those living with ongoing loss and grief.
